INTRODUCTION

“Our Movement is founded on God’s most precious treasures: Jesus in the Eucharist and Our Lady.” That is what Guza stated in her message for the February 1994 prayer meeting. When one reads this book, one justly concludes that the Blessed Virgin, the Mother given to us by Christ Himself, is an instrument in God’s hands to draw us closer to Him and to His Son Jesus.

As a mother, Our Lady warns us against evil, she stresses the need of prayer and penance and urges us to recognise the greatness of the sacrament which we may call the invention of love: the Eucharist.

Through Guza’s simple words, the Blessed Virgin teaches us that our prayers should not be self-centred, but we should pray for all the nations, especially for the world leaders, for sinners, for those who despise God, for our enemies, for those who are suffering from wars, disease, injustice and natural disasters... In our prayers we should remember everyone’s needs so that God may have mercy on us and grant us true peace.

Let us not disregard these warnings and this teaching, but we should all contribute to a better world.

Finally, I thank all those who have helped in the translation and publication of this book and again I point out that in case of any discrepancies in the translation, the Maltese text always prevails.

SYLVANA SPITERI

PRAYER MEETINGS AT GIRGENTI

JUNE 1993

After condemning indecency, Guza insisted against the interference in other people’s business. “My dear brothers and sisters, let us keep our peace and not poke our nose in the affairs of others, because slander and gossip cause so much ill feeling... among both women and men. Men would say: ‘I was told that they have seen my wife with another man.’ Well, perhaps that may not be true! We should be tolerant, we should forgive one another, forbear one another and refrain from acting in that manner... Our Lady wants Malta to be at peace... Friends, let us be careful, we should not slander others and we should not say things, about men and women, such as ‘I saw him, or I saw her.’ This is not right because some absurd behaviour might split families. Our Lady wants union in our families and among everybody; she does not want wars and strife, Our Lady wants peace...”

About the holy rosary, Guza said: “The Blessed Virgin herself said that the hands of those who pray the rosary will be filled with God’s blessings. The Lord transforms the beads of the rosary in precious jewels.”

During this prayer meeting the following message was read: “On May 28, 1993, a priest came to give me Holy Communion, and when Jesus in the Eucharist was in his hands, I told him: ‘Father, today the Eucharist in your hands is so beautiful.’ He asked me: ‘What did you say?’ I replied: ‘The Eucharist is extremely beautiful in your hands.’”

This time in the Eucharist, I did not see Jesus suffering as I usually do, but in the hands of the priest the Eucharist appeared like a diamond, spiritual rays were emerging from it. My eyes could not withstand the rays (its brightness) and I told the priest: 'Today I am seeing the host emitting bright rays of light.' I tell you that it had a large cross across it. It was a diamond cross, a beautiful cross, diamonds, gold, I cannot really explain. I did not see a white Host... This time I saw what the Eucharist contains. When we receive it worthily, the Eucharist contains the finest gold, precious stones of spiritual diamonds. I cannot explain...

I only tell you that in this month of June we should greatly appreciate the immense greatness Jesus left us before He ascended into Heaven... The Eucharist consists of great spiritual gifts... This time I really feel stunned with the beauty I saw in the divine and blessed Host... I saw Jesus in the glory of His Father.

When I saw Jesus in this vision, I told Him: 'You are suffering with me,' and He answered: 'I have been through this suffering before you...' I told Him that I am suffering because I wish that I could talk to the people who come and knock at my door, but because of my ailments and lack of strength, I do not even let them in. I tell you that those whom the Blessed Virgin contacted in the past, used to enter a convent, but Jesus told me: 'Your vocation consisted in carrying out your mission in the open.'...

Dear brothers and sisters, there are many roads which lead us to the holy and blessed doors of Heaven our homeland, and we must not lose heart. We should only be discouraged when we are guilty of mortal sins, the sins of these ugly and evil times: immoral and dirty things among the sexes. Our Lady is sorely grieved by these things, they are vilifying Malta, Gozo and the whole world...

During the night, I cannot stay long in bed... because I cannot change my posture and therefore I prefer to rest in an armchair rather than in bed. My thoughts then turned to my dear brother in Christ, Padre Pio... During Holy Communion and during mass I pray to God so that He will continue to sanctify Padre Pio in Heaven and to grant him the sainthood on earth. I also pray for Reverend Father George Preca, Monsignor Grima, Reverend Father George Mercieca and Monsignor Depiro...

In a vision I had of Padre Pio, I saw him as a young monk wearing the Franciscan habit. He was not suffering, and he told me: 'My dear sister Guza, keep on offering your sufferings for the greatest glory of God, of His Son Jesus and of the Holy Spirit so that He will continue to increase His help and guide you in your speeches. Continue to talk about the Eucharist because the Eucharist is making you very brave. I too used to preach about the Eucharist while I was on earth. For me it was very precious but now we are living in an ugly age where the Eucharist is not considered so important. Keep increasing your gifts about the Eucharist and attract everyone to it... not only in your country but also throughout the world. Pray to the Holy Trinity so that you will have the peace for which you have long been praying, the peace so much awaited by the world, everlasting peace, the peace as willed by God, as it emerges from the hands of the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity... When I was alive, I endured the same things you are going through. People did not esteem what I told them, they did not appreciate all that was revealed to me by Our Lady. However now, God is permitting that appreciation after my death.

Therefore, do not worry but persevere in the great gift of faith given to you by God. Give it to others, because when you feel God within you, you cannot keep this love to yourself but you must give it to others so that you will compel them to love God, as you are already doing. Tell them that you have received this message from me, Padre Pio, who has granted you a vision in this month of May... You will be given great strength so that you will bestow God's love to others and spread the holy love of the Trinity not only in your country but spread a great devotion towards the Holy Trinity in all the world....

Praise the Lord God, Jesus in the Eucharist and the Holy Spirit for the gifts and the lovely words with which He inspires you to pass on to others. Also, thank the Blessed Virgin for all that she has delivered to you. By the message which Our Lady started to reveal to you since your childhood and has continued up to this day when you are of a mature age, you are always drawing people towards the love of the adorable heart of Jesus in the Eucharist...'

Let us praise the Lord: O My God, I believe in You, I adore You, I love You, I hope in You and I ask You forgiveness for all those who do not trust in the Provident Hand of God, of Jesus, of the Holy Spirit and the Blessed Virgin. Alas, let us be at peace, let us ask for the great gifts of the Holy Spirit so that He will adorn us further with God's love and grant us immense and infinite faith. Let us pray so that God will increase our faith in Him and in Heaven, thus we will have love amongst us and He will send us peace from Heaven, a lasting peace...

Let us not allow the macabre spirit of darkness to destroy our families... Christ underwent such a cruel passion to redeem us, and then we follow these evil roads, inciting others by insinuations... We should leave at liberty those persons who speak for God; we should not obscure them and make them suffer injustices. God does not want this. We would not be pardoned for this base behaviour by which we make others suffer injustices by defamation...

I wish that everybody loves and respects the Lord in the Eucharist. Not, God forbid, we blaspheme the Eucharist! How dare we blaspheme the Eucharist or else utter such vulgar obscenities against the Queen of Heaven, Our Lady! Our Lady was completely consecrated to God. Are not we ashamed to use such vile titles in her regard? We cannot do these things, you know. It is not right, it is not correct.

My heart suffers greatly when I hear people blaspheming in the street. I start praising God in my house, I say: Blessed be God, blessed be the Host, praised be Jesus of the Eucharist, praised be the Blessed Virgin. Holy Mother, forgive them, do not consider this as a sin...

Therefore, let us pray so that Our Lady will make us very happy. Let us pray with great faith for the needs of Malta and Gozo and for the needs of all the nations of the world. Let us pray for the needs of those who are fighting evil, for those who combat the powers of darkness. Let us also pray for those who follow the powers of darkness so that God will strengthen their heart and convert them and they will not persist in sin and despair in the abyss of hell..."

Guza commenced this meeting by apologising to those present for having had to reduce her telephone calls. These required great energy from her and she was feeling very ill. She continued: "I came to know that when we come up here to pray we gain more" because prayer is accompanied by sacrifice.

"Let us pray the Lord for our needs. As I told you, we are present here before the Lord God of Hosts, together with the Lord Jesus, Our Lady and now we even have the powerful Saint Michael to defend us from the evil of the devil. We have much for which to pray in Malta you know, because... we have the dirty mass of the devil in which they make use of the Eucharist during those horrible rites. Let us pray the Lord God to rid us as quickly as possible from this nonsense we have in Malta... Presently the Lord Jesus is suffering terribly by the bad examples we are giving on the beaches because He suffered greatly when He was stripped of His clothes... These impure actions do not please the Lady of Life and she wants others to atone for them. Those who can, those who are of good will and are able to, instead of contenting themselves by saying one decade of the rosary should say two. Instead of saying five decades only, we should say another five for the needs and for the conversion of these people so that God willing, they will rid themselves of the evil in which they are embedded... Up here, we make a sacrifice. Those who can should come and make this sacrifice for the greatest glory of God and the beloved Lord Jesus who is doing so much good among the Maltese.

Let us adore Jesus in the Host, true God and true man (ten times)... Let us say nine "Glory Be" in honour of the nine choirs of angels and lay them at the foot of the altars of all the churches of Malta, Gozo and the whole world, so that with the angels we will adore the same Eucharist. Glory be to the Father... Glory be to God almighty who is, who was and who will always be. O My God, I believe in You, I adore You, I hope in You and I love You. I beg You forgiveness for those who do not believe in You, do not adore You, do not hope in You, do not love You and do not serve You..."

Guza then condemned cruelty to animals, "I hear dogs barking on roofs and they are punished. Why are animals ill-treated? Animals are God's creatures... Yesterday evening, I drew a great meditation on the subject. At 8.30p.m. I was praying in the yard and I saw a procession of ants coming out of the wall. The devil urged me to kill them... but I said why should I kill these ants with poison, are not they God's creation?... However, let me tell you how great God is! Three birds flew down into the yard, I did not do anything except that I told them: 'Come my friends.' What did these birds do? See how great God is and how we should not discount anything, the Lord makes use of everything! These birds flew down and started eating these ants. See how great God is. If we meditate on the greatness of God, He will use us... I said: 'Why am I going to kill these ants?' Soon some other creatures came and consumed these ants because they found nothing to eat. That is why we should praise the Lord..."

Be people of good will, be holy, and acknowledge God especially in the holy, blessed and immaculate Eucharist. Before I receive the Eucharist, I address it with many titles because that is what Mons. Grima used to tell me. Before giving me the Host, he used to ask me to kiss it."

Then the rosary was recited. Guza offered it "for the needs of the Church, for the needs of priests so that we will have more priests who will understand us, so that they will be holy priests and understand the mission for which God created them.

Let us offer the second mystery for the needs of the missions. There is so much suffering among missionaries...

Let us offer the third mystery for the needs of those Maltese, Gozitans and foreigners who do not acknowledge God, who do not know Him. So many things remind us of God. I am ashamed to say that some Maltese came to my house and told me that they do not know God. What do you mean that you Maltese living in Malta do not know God? Aren't your mother and father baptised?... This is not right. We should atone for them...

We should also pray for those people who have children and insist that they do not want to baptise them. Holy Spirit of God, unite us in peace and rid the world and us from all this trouble.

Let us recite the last decade for the unity of the whole world... so that we will be under the responsibility of one shepherd who is the Lord God, the Lord Jesus. That is Our Lady's aim in bringing us up here...

Our Lady wants us to unite in prayer, in our opinions, in all that God has prepared for us rather than passing judgement on others. We should not declare anybody as being evil but we should treat everyone as our brother and our sister."

During his speech, Rev. Fr. Nazzaren Tonna, the spiritual director of the Movement's Committee said: "It is very important to try to understand that we come up here to pray as well as to give witness, to act as ambassadors so that by the help given to us by Our Lady we can better understand the beautiful words of Jesus, 'Come to Me all who are troubled and burdened by problems and I will give you rest.'

In this message, I am collating all the words that Guza said today. She mentioned the Eucharist a number of times. She did so because who believes gives more meaning to what he is learning. To believe, you must be convinced, and when you are convinced you are ready to do what our sister Guza has spoken about, sacrifice... It is a marvellous thing to walk hand in hand with Jesus. Give me Your hand, dear Jesus, because by myself I cannot do anything; help me because when You are with me I can conquer many temptations... We come up here to pray together, to work together for the glory of God... because that is what God deserves, that is what Mary the Mother of God and our Mother deserves. She promised God that she would be our Mother and guide us until we reach Him. May Jesus Christ be praised."

Then Guza insisted once more in favour of decency in dress. "We should wear decent clothes, clothes as desired by Our Lady and clothing by which we offend the heart of God and of the Lord Jesus. In the tenth station of the cross, Jesus suffered greatly when they stripped Him of the holy and blessed robe which His beloved mother had made for Him... I have never seen Our Lady without a veil. I have always seen her very modest, giving a good example. Why have we abandoned these things today? Has not God remained the same? Don't the ten commandments of the past still exist today?..."

Towards the end of the prayer meeting, some babies were blessed and presented to God and Our Lady. Guza said: "Lord, bless these innocent children, they are without sin and without any guilt. Bless these children and grant that for their love we will be very strong in our faith, we will strengthen our faith to give glory to God and all in Heaven."

According to Guza, it was Our Lady's wish that this prayer meeting be held on August 5, the Blessed Virgin's birthday. The meeting started with a pilgrimage from the end of the old road leading to Girgenti. During the pilgrimage, the Holy Rosary was recited and the titular painting of Our Lady of Consecration led the procession.

After the usual prayers and praise to God, Guza said: "Let us talk about how much God and the Lord Jesus love us..." She added that she came to Girgenti in agony: "How am I going to explain so that you will understand me? Now I no longer merely carry the cross, but it is within me, so that I may much more feel the Lord's love. When the cross presses down on me, I recall the Lord even more and I especially remember you. I do not even say a Hail Mary for myself alone..."

The heart of Guza's message for that day was what the doctor had told her earlier on, that is, "When we come and visit you, God permits that we find nothing wrong with you. When we leave all your sufferings permitted by the Lord return."

Guza then recalled how four days after the July prayer meeting she felt a great pain in her head, as if daggers were piercing it. At that moment she found a picture of Our Lady of Consecration under her pillow and pressed it hard to her head. “You who are ill do not lose heart... sooner or later we have to die and the more we bear our sufferings with patience the more will we earn merit before the Lord... the more beautiful will our place be before the Lord.”

Guza condemned wars, violence and the attack on churches. She said: “We have much for which we should do penance and ours today is a double penance because we did not just go to church sit on a chair or on a bench near a spinning fan, and pass the rosary beads through our hands. We have left our homes and walked from down there in sacrifice...”

Guza even spoke about the greatness of the Eucharist and about the love we should have amongst us. She said that if we omit someone from our prayers because we despise him, then those prayers are useless. At the end, Guza urged all those present to visit Girgenti more often to pray because Our Lady was sure to grant many spiritual favours.

SEPTEMBER 1993

Guza said that she had come up to Girgenti so that she would especially thank the Lord God and Our Lady for the favour she was granted on the eve of the Assumption (August 15), when the pain she had in her head subsided. More details can be read in the message reproduced further down.

Later, Guza condemned blasphemy and recounted how vexed she was a week before when someone visited her at her house and told her that no one is offended by swearing. Guza said that by blasphemy we hurt God’s and the Blessed Virgin’s heart. She recalled that Our Lady had urged her to defend God’s honour from blasphemy when she appeared to her for the first time. She encouraged those present to fight against “the spirit of darkness.”

During this prayer meeting the following message was read out: “Our Lady’s month (August) is extremely beautiful. During this evening of Saturday, August 14, 1993, I feel that I would be very cruel to myself if I do not take up a cassette in my hand and record all that the Lord performed with me...”

I have been sick all my life, but as I told you in our last prayer meeting, in these last times the weight of the cross of Christ has increased upon me so that I may better resign myself to God... On Thursday, July 8, I sent for the doctor because I was very, very sick. I had an acute headache... I greatly use the Lord and I tell you that my faith is so strong that for me God is my doctor...

The doctor came on Friday, July 9, and he told me: “You have a wound, both your gums are swollen, but I am also worried about your eyes.” I replied: “This evening, I am not feeling tears coming out of my eyes but drops of blood which are dripping from the crown which Jesus the Redeemer placed on my head. I feel that Jesus the Redeemer took off His crown of thorns and placed it on my head.” He said: “Yes, Guza it is true! God wants you to suffer greatly for sinners.” I replied: “I know, but that does not discourage me.”

Time kept passing by and the pain kept increasing, it penetrated into me. On Saturday, Architect Azzopardi (the Movement’s President) telephoned me up and told me that the dentist was paying me a visit on Tuesday. I told him: “I will rely on God, I will place my trust in God because only He can help me, you cannot do anything.”...

When the dentist came, he said: “You only have two teeth which must be extracted... Your mouth is sore.” I replied: “But the pain is not in my mouth, my whole head is hurting. It is as if I have two daggers pushing against each other in my head... I use God before you.” He answered: “That is right, you are doing the right thing.” He advised me to gargle with salt but I did not use salt. Instead, I kept praying to God, I trusted even more in God. When the dentist was at my house I was not feeling very bad, but when they left I felt unbearable pain everywhere, in my legs, hands, back, head...

Following the prayer meeting of August 5, I consulted the doctor again because I had gone up there (Girgenti) in great pain. From Friday to Tuesday I telephoned him daily, he made me hope that he would come but he never turned up. That was God’s will that he would not turn up.

Today it is the eve of the Assumption, August 14. In the morning, the Lord Jesus and I talked. He told me many things and I spent the day in great tribulations, completely disheartened...because yesterday I told someone that this time I will surely die, I cannot remain in the world any longer...

Today at about 7.30pm while I was reciting the rosary I heard the telephone ringing. I was saying the fourth sorrowful mystery, when Jesus was loaded with the cross and I was telling Him: “Lord Jesus, do something today through the intercession of Your Mother Mary.” I felt that I was getting happier. I told Him: “Today it is the feast of the Queen, there is a great feast in Heaven and this evening I want to prepare myself for this feast.” I truly prepared myself for it and the Lord God of Hosts through His Son Jesus, the Holy Spirit and the Blessed Virgin granted me marvellous things...

My sister had telephoned to ask me how I felt. I told her: “Well, sister... I am hoping that God will comfort me and help me.” My sister encouraged me greatly. The line went dead, but she rang back and I told her that I was trying to go and spend some time in the yard.

In fact, I took out a chair in the yard and I cannot explain the things that I saw in heaven today. I stayed in the yard from 9.00 to 11.00p.m. I truly cannot explain the marvellous things, which Our Lady granted me this evening. Our Lady is praying hard for me to the Lord, she is praying earnestly for you. I am asking Our Lady to pray hard to God for our dear Malta so that we will be rid of the rubbish that we have in Malta: people who completely do not believe in God and in His infinite greatness...

However, I tell you that Our Lady’s prayers were heard and penetrated the hearts of the Lord God and of the Lord Jesus. Our Lady is so lovely in heaven tonight. She has so many great and beautiful hosts of angels; she has so many divine faces near her. I saw her son, the Lord Jesus, clothed in the majestic robe with which His Eternal Father adorned Him. I do not want to speak further for you will say: “Guza invents things and visions.”...

I am so happy and so full of joy. It could be that tomorrow I will again feel those two daggers in my head, the pain which penetrates into my legs, the wounds in my hands, the other dagger I have in my back, but it does not matter, may the Lord be blessed. Tonight I was told why I had to endure such terrible pain.

Tonight, through Our Lady’s intercession, the Lord has taken away all my sufferings and gave me a glorious night during which I can feel a little joy of life. Right now, I feel like a happy, delighted and powerful angel such as those that are near Our Lady and I am delighted with the greatness and the glory of the Blessed Virgin.

My dear brothers and sisters, who are sick at home, by yourselves just like me, you are right in feeling that illness penetrates you. Like me you have many, many problems but I want you to strengthen your heart, to strengthen your faith and your beliefs, attach yourselves and cling to God, cling to the Lord Jesus when you receive Holy Communion...

I tell you that tonight the Lord God opened my eyes and I could see the stars. I had not seen them ever since that cursed letter hit my eye. I am praising God with my hands and with my heart because this is truly a great night...

Now, I must tell you something else about Our Lady. Tonight the Blessed Virgin is wearing divine clothing in the holy city of her kingdom; she is wearing the blessed vestments of the divine Queen of Heaven. I will not tell you that she had a long train, for these are spiritual things, divine things and I cannot really apprehend them.

I am just going to urge you to pray earnestly for the world. Let us pray for the Pope so that he will continue to speak about peace. Let us pray for our Bishops so that they will speak about Our Lady's desire for peace, that we may completely rid Malta of evil and as such the Blessed Virgin will permit that peace starts from Malta. However, Our Lady told me that we still have much evil: couples who have children and abort the baby... Some women visited me and told me: "Pray for our children so that they baptise their children. They have a baby and their husband does not want to baptise it." This is not right, these are not good signs...

Let us organise ourselves with love and not with hatred. I do not know about politicians but they should join hands with the Pope and with our bishops... I will therefore tell my brother in Christ, Eddie, my brother in Christ Alfred Sant... let us take hold of the rosary beads, let us hold it with love and in peace so that a great event will happen in Malta... We will have peace and this peace will start from Malta. It would be a great satisfaction if peace were to start from Malta... I tell you to pray to the Lord God of Hosts to throw His look upon Malta and Gozo. Pray to the three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity to turn Their look on the whole world and throw all the wars in the depths of the sea from which will rise a beautiful star... the star of peace which will reign over Malta, Gozo and all the world...

Now I am speaking on Sunday, August 15, 1993. I hope that this morning during mass you have heard about the powerful Blessed Virgin, the woman who was predestined by God, who was clothed with light, clothed with the sun, the light of God's divine majesty. The power of the Queen of Heaven and earth has brought great comfort both in the glory of Heaven and even on earth, in the world, because the Lord has adorned this woman with all His powerful graces.

Today I shall speak to you about the Lord Jesus because when I met Him at about 8.30, when we made contact during Holy Communion, He told me: "Today record a passage on the cassette and do it willingly." Jesus of the Eucharist loves sinners; His heart is wide open for sinners. He did so much so that no soul will perish... When you receive Holy Communion, tell Him what you feel, tell Him about the sorrow you felt in the past when you were still in mortal sin, when the devil used to tempt you to keep away from the Eucharist. Open your heart wide for this is what the Lord Jesus is expecting... from those who are still distant from His precious heart.

We must have great faith to recognise what God did with the Blessed Virgin. We will then understand these things after our death, when we go to Heaven our homeland. Then we will understand the mystery of the Three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity. Now we need not worry about them...

As I have already told you, it was the Lord God who permitted that the doctor did not turn up, so that I may unite myself further to God, cling to Him, so that I will be able to say that all that happens to me comes from God...

Now I am speaking to you on Tuesday, August 31, 1993. I will mention the great Saint Michael the Archangel. When I enter the poor room of Our Lady, which for me is a sanctuary, I am in darkness except for a lit crucifix which I have in front of the picture of Our Lady, and another cross. I do not even have any live plants but sometimes the Lord and the Divine and Blessed Lady transform them into fragrant plants, a scent of perfume or a scent of incense...

This evening I was truly impressed because at one moment I was in darkness... and suddenly I saw much light in the room. At the end of the balusters I saw something very beautiful... I saw the great and blessed Saint Michael who gave me many lovely instructions during this last night of the month of August. When I saw this beautiful and spiritual light on this Archangel, I told him: "Beloved servant of the Lord, I am so tempted by the spirit of darkness."

He told me: "Do not feel afraid because of his frequent temptations. He wanted to get rid of you since the early past but never forget that the powerful hand of God is with you. You are making this spirit of darkness wriggle excessively. In that place where I had appeared to you in the distant past and where later you saw the Queen of Heaven and earth, much good is being achieved. There is a great struggle between the spirit of darkness and the Lady of Life because Our Lady is performing much good in the souls of those who are, up there, praying to her... Up there, at Girgenti, marvellous things are happening and here as well, because, you pray fervently for those people who are distant from the Lord God."

In fact, I offer my pain, my sufferings and my abandonment of the world for the needs of those souls who are in darkness so that the Lord God will give them spiritual light in their souls..."

Towards the end of the prayer meeting, Monsignor Buontempo addressed those present. He said: "We come up here to pray and we have prayed. We recited the rosary, we meditated on the mysteries and we heard the message prepared for us by Guza. I sincerely tell you that frequently I am amazed, because it cannot be, it can never be that a woman who does not have the knowledge, which she expresses in such messages, delivers such a message.

I do not want to add words to those I have heard together with you. I simply want to tell you that whenever I stop to meditate and think about the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration, I say that it is a mystery. It is a mystery because nowhere did we find any written reference to this particular title of Our Lady, it does not exist anywhere. The Movement of Our Lady of Consecration possesses a great significance; it has a great meaning. We need to understand what this Movement signifies to all our Maltese brethren and to us.

Presently, we are passing through a very bad period... I place the situation in which Malta is in the hands of Our Lady of Consecration. Let us thank the Lord here. Let us get together up here, let us come here to recite the rosary and to pray... The people of Malta and Gozo must understand how much the Blessed Virgin loves us, how much she desires that Malta does not lose her faith and will not break the link we have with Saint Paul. Our father, Saint Paul truly brought us the faith so that we would not allow anyone to steal it from us, to take it away from us. We should not allow anyone to darken the light he brought us when he baptised Malta and made her a child of God, when he brought the faith to Malta by which it would be an example to all the other countries.

May the Blessed Virgin bestow her blessings upon us and pray to the Eternal Father, to her son Jesus and the Holy Spirit to throw upon us the light of faith. May they once more stir in our hearts feelings of love towards one another, so that we love one another in what is righteous and in what is just... Love is altruism; it is giving ourselves for what we love. We are ready to shed our blood to prevent Malta from advancing towards the ugly abyss of apostasy. May Jesus Christ be praised."

OCTOBER 1993

After various prayers and praise to God and to Our Lady, Guza urged the congregation to pray for the whole world. She said that the Blessed Virgin had asked her to pray for India and then some days later an earthquake struck India and left thousands of casualties.

About the water at Girgenti, she said: "The water we have up here is a grace of Our Lady, she herself requested it. We should not use that water... except as a devotion to Our Lady." She condemned those who take it in buckets because that way its sense of devotion is lost.

Guza mentioned various points which were repeated in a message which was read on that day and therefore I am reproducing this message:

"God Our Father loves us tremendously, infinitely. When a respectable and truly caring father loves his children, his own children will not succeed in loving their father as much as he loves them. We who live on earth cannot understand the great love with which God, our almighty Father, loves us. He continued to show us His love as a true father through the Lord Jesus, by all that He did for us. Everybody knows how great Christ's sufferings were. He did not find it difficult to leave God's holy city to come down on earth to suffer for us. How are we repaying the Lord God and the Lord Jesus? With much scorn and other evil acts.

Today it is Wednesday, September 29, 1993. Yesterday I had a contact with the Lady of Life. From the peaceful and holy voice of Our Lady, I heard some spiritual things that trouble me. She said: "Do not worry, keep talking about what I am going to tell you because all that I am doing in Malta through you is the result of God's love."

Dear brothers and sisters, I shall embark upon an issue about which I cannot speak too openly because if I do I will face many problems. I told the Lady of Life that I will not speak too openly. Abroad there are some who do speak openly but I cannot...

During our last prayer meeting I told you that we must pray hard and that we must do penitence because we are behaving as in foreign lands: we are no longer using the Lord as we should. Let me start by mentioning what I have known since I had the contact with Our Lady in the valley of Girgenti about blasphemy against the Lord God, the Holy Host and the Blessed Virgin. I am mentioning these things because Our Lady's heart is greatly crushed by them. It could be, not it could be but it is possible that if we proceed in this cursed vice of blasphemy, the powerful Hand of God will punish us, even though there are some who say that blasphemy is insignificant!...

I will also mention the hatred there is amongst us, defamation of our neighbour, lack of peace. I tell you that in the contact I had with the Lady of Life, she told me: "My daughter, take up your rosary beads and start counting." I counted a few beads and I told her: "Dear Mother, what do you think?" She replied: "What you have counted on the rosary beads are the number of spiritual persons who live in your island of Malta and a little further away.”

Our Lady told me: “Dear daughter, I wish that you will make a firm intention, in great faith, to urge others to pray for the needs of priests because they must be as committed to the priesthood as they were in the past, long ago.” From what I could understand, I will not say two hundred or a hundred years ago. However, Our Lady told me: “My daughter, I have long been telling you to pray and to urge others to pray. There are many priests throughout the world who after some time that they are ordained priests ask to be freed from celibacy, from the vows which they took some time before... After some time, they ask to resign from the priesthood. I am greatly grieved and they are hurting Christ’s heart because they had promised Him that they would forever be priests of the altar and not as they are unfortunately doing today. Throughout the world and even in Malta, some priests are asking to be dispensed from the priesthood. Therefore, my daughter, pray and urge others to pray for priests.” There is something else I would like to say but I am going to withhold it for it would cause me much trouble.

Let me tell you something else. Nowadays, so many speak about the environment. Why doesn’t the environment remind everyone of God? Isn’t the environment God’s creation? Everyone speaks about the environment and no one says how great is God! That is why so many abuses are taking place. I know how many abuses are happening concerning certain things that I do not even want to mention, things of the devil. The cruel devil for whom God created hell...

That is why we are in a crisis, you know, because the devil is so malicious. He was once in God’s holy city and with this same malice he is striving to drag many people with him in the darkness of hell. Therefore, we should be very careful, because I tell you that the devil is dragging many people to the abyss of hell. I know and I have known for long that even from Malta there are many people who are descending in hell: they die without thinking about death, with no thought at all, they harbour hatred and other evil things against the Lord God, against the Eucharist and against their neighbour. These things do not leave lovely results on the life of these individuals...

Our Lady of Life told me: “Pray much so that among those in authority in your islands, those of the Church, of the Government and of the Opposition, there should be dignity and no evil things undesired by God would take place.”

Our Lady told me that she is reaping many things from Girgenti, “But that place must one day be very holy and important. It is already great and holy because it is even visited by many foreigners. Do not worry, all over the world there are people who do not understand the message.” When such a message is given, it is a sign that faith is on the decline and the teachings about God, Jesus of the Eucharist and the Blessed Virgin who is praying so much for Malta is decreasing. Let us pray and be vigilant so that if God has prepared some chastisement for Malta and Gozo, He will have mercy on us and refrain from sending this trial which would darken our minds. We neither want Him to send it somewhere else but rather to put it away. We ask that He removes it from His hands so that no one would suffer, neither Maltese and Gozitans nor foreigners...

The Blessed Virgin told me: “Only a few spiritual people remain in your small islands. That is why no one can understand you and they try to ridicule you just as they ridiculed My Son when He was on earth... Even the devil tempted Him. Therefore, my daughter, do not worry when they tell you: ‘If you say that this message was delivered to you by Our Lady, why don’t miracles occur?’” She said:

“My daughter, I tell you that both up there, at Girgenti, and even in your house many miracles have occurred...”

I feel that Our Lady is telling me: “Place injustices behind you. Jesus, whom you love so much, suffered these injustices before you. You do not need to think or reflect about them. Just remember the great and powerful faith that God has given you and also all that I deliver to you, the power of the word and of the contact when I afford you these visions.”...

We should be careful and vigilant, so that no one through his heart or his conscience would permit that a church dedicated to the devil be built in Malta or Gozo. I came to know this today from Our Lady, you know. We should be careful not to draw upon Malta and Gozo some heavenly disaster. I am telling everybody, I am telling all Authorities. Those who can should unite in faith and love towards God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, Our Lady and all in Heaven, so that these things do not occur in Malta and Gozo. These things transgress God’s will and attract some terrible disaster... There are many chastisements prepared by the powerful Hand of God for the world, but God is still being patient with the world, He still endures us...

Presently, the spirit of darkness is doing his utmost in Malta and abroad to draw us to these places. Are we not ashamed in Catholic, Apostolic Malta?... Some things I do not say, you may hear them from abroad but I will not mention them. There are many things about which I have not spoken and which I will never disclose. Through Our Lady, I asked the Lord God to forgive me, to excuse me and to have compassion. I even asked the Lord Jesus and the Blessed Virgin to forgive me for certain things are too horrible and I will not mention them...

I conclude by saying that if we do not do penance, if we do not pray with faith and love to God, there will occur as when Noah said that God would punish the world because He could not endure any longer the sins that were rising before Him. The people called Noah insane but when they asked him to save them because they were about to get drowned and perish, Noah told them: “Noah was insane. Now you have to suffer all that was prepared for you. I had told you to make penance. Now the punishment has arrived and I cannot help you. You must now accept what you deserve.”

That is what Guza will also tell you. We shall get what we deserve unless we repent and make penance while we can. We should not pay attention... to the material aspect of the world, what the world is presently going through. Many argue: “Money is everything for us; we do not care about God, I have never seen God and I have never seen the Blessed Virgin.” We should be careful friends, because by these things we are drawing destruction upon us.

I have recorded these few words with tears in my eyes... but Our Lady told me: “If possible, try to do something about all this because there are many chaotic and destructive things prepared.”

We people of good will, let us pray and be vigilant, let us do penance to the Lord God, before the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist in the churches of Malta and Gozo. Let us pray to the Blessed Mother by reciting the Holy Rosary. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten us in what is good and remove for us what is evil. As much as possible we should pull at one rope, one greeting, the greeting of God’s glory, a greeting of peace and not of hatred and corruption.”...

NOVEMBER 1993

“In the name of the Father... Lord, teach us how to pray. Our Father who art in Heaven... Glory be to the Father...

We come up here with the greatest sacrifice, for the greatest glory of God... and we need to do many things, you know. Alas, you know what the world is going through right now! It is passing through a great crisis. This is what I was going to ask the Lord: Lord, teach us to love You, Lord, teach us to oppress ourselves, to subdue our heart so that we will never harbour hatred and trouble and strife because all that the world is going through is the result of hatred. All these conflicts and fighting, these wars... They only care how to acquire more wealth and land, they do not care about the large thousands of people who are falling victims of the cruel scythe of death... It is not death which is cruel but the way in which these people are killed...

The Lady of Life is greatly grieved because such massacres should not take place. As if I may massacre a cat and kill it! Why? What harm has it done to me? Much less may I massacre people, good Heavens! We should never ill treat our neighbour...”

During a television programme transmitted a few days earlier, one of the speakers said that baptism is part of a country’s culture. That is why Guza said: “See in what state has Malta degraded itself!... Perhaps some of us are indifferent and do not believe but it is not right that Maltese and Gozitans argue in this way... Of course, both those who are not baptised and those who are have the right to enter into the glory of Heaven our homeland. Of course, why not? However, we must pray for unbelievers so that, God willing, they accept our creed. When Our Lord Jesus Christ grew up and went to be baptised in the River Jordan, the third person of the Holy Trinity appeared upon Him and the Lord God said: “This is My beloved son in whom I am well pleased.” Christ Himself said: “Go and baptise in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” Therefore, why are they confusing so many minds in Malta?...

The Blessed Virgin is greatly grieved by the darkness there is in the world... Let us pray the Lord to deliver us from trouble. May Our Lady pray for us. We must have recourse to her for the needs of sinners... My dear brothers and sisters, Maltese and Gozitans, let us be cautious because in Malta there are many people... who are trying to make us lose our faith... They are saying that the Church is as sinful as sinners. How far shall we go? I always say that we must be sincere with God and with our neighbour. We must be sincere in everything and not in partially...

If we do not have faith we have nothing, you know. We should be careful because all that is happening is the result of the lack of faith we have in Malta. We are declining in our faith in God... When we have the duty to speak we must do so without fear... If you have faith, you have everything, if you do not have faith you have nothing. Why did Christ undertake the passion if not to grant us God’s love and faith? We should be careful, my dear because once I told you that the devil is in the world, roaming on a golden carriage, but now he has arrived in Malta as well, you know. Now he is undermining our faith. That is why we must be strong in faith, we must love each other and shun hatred...

I tell you that the representatives of the entire world do not have recourse to God as they should, for otherwise we would not have all this darkness. We should be very cautious; I will not speak any further because I may not do so. Besides all that we know, there is something else that is taking place under cover of darkness. God forbid that something terrible will flare up, God forbid! You know how in America, a match was lit and two thousand homes were burnt. Thousands of people are dying. Isn’t this hatred? Why does one not tolerate God's mercy? This is all hatred!... There is no love of God. These hearts are filled with bitterness. If they were not filled with bitterness but with God's love they would not do these things..."

Guza then mentioned how on Wednesday, October 6, 1993, she went up to Girgenti together with Charles Attard. On that day, she went near the spot where in the past she had had a vision of Saint Michael. She said that on that day she had a vision of Saint Joseph. Charles Attard confirmed what Guza had said by saying that at one time Guza had told him: "How beautiful is Saint Joseph's staff blossoming with lilies." At the time, he felt a great joy.

Then the testimony of Karmena Micallef was read out (printed elsewhere towards the end of this book) and Guza confirmed that she never spoke neither to Frenco nor to Louis Endrich (neither did she know them). She then continued to say that if on October 6, she had not had Saint Joseph's vision, she would have fallen into the valley. Guza said: "Know that I have mentioned many things, however, it is not that I have forgotten Saint Joseph, but he told me: 'My daughter, my daughter, do not forget me, spread devotion towards me.' We must greatly increase devotion towards Saint Joseph. Saint Joseph is the protector of a good death and he is the father of the Catholic Church. We must ask Saint Joseph to pray for us before God because he is very close to the Lord God since he had the Lord Jesus in his care while he was on earth.

My friends, we should greatly increase our devotion towards Saint Joseph. I tell you that here we must erect a statue of Saint Joseph. May God be blessed. I have long known this... I did not see Saint Joseph accompanied by Our Lady and the Baby Jesus, I saw him by himself. He was carrying a stick which was blossoming with flowers..."

Towards the end of the meeting, besides the priestly blessing, some babies and young children were also blessed.

DECEMBER 1993

Guza did not attend this meeting because she was very ill. Architect Philip Azzopardi, President of the Movement Our Lady of Consecration opened the meeting by saying: "Today, Guza could not come up because she is ill. Tonight she felt so bad that she thought that she was going to die, but as she told me, she surrendered herself in God's hands. She had great hope that God would help her. In fact, the doctor prescribed some medicine and pills. She tried to take them but they caused her much harm because her body was not accustomed to such things. She said: "When I took the medicine it was as if I was drinking iron. However, I want to tell you something which you should reveal to all. Tell them that they must always trust in God, they should always trust in God's mercy. No matter how ugly the situation, no matter how ugly the times, you should never lose heart. That is what I have done." She also told me: "This is my message for you today. Never lose heart and have great faith in God. At 1.30a.m., the terrible pain I had and which I thought was going to kill me began to ease. Thank God now I feel better, however, I am not going up to Girgenti because I am still very weak. It was a great miracle for me that I managed to overcome this problem."

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, I want to deliver this powerful message of Guza which she gave me with force and determination, that is, that you should not lose heart, have faith, have courage, be bold and always trust in God."

During this prayer meeting the following message was read out: “May the Lord God be praised, may the Lord Jesus be praised together with the Holy Spirit and the Lady of Life...”

I still had the wish to go to the place where I had the contact with Saint Michael the Archangel at Girgenti, on the farm where I lived with my father, my mother and my two brothers...

Someone else has long been telling me: “When are we going?” I have always left things in God’s hands... and this time they were in His hands as well. I went to Girgenti on Wednesday, October 6, 1993 at about 5.15p.m...

I went very close to the field where I used to take my rest. Actually, it was no rest because I spent my time in preparation, in prayer. There I could contact heaven more peacefully and with more concentration until it was time again to rejoin my father at work, for at the time we had the threshing floor.

It was a great day for me. I told those who were with me that had I known how much I was to suffer that day I would not have come up... for the bones of my left leg almost gave way in my effort to reach that particular spot in the field...

I stayed well away from the place where I had had the vision of Saint Michael the Archangel because the field had just been watered and as soon as I stepped on that part, it was as if I had stepped in the sea. I could not help myself and I had no one near me, nobody. I prayed to heaven for help and I prayed earnestly as I was going to fall backwards. I was suffering so much that my heart almost stopped...

Then suddenly I had a marvellous vision of my great protector Saint Joseph who told me: “Plant the stick you have in your hand firmly in the earth, hold tight to it otherwise you will fall. Do as I am telling you.” I obeyed, I thrust the stick nearly halfway down into the soil so that I could support myself and not fall on my back...

That was St. Joseph’s stick and not Guza’s stick. When I returned home, I was very tired; I was completely exhausted. I will not tell you what befell me... On Saturday the doctor came to my house and he told me: “You are in great pain.” I replied: “I am suffering terribly, I have great pain, my whole body aches but I have lost the use of this leg.” He told me: “Guza, this week you must have gone through something very exhausting, you had some great task. You must have done a lot of work to be in such pain.”... I told him: “Do not mention hospital because I am not going to hospital. I am resigned to God’s will. I have suffered greatly, I am still suffering and I am ready to keep on suffering.”...

On Friday someone came to my house and told me: “Guza, I am very ill... I am fed up with the world.” I replied: “I am much more ill than you are, but I do not say that I am fed up. I resign myself to God’s will and I offer my sufferings for the greatest glory of God, in atonement for those people who are distant from God. I offer my sufferings for the needs of sinners. I am a victim for sinners.”...

Today it is the day of the Lord, Sunday, the day destined to be sanctified by us... After Communion the Lord Jesus told me... to say who granted me the favour that I remained alive up to this day. As I could understand from what the Lord Jesus told me, last Wednesday I should have died because I was very unwell and no one noticed it...

I am not boasting because I am still alive, you know, but I have much for which I should say: mighty God, immortal God, powerful God, how great are Your works. My dear brothers and sisters, let us be vigilant and pray, let us pray earnestly and those who can should do penitence, an act of atonement for the sins of the Maltese, the Gozitans and everyone so that we will have a special blessing from the Lord. You know how many things are happening here and there and I want to tell you something, which I wanted to tell you in our last meeting but the devil took it out of my mind. We need to pray incessantly for the needs of Russia because if Russia is converted the whole world will be converted. God willing, we should pray hard for the representatives of all the nations so that God will grant us the grace that some of them will acknowledge the Lord. I know that they do not acknowledge the Lord through the gifts of the Holy Spirit given to me by the Blessed Virgin. Let us pray for them so that these people will be converted, they will unite to God and thus we will have peace.

We must pray incessantly to the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity together with the Blessed Virgin, Saint Joseph and all in heaven. I mention Saint Joseph every time for all that he is doing. Saint Joseph is the protective holy father of the Catholic Church throughout the world. I do not say these things because I bear his name, you know, but Saint Joseph has great power from Heaven because when he was on earth he took care of Our Lady and baby Jesus...

As I mentioned in the past, many grave sins are rising before the Lord and someone must atone for them. Those who are of good will, those who are ill like me, those who perhaps were told by doctors that they are incurable, do not lose your hope in God as if He could not cure you. Friends, we will then have the greatest cure when God will take us to heaven our homeland...

I ask the Lord: "Increase my afflictions, multiply them more than they actually are, give me patience and peace of mind, help me, strengthen my heart and give me spirituality of soul so that I will bring sinners more to my mind to present them heartily to you. May You give them the grace to convert and make a good death so that together we will meet in that lovely place prepared for us by the Lord Jesus..."

Everyone should pray earnestly to the Lord God so that He would have mercy and tolerate the whole world... Therefore, we who perhaps are poor in the spirit of our soul and in our health, let us strengthen our faith in the Lord so that God would have mercy on the world and alas, these things will not proceed any further!...

At the commencement of this day, Our Lady informed me that... politics is causing problems everywhere. We should give great preference to God and disregard this nonsense about politicians, both Maltese and those of the whole world. We should not become frustrated and give vent to violence, murder, discouragement and much quarrelling among families. The Lord does not want this. See what trouble there is in Russia. Many people have died because of some politicians. Poor souls! There were some who used to serve the Lord, although they did not show it openly, but there were others whose soul was to be pitied.

Therefore, we should pray hard so that God may keep us away from wars and such nonsense, because the Lady of Life told me that for the Lord there are no white or black. The Lord wants us to follow one course, otherwise there will be much scorn among the people...

Let me repeat, that we should pray earnestly for the needs of Russia, for the needs of the world because many things are being performed in secret... I have long known about them, but I will not say anything else. I will stop here. Many things are being done secretly. The devil knows all about them, and there are many who follow the spirit of darkness who know about them as well. If, God forbid, this thing is put to use, the whole world would suffer. That is all I am going to say.

I conclude by praising the Lord and say: God the Father, mighty God, immortal God, my Jesus forgiveness and mercy by the merit of Your holy wounds. O My God, I believe in You, I love You, I adore You and hope in You. I beg You forgiveness for those who do not believe and trust in You.

Lord God, I shall accept everything You ask of me to atone for the souls who do not believe in You, who do not adore You, do not trust in You, who do not keep Your presence in mind so that, they will believe in You, they will strengthen their will towards You, towards the Lord Jesus and the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is granting us so much love that we may appreciate all You did for us, for having created the world, created us, created all our surroundings so that we would concentrate with great faith and trust in You. You have done so much for man that he may live happy during his life, and yet man has given himself to evil, to the vanity of the world, to the emptiness around him. He finds pleasure in what is offered to him by the spirit of darkness in order to follow the attractions of the world. Man is forgetting what is most essential: trust, determination, and the power of his body to think more about You.

However, for this I tell You: God the Father forgive us, Jesus mercy, Holy Spirit offer what is good in us to God and put aside our evil. Holy Spirit when You are near us, grant us much upon which to meditate in a positive way about the Lord God, about the Lord Jesus and about You. When we do something good, we do not do so by ourselves, but dearest Holy Spirit, it is the result of Your power.

Therefore, keep strengthening me and my Maltese and Gozitan brothers and sisters with Your power. Holy Spirit, strengthen the world with Your gifts so that we would not be corrupted further by the spirit of darkness.

My dear brothers and sisters, these things are being nibbled at extensively. During the short time we spend in suffering, we try to distract ourselves. Woe to him who spends time frivolously. We should never waste time. Time should always be spent according to God's will.

You know that the Lord God of Hosts appointed the Lord Jesus as judge of heaven and earth. At the end of our life, we must appear before Jesus so that, God willing, He will present us before God and before heaven our homeland.

Let us pray incessantly, we should never tire ourselves of prayer. Let us conclude by addressing Our Lady, our beloved Saint Joseph, and all our patron saints who pray for us in heaven so that all of us who are still on earth will combat and fight death. Saint Joseph, the protector of the dying will grant us the grace... to make a good death and not to feel attracted by the devils who are roaming the world... in order to rob us of God's grace... All evil comes from satan...

Let us tell Our Lady: "Dear Holy Mother, pray for us to God, to the Lord Jesus, the Holy Spirit together with Saint Joseph and all in heaven to grant us the grace that while we are on earth we persevere in what is good... Blessed Mother, we salute you, o white lily of the Holy Trinity... for the affection with which you cared for Jesus when you were still on earth looking after him. You did this for us, for our love and for the needs of all the sinners of the world. For this, we should truly thank Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. We should say: "How great is the Eucharist"...

JANUARY 1994

During this prayer meeting, which Guza failed once more to attend, the following message was read out:

"Let us thank the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity and all in heaven for all that the Lord is performing with us, Maltese and Gozitans and all the world..."

I am going to relate something of that which I felt during the night between Tuesday and Wednesday, the 28th and 29th of December. Jesus suffered terribly during this night. He revealed that if possible the world would make Him endure calvary and the burden of the cross once more, besides other sufferings. However, the world cannot do this because the Lord Jesus is now in the glory of the Eternal Father...

I tell you that I burst into prayer. At about 7.00pm in the evening I prayed hard because continuously I kept saying: "Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, You are understanding me, You are pitying me. Remove the trouble (tempest) that is approaching Malta, keep it back. Keep this storm back because we are going to have real problems... Lord, Lord, keep away these tons of water which are about to hit Malta because Malta cannot cope with all this rain."...

This night was not easy for me. I know that when Christ was on earth among His apostles, Judas sold Him for some money and Saint Peter denied Him. I too have people who are acting likewise with me. I do not complain, I regard everyone as one truly is, I offer everything up to the Lord... Jesus showed me how during this night many people underwent a calvary, not in Malta you know; though a great calvary passed over Malta as well. God forbid that you come to know what has passed over Malta last night, otherwise not only Malta but also the whole world would be terrified. I will only say a little bit because I cannot disclose all...

I know that tonight there were also some vile persons who turned against Jesus in the Eucharist. I know that some burnt, flaming and devilish hands knocked at a door and when the door opened their owner said: "Come out, it is time," to start the vandal caprices against the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist...

However, now I must also say that last night the sting of death has sent many persons to eternity. Many innocent children were aborted. This occurred even in Malta and I know this not from the world... Others were killed by the cruellest death. I cannot explain what I saw in the vision. Alas, I saw them receiving such cruel torture, a very cruel death... cut to pieces with weapons. When the number of war victims is mentioned, that is not the real number because in reality many more would have died.

Besides, we need to pray for something else. Let us pray for Malta because sects have infiltrated in Malta as they have done in other countries... I see certain things but I cannot explain them... This cursed sect, this cursed and embroiled devil's mass, those infamous devil's hands, I cannot explain how many things I had last night about this practice...

I told Jesus: "I offer these holy wounds together with Your own to the Eternal Father, the Lord God of Hosts..." During last night I felt great wounds in my hands from my elbows downwards... Then from my knees downwards I felt the nails piercing the sole of my foot... I told Him: "Jesus give me the grace to accept patiently my illnesses and let me offer them for the needs of Malta, Gozo and the world. Lord Jesus, help Malta and present my sufferings together with Yours before God's majesty for the forgiveness of sins."

Are we not ashamed, that Jesus in the Eucharist is helping us so much in Malta and yet there are hearts who are in contact with the cruel and insensitive heart of the devil? I prayed for these persons as well... Lord Jesus help me, pity me, give me Your help, give me the courage that I may continue to pray for Malta, for Gozo and for the whole world so that the Lord God will have mercy on the Maltese, the Gozitans and the world and we will not have disastrous things from heaven. God will not send us the water with which our island cannot cope... We must also pray for other places because through the Lady of Life I saw that some darkness is approaching Malta, is approaching the world.

The Lord God and the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist are very patient with Malta, Gozo and the world but if God's anger for the world is aroused, we would fare badly. Therefore, I am praying fervently to the Lord God of Hosts, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, the Holy Spirit together with Our Lady and all in heaven to bless Malta, to bless the whole world and to have mercy on us and help us. May we have much help from Heaven and may we refrain from abuse, by not offending God with the evil things that displease the Lord. It is not right that these sects militate against the Lord God and the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. I tell you this with tears in my eyes, I am so distressed by such events.

As I told you, people of good will should unite in prayer because things do not look bright. Abroad there are many people who are suffering, they have nothing to eat, no clothes to wear, they had to leave their homes because of floods, because of wars...

I implore You Lord to be patient with us, to forgive us and grant us peace. Eliminate hatred from Malta and Gozo and give us Your peace and Your love... Envy, hatred, lack of peace, lack of love and instigation are not desired by heaven. We people of good will should combat such things. We do not want these things...

We must be vigilant and pray fervently, so that, God willing, the Lord will give the world some of the beautiful things He has in Heaven, that is, He will grant us peace: the world so longs for peace and yet no one refers to the true peace, the peace of God... We should pray heartily, our prayers should be lively so that we receive from God the grace of peace, the living peace from Heaven... Lord forgive the world, Lord give patience to the sick, Lord give courage to sinners that they may repent from having offended Your Majesty.

Lord have mercy on the representatives (leaders) of states so that they do not just think of their own desires while they ill treat and kill by wars those who are less powerful. Those in authority should not think that their will must always prevail and that they may do as they please with their subjects...

Every person in authority, whoever he is, must not be partial and undisciplined giving in to what others instigate: "Do this and do that." This person in Authority, whether of the Church or in politics, must be disciplined that he may always do God's will and what is right rather than do things which he ought not to do. Thus he will neither hurt himself nor hurt others. That is what the Lord wills and that is what has been referred to me by the Lady of Life since the month of January...

The Lord God of Hosts gazes upon those people who are of good will, who discipline themselves in such a way that they will always give their preference to God almighty and to the Three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity.

Let us pray that the Lord will not abandon us, that He may always use us as He pleases, use us for ourselves and for our native land. May we be self-disciplined and pray for everyone because we are all brothers and sisters in the Lord.

Let us greatly thank our merciful Mother who is in Heaven. She has greatly helped the Maltese and the Gozitans even though there are some persons who do not want to understand this message. However, there are many who have understood the message, they desire it and pursue it because in that area of Girgenti, the Blessed Virgin is doing great things with us. She will continue to do so as long as it pleases the Provident Hand of God. The title "Our Lady of Consecration" has performed marvellous things. She had so heartily told me that she was consecrated since she was very young. People who were very distant from the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist found great comfort and approached the Lord Jesus. Our Lady drew them to Christ through a good confession and by means of their own good will.

As I told you, there are people who have an iron heart, a heart of bronze, they abuse the Eucharist during the devil's black mass because they wish to crucify Jesus again. However, Jesus is now in His Father's glory and no one can harm Him. Let us fear His powerful hand because today or tomorrow, He will be the divine Judge of our life, both the spiritual life and even with regard to the evil we would have committed in the world... The Lord God of Hosts has appointed Him as the judge of Heaven and earth...

Therefore, friends, we must fear the deeds of the Lord's hands and trust in the powerful hand of the Lord Jesus so that He may draw us towards the kingdom of Heaven. Right now, the world is facing many difficult problems: wars, fighting, murder, massacres of innocent people, lack of faith and even hatred. Let us pray so that the Lord will transform these people into people of good will. We must have great trust in heaven, heaven our homeland, and now more than ever we must pray heartily and with love.

Let us ask our merciful Mother to pray and to intercede for us. Let us pray for our neighbour, so that in our neighbour we see God almighty... because when we pray for our neighbour we will be making the most beautiful act of charity and receive God's love. Love is a great treasure because love is followed by peace. If there is no love, there is no peace.

For us, God must come first. The Lord must one day reward the good and punish the evil... Many things attract us towards Heaven and there are many things that draw us downwards, towards darkness.

I greatly wish that the Maltese, Gozitans and foreigners who have just started this year do not look backwards at the year 1993 which has just ended, but we must consider how to improve spiritually in the new year.

On Thursday, January 6, we celebrated the feast of the Epiphany and I strongly believe that the world still holds ground because some good exists in every part of the world. Those Kings left their country and went to the cave at Bethlehem to present their beautiful gifts to the baby Jesus, the Messiah... During this day we must prepare ourselves and pray with devotion and with fervour... Let us pray with love so that when we worship heaven through the Three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity, our prayers will be full of praise and glory and God will have mercy on the whole world..."

FEBRUARY 1994

Guza did not attend this prayer meeting, however, the following message which Guza had dictated to the Secretary of the Committee some hours earlier was read out:

"Our Movement is beautiful because we are attached to Jesus in the Eucharist and Our Lady of Consecration. Our Lady of Consecration is Our Lady of peace. The Blessed Virgin wants peace.

In a contact I had with the Lady of Life, Our Lady told me that she is sorely grieved by the calvary, by the darkness through which the world is going through right now. Many representatives (heads) of states have hearts of steel. Our Lady wants us to pray earnestly for true peace, the peace of God and not the peace spoken about by nations and from which they remove God.

Let us pray hard to the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist and to Our Lady of Consecration of whose movement we form part, to grant us peace in our country, in Malta, and even in Yugoslavia. Our Lady wants us to pray hard for them so that God would grant them peace and they desist from killing people and from other acts of bloodshed. She wants us to pray for the whole world and even for Russia.

Since yesterday evening, I have learnt that we who form part of the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration are working hard for peace. We must continue to strive for peace and we should take courage because our Movement is founded on God's greatest treasures: Jesus of the Eucharist and Our Lady."

MARCH 1994

After having been absent for some months, Guza attended this prayer meeting and said: "The world is reaping much benefit from the meetings which are being organised up here and so we should not lose heart... Our Lady is very happy with this temple because we are performing great things, not out of pride, you know... However, I tell you, that the Blessed Virgin is very grieved for us Maltese and Gozitans, and we should pray hard for those who are causing us injustice... Why don't they see the evil there is in Malta rather than the things that are being organised by the Blessed Virgin? These things grieve our Lady, you know. Evil is ignored while good is persecuted. This is not right..."

During this meeting the following message was read out: "I greatly thank the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity together with the Lady of Life and all in Heaven for all that they have performed with me today, Thursday, January 27, 1994... I wanted to leave this day free, that I may fully dedicate it to prayer, suffering, sacrifice and penance for our country... and the rest of the world. I wish that I were healthier, that I had more energy, but let me pray to You Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. You are very close to me, You are within me, You are near me, You are in my soul, put Your words on my lips and help me..."

I speak out without hesitation, without fear just as Jesus did when He was made to suffer many injustices... by some priests of His area who wanted to get rid of Him... Jesus told them clearly: "I come from My Father, I come from Heaven My homeland, from God's holy city. My Father sent Me." They attacked Jesus; both the good and the bad attacked Him. It is now being revealed to me that I must speak the truth. When something is true, I must say the truth without fear...

I tell you that I have seen and continue to see the Blessed Virgin to this very day. We should not neglect these things because if we neglect them and do not heed what Our Lady tells us, you know what is happening... Those in Authority can do what other Authorities have done in other countries, they can investigate certain facts...

As I have always said, it is necessary that we Maltese behave like brothers and sisters. Let me start with the few priests that we have. Monsignor Xuereb (Vicar Emeritus) was about to start attending the Girgenti prayer meetings but he sent me word that he is ill. When he had attended, they did him an injustice because they told him: "If you go, they will exploit you." He replied: "This is something personal and private. I feel that no one should interfere in my private life for I want to work for Our Lady. I was very close to Monsignor Grima and Guza." Monsignor Xuereb has helped me greatly. He always used to tell me: "My daughter, Guza, the devil envies everyone and tempts everyone... Even the others (visionaries) were persecuted, they suffered similar injustices." He often spoke to me about Bernadette. He used to tell me: "She suffered many injustices, she suffered much pain but nobody can hinder God's will."

I who today have succeeded in recording this message, tell you that the Blessed Virgin spoke to me at length, not about the tent, not about what we have performed, but that she wants God's will to continue to be fulfilled at Girgenti... Whoever goes there feels the spirit of Our Lady and the spirit of the Lord... Our Lady told me: "You have fulfilled your duty both during the day and at night. You have worked hard." I have taken all my directives from Our Lady... and I tell you that I survive by the help that Our Lord Jesus is giving me in the Holy Eucharist, otherwise I could not go on.

I tell you that I have faced death for a long time, but this month I was twice close to dying... I was very resigned to God's will, I allowed no earthly thought to disturb me not even those relating to Our Lady's message. I prayed to the Lord Jesus and told Him: "Lord Jesus, I trust my soul to You and I will do just as You did on the cross. Lord God into Your Hand I commend my spirit. Lord God, into Your Hand I entrust my soul."...

I feel that I am anaemic once more. I was running a fever, I suffered from whooping cough, which thanks be to God, I contracted from people who visited me at my house. I have never said no to anyone. Whenever I was feeling well and people wanted to speak to me, I never refused anyone. I tell the Lord: "Lord, I am ready. Tell me what I should say and I am ready to help these people..." Many people suffering from many illnesses came and I always told them words of consolation from the Lord God, from Jesus of the Eucharist, from the Lady of Life who has helped me so much...

I want to tell the world that we must prepare ourselves to know the Lord better and not as the world claims today that with or without God, the world would still have come into existence. This is what scientists are saying...

I must prepare you for a profitable Lent because I know that during these times, there are many even in our country, as I could understand from what Our Lady told me, who again want to hurt and tear to pieces the heart of Our Lord Jesus. They want to make Him endure Calvary once more...

We must be disposed not to have events that force the Lord God of Hosts to send us something... I know what I am saying you know. I want to say these things not only to the Committee, not only to the members of the Movement and to those who hear me speak in Malta and Gozo but also to the whole world. We must prepare ourselves for prayer and penance. We must be vigilant and pray, we should have faith in God. We should have faith in Jesus who is present in our islands of Malta and Gozo and in the altars of the whole world. We should not persist in hurting the heart of God by these things because God's heart is truly hurt when He sees that we have become each other's calvary. The whole world knows that by these wars we are causing an ordeal to each other.

Let us earnestly pray so that almighty God, the Powerful Hand of God, the Lord Jesus will grant us the favour to be united, to have the same sentiments, even in Malta you know... In Malta we should not have this hatred among us... I am not saying that I was worthy to receive these revelations from the Lord God and which were delivered to me by Our Lady during the visions she granted me and which she still grants me, but it has so pleased the Lord.

I, Guza Mifsud from Siggiewi, do you know what my experience was? It was in cutting the grass that used to grow in our fields at Girgenti. I happened to be one or many of the roots attached to the grass and to the trees at Girgenti. I am worth less than nothing. This is what I say to the Authority of the Church and to the authority of every political party. I do not know the name of the parties, let me say the Nationalist Party and the party in Opposition. In the past, I also knew my brother in Christ, Carmelo Mifsud Bonnici (former Prime Minister). I spoke to him about Our Lady. Why should I fear? I have nothing to fear. I do not have a guilty conscience. I speak with the courage given to me by Christ. Christ is very close. I cannot speak clearly about the Eucharist. I only tell you that Monsignor Grima made me an apostle of Jesus in the Eucharist. That is all I say so that I will not mention anything which I cannot disclose... I am worth less than nothing but it has pleased the Lord to use the nothingness of Guza. Guza and nullity are the same but it has so pleased Our Lord, Christ the Lord who is giving me so much help and strength. I am still alive this month by the permission granted to me from Heaven. I tell you that I was reborn this month because I should not have remained alive. However, it pleased God to extend my life. Even the Lord Jesus is helping me greatly and the Blessed Virgin has brought me many beautiful things.

Our Lady told me: "Tell them that I am granting you these spiritual things. Tell them that the Lady of Life, as you call me, has granted you your spiritual life. Do not fear to say these things." I tell you that I am worthless, I have no schooling, however, I have come to know today that the Lord does not use learned people because they often use their schooling with pride. Excuse me, but they want people to greet them because of their schooling and because of that and the other. I am speaking as when I saw Our Lady for the first time and I told her: "I am unschooled, I am worth nothing, I am unable to do anything." Our Lady replied: "You have been more useful than those who consider that they are learned because they have much lack of humility. Pride is attached to the learned." As I could understand, only a few educate themselves for their spiritual good, there are others who don't...

I do not know how I am going to behave. Lord, help me, Jesus, help me, dear Blessed Mother, help me. I feel you all, help me because I do not know how I am going to behave so that people could understand me... It has pleased God to use my worthlessness.

We would make a mistake if we continued in this manner, especially in Malta, because God forbid that something should happen in Malta. I know from the Lord Jesus that there is something prepared but I cannot speak further. Let us pray, let us pray earnestly for Malta because as happened elsewhere, something may happen among us because of hatred. We have all types of things in Malta, we have many evil sects...

Some days ago, Our Lady told me: "You have always spoken about the good news, you have always spoken with love, preached the gospel with a clean (pure) tongue so that we keep ourselves in contact with God, to fear sin, to fear hatred and to join hands in peace." Malta which is as small as a pinhole on the map of the world has become known world-wide...

Lord, I abandon myself in Your hands, may Your will be done. However, if You still want something of me for Your greater glory and so that there be love, unity and peace among people, I am ready to obey. I shall not be dismayed...

I tell you, yes, I truly have contacts with Our Lady and with Our Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. I have many things but I do not fear. Even if in a few days time my soul will fly towards the Lord because my body is removed, it does not matter. I am saying the truth, I am speaking with a clear conscience, as much as possible I want to keep my tongue clean and I want to praise God. I want to do my utmost to urge others to praise God, to appreciate God and the One whom He sent from Heaven to suffer for us and redeem us. I am referring to the Lord Jesus. Now, God willing, Lent is approaching and we should follow step by step His holy passion that we may acquire our spiritual life.

I have always spoken about love, about peace and that we should banish conflict and hatred from amongst us. I also want to say something else. I feel that I must say something but Lord, if You feel that I must not say it, prevent me from doing so. Something is sprouting in the hearts of the Maltese and the Gozitans. The Lord wants us to act in peace towards one other and not with hatred, because poor we if something happens...

There is something in the Provident Hand of God, others know about it like I do. I tell you that in Fatima, someone has already been contacted about it and I have long known about certain things, but now they are very near. Heartily I tell you, let us pray hard and be vigilant. Let us make penance, so that by our prayers the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist together with the Holy Spirit, Our Lady and all the saints will intercede for us before God and He will have mercy on the whole world because, God forbid, well, there is still another word but I will not say it. Let us be vigilant, pray and do penance...

My time has now passed... I repeat that I am worth less than nothingness. But it has so pleased almighty God because when Jesus met the fishermen and one of them asked Him: "Me?" Jesus replied: "Yes, you." Even the Lord Jesus had His disciples, among them there was Judas who betrayed Him and Peter who denied Him... Guza is like those fishermen who when they met Jesus, they put on a shirt because they were fishing unclothed to earn a living for themselves and for their family. So it was with Guza.

I was up there (Girgenti) putting the sheep to graze and feeding the animals of my father's farm. We had all kinds of animals because we were poor and my mother used to rear all kinds: cows, rabbits, hens, turkeys, ducks and I had to tend them all. This is what I was capable of doing up there. Then Our Lady descended at Girgenti. Previously she came to this poor house. I was saying the rosary with my mother and she asked me: "Why are you weeping?" I told her: "Mother, don't you see Our Lady?" She replied: "My daughter, I am hearing you weeping and talking. You are toiling for Our Lady." In the past, my mother told me lots of things...

It has so pleased the Lord God that I used to go to that valley. I was involved in many spiritual works, you know. I was a delegate for the sick, a member of the Catholic Action Movement, a member of the Daughters of Mary (Figlie di Maria) and I formed part of a group who practised adoration in front of the Eucharist, as well as other activities. I am not mentioning them to boast, you know. This was when I was young, ever since I was twelve years old until my mother's death. Then my spiritual director told me: "Now you must leave these activities because you have the great work of Our Lady, you have Our Lady's message." Monsignor Grima, my spiritual director, suffered many injustices; he was told many things at the Curia. They even called him a fool, and I am sorry to say that in recent times they have likewise called Rev. Fr. Nazzaren Tonna. I tell him: "Have courage, take heart because Our Lady wants to use you up there."

I urge you to have courage and to be bold so that the star of peace will come to Malta and peace will issue from Malta... Alas, I do not know why we have found ourselves in this situation. There is no time to lose. Persons in Authority, even of the Church, should be more zealous to curb these sects, and to take notice of the contacts which Our Lady had with me at Girgenti and in other places besides Girgenti...

I end by saying that what God wills for you cannot be cancelled by anyone. I say this without fear and apprehension, without darkness in my soul. My soul is being illuminated by Jesus of the Eucharist together with the thorns that are tearing my heart to pieces, just as they tore Jesus along the roads of Calvary...”

After this message, Guza added: “These words and this message are truly alive. My brothers and sisters, there is much to be taken into account in these times. There are many evil tongues which speak against the love of God and the love of the Lord Jesus...”

My dear brothers and sisters, do not think that Our Lady is happy, her eyes are full of tears... Our Lady does not lack anything; she is in the glory of God for all the work she performed on earth together with her son Jesus. However, she is sad when she sees the calvary and the darkness that the world is enduring, this hatred and killing... for it seems as if some people want to crucify Jesus once more...

Even in Malta, we need union, love and the peace of God. I tell the Blessed Virgin: “When is peace going to start in Malta?” She replies: “Peace is moving away because mankind is becoming too materialistic.” Dear brothers and sisters, let us not become so... Let us pray and pray earnestly for the needs of Russia, Japan, America, Yugoslavia and for the needs of those countries where wars are waging because indeed, rather than getting distant from the world, wars are being concealed and hidden to flare up all at once...

Let us take courage, let us take heart and tell God: “We want You, we love You, we proclaim You openly without fear. We should only fear sin. When we say that we fear God we mean that we should love Him more and more... Let us pray for the needs of everyone so that God will direct His look upon everybody and will not throw darkness on anyone. We should be like brothers and sisters. God did not create the world to enslave humanity. Every person has his dignity. We must respect even animals, much more so persons. Therefore, dear brothers and sisters, let us unite in love, in peace...”

APRIL 1994

Guza started the prayer meeting by saying: “Lord, teach us how to pray. Our Father who art in Heaven...”

Today it is Sunday, the day of the Lord. The gospel was about Thomas who because he was not with the apostles did not want to believe that the Lord rose from the dead... Friends, we should strongly believe in what is good but not in evil. The Lord does not want us to believe in evil...

There are many people who ignore the Cross because they say that they do not know God. Where is God? I see God in each and every one of you. Friends know that faith is God’s greatest gift. Who does not possess faith, has nothing...

Today week we celebrated Easter... Christ’s sufferings were great. Christ is still suffering; He suffers in every one of us. Jesus suffers in me because I am ill, but He comes to my aid. Christ is suffering in every sick person. Christ suffers when He sees those dead bodies, corpses burnt by war. Christ is suffering when He sees hatred amongst us, He suffers when people speak against the Pope, when they speak against the Bishops and priests. There are some priests who do not carry out their religious duties properly. Even in Malta, we have such priests, but then we have good and saintly priests as well.

Likewise with us who are present here today. There are good people, some are indifferent and others are holy... The more we humble ourselves before God, the more we say that we are worthless and the more we work for the Lord, the better. The Lord does not want proud people, He wants humble people...

Believe that Christ still suffers and I think that He will continue to suffer until the end of the world. Why? Because Christ loves us, He loves everybody: He loves those who are dying in war, those who are being kidnapped, killed, massacred. This week some priests were killed. Priests, nuns and monks are all very dear to the Lord. This should not happen but the world is very cruel and the devil is asserting himself. From the darkness of hell, he is attacking holy souls, the holy souls who are spreading the word of God away from our shores. The spirit of darkness also possesses the representatives of states who preach and proclaim peace. If they are without God, how can we have peace in the world? These people never mention God. They never say: "God help us so that we strive for peace." Nobody says anything, nobody mentions the Lord. Darkness, only darkness exists in the world and if we proceed in this manner we will have more darkness. Some of these representatives are also arming for war. We should be ashamed that in these times we still seek wars and want more wars. Let us pray to God so that God will soften their hearts and they will refrain from acting with a tiger's heart and give vent to their fury in these wars and the killing of many innocent people...

There is so much to say about the love of God and of the Blessed Virgin. The Lord God of Hosts loves us dearly. There are even Maltese who say that they do not acknowledge God. Faith is a great treasure from God. I am not ashamed to say that God has adorned me with a strong faith and with His gifts. I wish that He would embellish you as well.

Even when you speak to people, they ask: "How do you feel about the Eucharist?" If you co-operate with the love of Jesus of the Eucharist, you will burn with His love. I never tire to speak about the love of Jesus of the Eucharist... Let us fill ourselves with the love of Jesus of the Eucharist. Jesus is so kind, so good and so generous. How much was He ill-treated by those nails, by the tying up of His divine hands, His body martyred with the scourging at the pillar...

I saw the Lord Jesus in such great pain. When you see Jesus suffering, you would want to suffer greatly as well. You cannot speak about these things to those people who have no faith, and you can only speak a little with those people who have a meagre faith. However, these things sadden you.

I urge you to be more open to prayer, trust yourself in God, in the heart of the Lord Jesus together with Our Lady, Saint Joseph and all the saints. On my part, I remember everyone in my prayers, first I recall those who are in heaven and then I remember you..."

About the May prayer meeting, Guza said: "We must behave like brothers and sisters, we should not have hatred, conflict and distress. We should join hands and unite with love; otherwise, all our efforts will be worthless. I wish that on that day requested by Our Lady, we would unite in love and pray together. The Blessed Virgin desired it, you know, so that we may suffer. It will be a penitentiary prayer meeting during which we will pray for everyone. We will pray for the representatives (heads) of states so that they may calm down and refrain from wars, they will refrain from cruel acts against their own countrymen, brothers fighting against their own brothers..."

That is why I told you that Christ will suffer the passion until the end of the world, Christ is sorry for these souls... Lord, Lord, forgive the world because it knows not what it is doing, because if it knew it would not act in this way. They gather the dead, carbonised corpses, without realising that they are their own brothers murdered recklessly in cold blood. This is not right...

Let us not lose hope because this place will become the sanctuary of faith, of God's love."

Guza added that for the May meeting she had invited the Archbishop, the President of Malta, the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition. An extract of the letter of invitation that Guza had sent to these personalities was then read out:

"We should examine ourselves and stop being self-centred. It seems as if we think of nobody else but ourselves. If we persist in this way we will not have true peace in the world, we will not have peace because trouble in the world is on the increase.

During Lent and even after, we should heartily pray for peace. We should think more about the Lord because every person who appears before God must give a reckoning of all that he performed in the world for the love of others. Woe to him who appears before God empty handed.

This year has been dedicated to the family. We all know about the ruin that exists among families not only of Malta but worldwide. The more people follow the world's current, the greater the ruin. In the past, there was much union and peace among families. In the morning I tell the Lord Jesus and Our Lady: "Sacred Heart of Jesus, Immaculate Heart of Mary, open the doors of Malta, Gozo and the whole world for the act of consecration, which is an act of love, that You may use families in a spiritual way."

Therefore, let us be vigilant and pray so that we will not live in darkness and with this hatred towards each other. We must have union and love amongst us. Even if my country may disapprove, yet I must say what is given to me from Heaven. Presently, no one is advancing virtuously towards God; everybody is acting in one's best interests. Let us remember that the best direction is that given to us by the Lord, that is, that we must love each other.

I repeat my invitation for the May prayer meeting so that together we will pray to God not only for Malta and Gozo but also for the whole world. Let us pray for His Holiness the Pope, the Bishops and all the priests. Let us pray for the world's leaders that they may discard pride fill themselves with humility. It is not right that anyone should insist that he is always right. We must be understanding, tolerant and considerate towards others.

My dear brother in Christ, I am certain that in virtue of the authority given to you from Heaven, you can highly contribute towards the fulfilment of the main purpose of this meeting: that we all join hands and pray to God to have mercy on Malta and the world so that union will reign among all and we will have true peace, eternal peace. May the Lord God be praised."

In his talk for that day, Monsignor Buontempo said: "I know that most of you, like me, have today heard Guza's speech. You thought about it and understood profoundly, however, someone might have said to himself: 'How is it that Guza told us that Christ is still suffering and will continue to suffer? Don't we say that since Christ suffered, died and then rose from the dead, He rose so that He would not suffer again, that He would never die again?'

However, Guza has stated a truth, a great truth. If Christ had not, while on earth suffered with infinite, immeasurable acts, in which was gathered all our evil, yours and mine, we would not have been redeemed. If that were the case, only the people living in His time would have been redeemed. However, He suffered for us as well and since He suffered infinitely and He atoned for us to the smallest detail, then it is as if He is still suffering for us, because of our sins...

Sometimes Guza tells us: 'There are saints among us,' there are saints indeed but they are not visible. There are many good persons. I do not like to be pessimistic, but there is a great deal of evil. Do you know where it is? Evil does not reside in those who commit sins and repent. Evil resides in those who commit sins and swim and drown in their sins and insist that they want to persist in sin. They try to justify their sins and convince themselves that their faults are not sins. This is the suffering that Jesus is undergoing and will continue to undergo when He remembers all that He endured to redeem us, to save us – how much He suffered, even nailed to the Cross. He who is innocence itself was placed in the same situation experienced by murderers, thieves, and for most of us, for many people it is as if He never did anything...”.

MAY 1994

During this meeting held on May 8, Mother's Day, the eight anniversary since the erection of the statue of Our Lady at Girgenti was celebrated. Guza said that Our Lady herself had asked her to hold the meeting on the 8th rather than on the 5th May. The meeting started with a pilgrimage from near the bridge at the end of the old road. During this pilgrimage, the sorrowful mysteries were meditated and the Stabat Mater was sung as a sign of sorrow for the difficult situation of the world.

After various prayers and praise to God and to Our Lady, Guza said: “There is much trouble in the world. We came up here this evening to make reparation; we must make much reparation. We who came up here with the greatest sacrifice must atone to the Lord... The purpose of Our Lady in bringing us up here, this evening, is to pray for Malta. Malta was Catholic, Apostolic and the rest but the Lady of Life told me that now it is slacking. We are dwindling in our faith because of the many sects and our careless attitude. There is much reason for which we should hold this penitential meeting. Then, what shall I say about what is happening abroad?... Last night, at about one in the morning, the Lady of Life showed me some people who brought tears to my eyes. You Maltese mothers are so rich! There are so many poor mothers who want to raise their children but do not have the means. Alas, I saw these children lying on the ground... I will not continue...

Our dear Holy Mother is doing great things, you have no idea how many marvellous things she is performing, not only with us who came up here in sacrifice to make this act of penitence for our islands of Malta and Gozo and the whole world. Let us pray for our Maltese representatives, let us start with the Bishops, politicians... I do not fear anyone, what I say is for the greatest glory of God and Our Lady. We must join hands... and discard hatred, strife and difficulties from our midst. The Lord and Our Lady do not want these things... I tell you that presently the Lady of Life is very sad, her heart is as black as the dress I am wearing... The world is going through great darkness: wars, conflict, murder, massacres of innocent people...

I wish that I will continue to give you a share of the love which our divine Mother who is in Heaven has for us... Certain things that are happening in the world greatly grieve Our Lady.

There are many leaders among them the Pope who, we all know how hard he is working for peace. I wish I could contact him and tell him that we must strive hard for peace... The world has become materialistic, Malta too is materialistic, everyone is interested in money, money, money... Even those who wage these wars to acquire here and there are materialistic. Then, alas, they are not at all sorry for the many people they are killing... Our Lady is sorely grieved for them, you know!...

However, these people will have their due as well! They should be sorry for the great havoc they are committing in killing their own brethren.

We will suffer for them. We have suffered and we shall continue to suffer. We shall offer the prayers we have prayed for far and those we still have to pray. We who are in Malta and are of good will, let us not lose hope, let us take courage because there are many things which confuse us... Let us accept everything patiently because good things encounter many injustices and obstructions..."

Guza then said that she was sending the money given to her by a benefactor to restore her house to the Missions because she wants to continue to live in poverty.

Later Guza spoke about the Eucharist and said: "Let us praise God for giving the world Jesus in the Eucharist. Jesus of the Eucharist is with us. We should greatly adore and praise Jesus of the Eucharist for all that He performed with us along the roads of Calvary. The Lady of Life walked step by step with Him along the roads of Calvary.

Why shouldn't we often recall Jesus of the Eucharist who is suffering throughout the world, especially in the tabernacles that are breaking up because of lack of faith and lack of prudence towards Him? Our Lady is greatly grieved that Jesus is being scorned in the Eucharist... I wish that I would never stop speaking about the Eucharist. Why shouldn't we feel Jesus in the Eucharist? Jesus is performing wonders with us when we go near Him and He is doing great things with Malta in order to remove the darkness we have amongst us. Our Lady earnestly desires that politicians join hands... We should love one each other, we should shun hatred and avoid those things which disgust God. We should obey God's Ten Commandments. Those who lack faith do not follow the Ten Commandments of God..."

Guza then insisted that we should pray for every creature on earth and the following message was read out:

"My dear brothers and sisters,

Today, May 8, 1994, we came up here (to Girgenti) with great love towards God and towards Heaven to make an act of atonement, an act of reparation as requested by the Lady of Life, Our Lady of Consecration.

My beloved brothers and sisters, let us ponder deeply upon what I am going to tell you:

Let us remember our soul, let us think about God because we do not know when we will die. Let us bear in mind the Lord God of Hosts and the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist so that they will free us from the darkness we have in Malta and the whole world.

What is the use of having so much money if after your death you cannot exchange it in Heaven's bank? We should use money for our needs but we should not be attached to money.

What is the use of enjoying a good reputation on earth, if after your death you discover that you have a bad name before your Creator?

What is the use of being surrounded by servants, if after your death you cannot call one of them to help you in your needs?

What is the use of being a good trader if after your death you discover that you did not invest your wealth gainfully for your soul?

What is the use of being greeted with the greatest honours by everyone wherever you go, if after your death you are not welcomed by her who is the Door of Heaven and without whom there is no salvation?

What is the use of hearing all this if you do not reflect upon it and decide to change your life?

I chose to suffer much on earth. In the past I used to tell the Lord: ‘Lord God bestow an ugly look upon me and look kindly upon sinners.’ However, then the Rev. Fr. Gorg Preca who was my Spiritual Director, asked me to stop because God had heard my prayers. This is true because the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist tells me: ‘You are walking along the same roads I took.’

It is true that I am ill but I have promised Jesus that I want to continue to preach the Gospel, brotherly love and to eliminate hatred. I want to preach the love and the peace requested by the Lord, the true peace and not the peace so often talked about but which is never achieved. Guza Mifsud.”

While this message was being read some sweets, which had been previously blessed, and some holy pictures were distributed. The holy pictures had the following message printed on them:

Lord Jesus, grant that the world appreciates the suffering You endured for us during the passion, and the forgiveness You asked Your Father from the Cross for us, for those who crucified You and for the whole world.

Kind Jesus, we thank You for the holy supper You held with Your apostles when You bequeathed Yourself in the Eucharist.

Lord Jesus, help us to increase our devotion towards Your suffering and towards You in the Eucharist, so that we will atone for the disrespect to which You are being subjected. Those who do not believe in You do not appreciate all that You have performed for our salvation. (Guza Mifsud – Girgenti – May 8, 1994).

According to Guza, when in the fifties and before she used to meditate the Way of the Cross at Girgenti, she had several visions of Jesus suffering.

Recently, during Holy Week, Jesus told her: “Have the statue I requested representing My suffering, placed at Girgenti, as soon as possible, so that you will spread devotion towards me.”

JUNE 1994

After the usual prayers, Guza recalled the events, which took place six years before, exactly on June 8, 1988, when the Lord opened the sky and several changes in the sun, took place. She said: “About two inches away from the sun I saw the Eucharist.” Even during this prayer meeting, Guza said that she was seeing the Eucharist and various people claimed to see colours in the spinning sun.

Guza said: “Near the sun, I can see a double image of the Eucharist... Can you see something right there? I have been seeing it for a long time! Divine things. I knew that today something was about to happen. The sun is spinning but besides the sun, the Lord is showing us... the Eucharist. Who knows what the Lord would permit up here! I can see two Hosts similar to those priests use during mass, united to each other... I wish you could see what I am seeing, may God’s will be done... Lord Jesus bless us, sanctify Malta. Jesus of the Eucharist remove these dark things we have amongst us... Holy Mother bless us, from Heaven sanctify us and Lord grant us many spiritual things...”

Our trust in the Eucharist must be great. For me the Eucharist is everything... every breath that I take... and it is performing great things with me. Understand the Eucharist so that the Lord would sanctify us and grant us all our needs... We must believe that the Lord is using us... Just as the Lord God of Hosts told Moses: “Moses, Moses, take off your sandals because you are on holy ground”, so it is with us, you know. This place is holy... This place is blessed and holy and if, God forbid, something terrible should happen, then people will come up here because up here there is something. That is all I am going to say...”

Guza then stressed about modesty in dress and urged female devotees to wear the dress (a pattern of which is in the first book of this series) requested by the Blessed Virgin. She also urged those present to offer the sacrifice of their going to Girgenti for the needs of the world.

Then the messages that Guza had recorded on May 20, 1994 and some days later were read out:

“I praise You, Lord, for nothing is as great as You. Lord Jesus help me to strengthen my faith so that I may comfort my brethren in their spiritual life and even if I have to encourage them with regards to their health, when they are ill.

Today it is Friday, May 20, 1994 and after I received Holy Communion, I told the Lord Jesus, ‘Lord Jesus I feel so weak. My health is deteriorating.’ It is as if I told Him that I am no longer fit to mix with people but Christ’s reply was the following: ‘You never led an earthly life, material things mean nothing, with death all material things vanish and then the spiritual ones emerge. Your concern is mostly in spiritual matters. I have always to regard with great trust and to have courage for spiritual things. It is in these matters that you can be of help towards your brethren. When they seek your advice tell them to be exact in their spiritual life.’

This morning I heard Jesus telling me that we should not be attached to the world, we should not be attached and feel attracted to certain people because of their appearance. We should always be attracted by spiritual things... We should not attract people because we are pretty or handsome or because we wear fashionable clothes... We should not drag people towards the wide road of hell through fashion or by giving a bad example... I urge you to think about God, to take care of our soul because we do not know the time of our death and the hour when we will encounter the Lord. As I have already stated, the message given to me by Jesus today ... is that we should not say: ‘She attracts people because of her pretty face and because she follows the fashion. What attracts people should be the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist by all the suffering He endured for us since His birth... and the sufferings He endured along the road to Calvary to prepare our place in Heaven...

We should pray for the sanctity of priests, so that the priest dedicates himself completely to Christ and the Eucharist and not in the morning, he is all for the Eucharist and in the evening he is dragged by worldly currents. We should pray fervently for those priests who are giving a bad example... The Lord Jesus is greatly grieved by the behaviour of these priests who are... following the trends of the world because of temptation both of women and other things... There are many holy and saintly priests but there are some who are not exact in their morals, their faith, their love...

We should be very careful and dress modestly because by our acts we are wounding the heart of Jesus of the Eucharist. We should think of the love that should inflame our heart when we are about to receive the Eucharist. There are some souls who, instead of giving glory to Jesus, displease Him because they are tainted by mortal sin...

The Lord Jesus is greatly grieved by indecent clothing, which gives rise to many passions. He does not want these things. The desires of the soul should be spiritual, we should lead people towards a holy life, a life as requested by the Lord Jesus. The Lord Jesus suffered so much to prevent souls from going to those places of darkness, of hell, and yet we do not appreciate Christ’s passion...

I will speak again about world leaders. We should not show this hatred in wars by which many people are being sent before God... We are renewing for Christ the passion He suffered on earth. We are crowning Him with thorns. He is again suffering the pain of His wounds when He sees the things that the world is going through. Today's world is evil, scandalous and capricious. Everyone is intent to make more money even if acquired by illicite means, by ways not desired by the Lord. The Lord is grieved by these things...

Money should be earned with love and honesty and we should use money for our needs. We should not be attached to money. I know that many people are going to hell because they obtain money that is not honestly earned, but rather stolen, in scandalous and evil ways...

Wholeheartedly I say that we should not continue in this way because trouble follows sin. The Lord God is not pleased with the way in which the world is progressing. Although materially the world is advancing, yet spiritually, we are regressing. I have just heard the Lord Jesus telling me that the world is advancing in sinful, dishonest and scandalous things but it is regressing in spiritual matters..."

"When last Friday (20.05.94) I met Padre Pio in a vision, he told me: 'People knew about the wounds and stigmata I had in my hands and which were given to me by the Lord Jesus when I was in front of the Crucifix... However, besides the wounds I had in my hands, I had another hidden wound in my heart...'

He added: 'I greatly felt Jesus in the Eucharist just as you do... This is a great favour. Spread the devotion that Jesus Himself desires towards the Eucharist. Print it on small pamphlets in foreign languages and spread the message world wide that Jesus is suffering and that there is no love towards Jesus in the Eucharist.

He said: 'Even priests are not showing the love they should towards Jesus who is present in the Eucharist throughout the world, including your country. Be brave and take heart in the things the Lord Jesus is revealing to you when your heart meets His divine heart. When Jesus appeared to Sister Saint Margaret Alacoque the world was faced with many disasters, but now daughter, disasters have doubled... Do not be afraid to disclose the message about Jesus of the Eucharist. Injustices will pass by just as they did in my case. We must show the truth, because truth is being kept hidden...

In my eyes, Padre Pio appeared so lovely. He looked so holy. I do not know him as a person, I have never read about him but he is giving me much courage. He appears before me with such a divine face.

Padre Pio told me something else about the Eucharist. He said: 'When I was on earth and held the Eucharist in my hands, I used to feel Jesus in a special way... and more than once did the divine spirit of the Lord speak to me through the Eucharist.'...

The first time I met Padre Pio he told me: 'I am a Capuchin monk and I live in a part of Italy.' He told me where but I cannot recall it now. He said: 'Many used to pull my leg and tell me, 'Where do you see Our Lady? Do you still see her in the cellar?'...

I only tell you that I am praying hard for him so that he will be sanctified. He had told me: 'I was very hurt. However, I never showed it because I was more adept for the confessional where I heard the confessions of many who were distant from God and I befriended them with the Lord. At night, I wept for them, just as you do. These are all God's gifts and you should praise God for the great gift that the Lord has given you when from an early age you had visions of Our Lady and now they are being continued by Jesus of the Eucharist... Do not let these things pass by, spread this message of Jesus of the Eucharist because it is truly great and full of devotion.'

I told him: 'I know something... but they will certainly reproach me in my country if I disclose it.' It did happen. On Monday, May 23, 1994 at 9.00am. the Lord sent something. I knew about it beforehand and we should be cautious because other things will happen. I knew everything. I prayed to the Lord God of Hosts and told Him: 'Lord God of Hosts hold back Your powerful Hand and do not send disastrous things on the world.' I felt the quake and at that time I was weeping and praying.

Let us be very cautious because on another cassette I recorded that there is a cruel and fierce nation arming for war and at the opportune time these weapons are fired causing much trouble in the world.

The Lord tolerates sins, He is patient with sinners but God forbid He should get angry with us because He would send something that would darken the world. These things depress my heart. I wish I could speak clearly. Let us continuously think about God and about our soul because we do not know when death will come... During the prayer meeting held on May 8, 1994, I told you that I prefer to die during this period of peace... because now, I would die more united to God than if there were trouble. I do not say this for me alone, but for everyone else in Malta and elsewhere. If an earthquake should happen, there would be total confusion and people may even despair when they see so many reckless deaths. We do not know when this will happen, whether at night or by day...

I pray the Lord to keep His hands upon the world rather than predicting the things that the Lord will send, because when I did so, I suffered many injustices. I had spoken the truth when I said that if I had not erected the statue of Our Lady at Girgenti, in the area where the Blessed Virgin had placed her feet, that night a big earthquake would have occurred. That is why I obeyed and did not heed anyone. I suffered many injustices but what is important is that I obeyed what the Lady of Life had asked of me."

Following these messages Monsignor Buontempo concluded this meeting by blessing the crowd.

Guza attended this prayer meeting completely broken-hearted. She was going to remain in the car on the road, but then she heard within her that she must go in the field and she obeyed.

She said: "Now I have taken five from the thorns of the Lord for I have all the wounds... Yesterday I prayed to the Lord, I told Him: 'I prefer to die now, or else, give me more and more pain so that I will be able to suffer more for the needs of everyone, Maltese and Gozitans and for the needs of those who cause me injustice...'

Take heart, have courage and those who are ill should trust in God, because God reaps much benefit from illness...

I have long been telling the Lady of Life that there was somebody whom I had not yet seen, and on Friday at one o'clock at night, while I was meditating on the Way of the Cross... God granted me the grace to see this messenger from Heaven. There only remained my guardian angel for me to see. If only you know how many beautiful things he performed with me. Do not forget that every person has a messenger of God with him...

Accept God's will. You have somebody with whom to talk. Go to Church and there speak to Jesus in the Eucharist. He is performing great things with me...

Always remember God, always remember your souls because you do not know when you will die...

Yesterday, at about 4.15 I lied down on my bed and told Him: "Jesus, I am in such pain..." He replied: "Guza, Jesus suffered before you." Then I saw Jesus. I cannot tell you how much I wept. I saw His beautiful face, blood was dripping from the crown of thorns, I saw His short beard... I will not continue because... but truly He is performing marvellous things with me. I am not afraid to say these things. This is the truth and I am not afraid to say it. Whoever is doing evil and is opposing God is not ashamed, therefore, why should I be ashamed of what is good? Whoever possesses good must show it and should not be afraid..."

During this prayer meeting the following messages were read:

"Today it is Sunday, the twelfth day of the month of June, the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the month of the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. Today week we were at Girgenti... I knew beforehand that... we were to see something at Girgenti and this is what actually happened.

Lord help me, Lord assist me so that the truth is disclosed not through me but through You, O Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. I have just been in contact with You, now please help me because I had to record this message on the Friday dedicated to Your Sacred Heart, but I couldn't because I was too ill to do so. Now I am about to record it today, Sunday, the day of the Lord...

In the year 1988, when I was going up to Girgenti accompanied by a priest... he told me: "Guza we have not seen the sun today." I replied: "Now we shall see it, we shall indeed see it." He said: "I think it is going to rain." I replied: "No, we will have lovely things." And truly we had many beautiful things... because the Lord was generous with us... That is what happened last Sunday, the Lord showed us a very beautiful sun... Those present applauded intensely... and once more, I saw the holy and blessed Eucharist. I saw hosts similar to those held by priests (during consecration).

I wept at the time and there were some people who wept with me as well. These are not frivolous things my dear Christian brothers and sisters... In Fatima, only the three children saw Our Lady but then there were signs in the sky... and those of you who were present with me on Sunday, June 5, 1994 saw great signs in the sun... Some claimed that they were seeing two beautiful Hosts. I told them that I had been seeing them since when I was going up to Girgenti, then it was as if they were blending with the sun and the clouds...

In the past, the Lady of Life had told me that when she appeared to Sister Catherine Laboure nobody else was allowed to see her... As I told you, I wish you could see what I see but that is in the Lord's hands. However, you have seen signs both in 1988 and even in 1990 when I told you that in a cloud I was seeing the sign of the cross and then some said that they saw Our Lady. Those who do not have such a strong faith, by which they believe in the ways of the Lord, will in vain tease God to make them see such things. Those who lack faith become accusers just as in the case of Bernadette, in the case of those children and in my own case. However, it does not matter, you are doing me no harm...

On Friday night, dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, I was very, very ill... I was in great pain. I could not speak... I meditated about God's greatness and how the Lord God created Heaven and earth and how He sent His divine Son into the world. Our beloved Jesus did so much for us, He suffered so much from Pilate's Palace up to Calvary where He suffered such a cruel death on the cross. I thought about all the sufferings that Jesus endured for me and for everyone...

I told Him: “Jesus, Jesus, I am in such pain that today I must surely die.”... Jesus replied: “Don’t you know what happened to you last Friday when I revealed to you those things about the love I have for the world, especially in the Eucharist... and how My heart is receiving so much scorn from everyone, especially from those whom I love most? There are priests who are not adoring Me as they should and they make Me suffer just as I suffered on Calvary.”... He continued: “Last Sunday, I felt that you were very brave to describe what you were seeing. The others could not see what you were seeing... You have understood the phenomenon of the Eucharist. The things that occurred in the sun were sent by God to be seen by everyone. Some saw them while others did not because there were many people who lacked faith... I wish you could clarify certain things. You need not fear because I promised you and even Our Lady promised you that she will always be with you, since when she started giving you those visions permitted by My Father in Heaven and which I am now continuing for you.

Keep spreading the love towards the Eucharist. The great love you have towards me must be spread throughout the world because the whole world is passing through great darkness.”...

The message which Padre Pio told me, “My daughter, have courage and fearlessly spread the devotion towards the Eucharist” was repeated to me during Friday night, the night of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I heard the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist telling me: “Spread the devotion towards the Eucharist, do not keep it hidden within yourself. I know that you are not keeping it for yourself because you are doing much more than your health permits.”

I told Him: “Jesus, You know that I am ill. Jesus, You know that I am exhausted by illness.” He replied: “However, the world has understood the message by means of those leaflets which you distributed and will continue to distribute. Urge the members of the Committee, of the Movement and everyone to help you. Do not fear anyone because I will be with you all. Tell them about the love I have for humanity, for sinners, for those who oppose me, those who say: ‘We do not know Jesus the Nazarene, Jesus of the Eucharist. For us He does not exist.’ Tell them that I am near them and to beware the darkness there is in the world.”

He said: “My daughter, do not worry, do not lose heart. My daughter, have courage. Heaven and earth know that you are ill and that you are forcing yourself to deliver the message which heartily and with love I am telling you. Therefore, do not fear to spread the message. Others should co-operate with you at least in prayer, because if there aren’t good and generous hearts in the world, peace will never be achieved.”

I earnestly desire to speak about the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, of the divine and Sacred Heart of the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. Beloved Jesus, I want to be very brave, I want to awaken much strength in me... I want to look attentively at Your holy love, at the devotion that You want me, with all my poverty and nothingness, to spread in my country and throughout the world, especially, in those places where people are being massacred, where people do not understand the presence of God almighty, the presence of Your flaming love, of Your heart flaming with love in the tabernacle... Lord Jesus, with tears in my eyes I implore You to help me, to give me courage... that I may only take into account all that is of great benefit towards the love of my brothers and sisters world wide. Especially, may these representatives of states humble themselves and behave in all humility before You. May they think that You are everything while they are nothing... Lord God of Hosts, this is what I want to think about.

I want to spread these leaflets and the message which You strongly want me to disclose in those countries where wars are waging, where there is strife, hatred and bloodshed... Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, continue to help me and kindle in me great zeal for all that You are explaining to me and telling me in these times. I greatly thank You and ask You to strengthen my soul and my heart. Increase my courage so that Your will be done in me and in everything.

Lord Jesus, Your heart is surrounded by a crown of thorns. Out of Your heart issue the flames of Your love for humanity, to bring love and peace to the whole world. Lord Jesus, You are so kind hearted. I am in great pain because I do not wish to see You suffering further for the love of humanity which is so cruel.

I cannot find words to thank You, to praise You, to adore You, to tell everyone to pursue Your love for all that You did during these two thousand years... to ward off darkness. The world is filled with great evil, with grave deceit by which it wounds Your holy and blessed heart. You are showering many great treasures of love from all the tabernacles of the world where Your heart is beating in the white, blessed, immaculate and divine Host. I cannot explain love because I am good for nothing; however, Lord Jesus... You can scrutinise hearts and know everything. You knew me in the remote past, when at Girgenti I had seen You suffering in the valley of Girgenti, and now Lord Jesus You are again giving me these things. I cannot bear Your love, I do not know how I should speak to You. I do not know what I should do so that the world would love You and grant You all that You desire, that it may ward off the ruin of evil and we will no longer be slaves of the ugly powerful spirit of darkness, the devil.

Lord, I do not know how I am going to express myself because I know nothing... but today week at Girgenti I saw the sky open and some of my brothers and sisters of the Movement also saw the signs up there. However, I do not know how I am going to disclose this message to the world which You want delivered from this poor and worthless person.

Lord Jesus, I feel that Your heart is crushing me because I cannot bear seeing You any more in such pain... Lord Jesus, You told me that You want to achieve something from the spirit of this sick woman who is good for nothing. However, I promise You that for You I am able to do everything. Perhaps I am suffering because I am not fulfilling the will of the Lord Jesus. Blessed Mother help me because I think that I am suffering so much, because I am not fulfilling Jesus's will as He desires for Jesus does not want me to fear. He wants me to pluck up much courage to spread the message of love found in all the tabernacles of the world. Lord, if You help me, I will have this accomplished.

I have now come out with all my forces, with all my strength because in these last years, I have done nothing but mention You, Lord. Now I can see the weight of Your love, I see that Your love is hurt because man is very cruel and unkind. Notwithstanding that Jesus did so much for humanity, He was crucified, He died on the cross to redeem us, yet there are many cruel and macabre people. We should be cautious because I tell you that the salvation of the world, peace and love must come from heaven through the last message that Jesus is giving me on this dear and holy morning...

I feel a great dagger in my heart when Jesus tells me how much He is suffering. Holy Mother, help me so that the message requested by the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist will spread throughout the world and bring us peace, wars will cease, hatred and conflict will cease and politicians will abstain from hatred and from these things.

I ask His Holiness the Pope and all the Bishops of the world to spread the message of the Lord Jesus as quickly as possible...”

Following these messages, Guza said that she had had a vision of Rev. Fr. Gorg Mercieca who had greatly helped her in the past. She insisted that people who do so much good during their life should not be forgotten.

During this prayer meeting a number of priests addressed and blessed the congregation.

AUGUST 1994

After prayers and thanksgiving to God, Guza said: “The Eucharist is the fulcrum of everything. We must be very careful because we cannot live without the Eucharist: we will neither enjoy the spiritual life of the soul nor of the body...”

I came up here to speak much about God almighty, the omnipotent God who created the sky, the sun, the moon, the stars, the angels...

I am worth less than nothingness but it has pleased the Lord to make use of this nullity. You must know that I sleep neither during the day nor at night... Although I live by myself, yet I am not alone. In the material world, I am alone, however you have no idea how much contact I have with the Lord both during the day and at night. I thank the Lord that I am inside my house, cut off from the world because otherwise by the noise of the world I would not have recognised the great Lord Jesus of the Eucharist... The more solitary you are, the more you can think about God almighty...”

She added that spiritual persons were visiting her: “and I tell you that I pray for these people, because otherwise the world would not be able to survive in total darkness. We have lots of darkness and hatred, even in our islands...”

We should not have hatred, violence and trouble among us. I earnestly desire, I greatly wish and I have long been telling the Lord God of Hosts: let peace start from Malta. We who are in this place are lucky to be in the presence of the Lady of Life who wanted to come up here... I had this statue erected without a permit. When I was queried about this, I replied: “I say, once permission was granted to me by Our Lady, was it necessary that I ask for a permit? You cannot imagine how much good has been accomplished since when I put up the statue of Our Lady of Life...”

Then, some comments which an Austrian had made to Guza during a visit in September 1993 were read out:

“God bless you dear Guza. You are a servant of Jesus Christ. Your life is a very difficult one but your life is a rich and blessed life. People like you are necessary for Malta. There are too many materialistic people, people do not believe in God but our world will change very soon. There will be fighting, there will be catastrophes but this is all necessary to create a new world.

Dear Guza, you are not a human being. You are an angel who is living as a very humble person. I have travelled a lot in my life and I have found very few people like you. Your illness, your pains, your suffering, this is all what you carry for the sins of the people of Malta. Your life is difficult but you will be rewarded in Heaven. You have not done anything wrong in your life; you do not have any sin. Your house is a rich house in the spiritual sense. There are not only the pictures of Jesus Christ and the Holy Mother Mary. Jesus Christ is here in this house. The house is a holy house and Mother Mary is also present here.

People now are only following a material world but they will change very soon. Europe will change drastically and in one or two years people will come and ask your advice and you will have to tell people to change, to become friendly and helpful people, not to care for their material property. People will lose their property; they will lose their houses, and the situation all over the world will be like in Yugoslavia. When we lose our material property what can we do? It will be Jesus Christ who will come back to earth as you can see in the Bible in the New Testament, chapter 24. This is the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Please read Matthew Chapter 24 in the New Testament. Also, please read the Apocalypse of St. John.

To prepare a new world we do not need the great politicians, we do not need the professors, the Universities, we do not need the scientists. They have fulfilled their duties. They have done great work, but we need people who have a good and pure heart, people without a higher education, but people who are friendly by nature, who are intelligent, who are accustomed to work and care for others. We need thousands or tens of thousands of people like you, dear Guza.

It is a great privilege for me to be in your most beautiful house. I feel very privileged to be here, I thank Jesus Christ for having brought me here to this house, and I ask the Lord Jesus Christ to give more joy to Guza. She has to suffer; she has pains in her right hand. The nail with which Jesus Christ was crucified causes these pains. These are most holy and blessed hands like the hands of Father Pio. She is also having the same pain in her head, the pain that comes from the crown of thorns. The crown of thorns is a most holy crown. It is not a crown of gold and silver but it is a crown of love, of beauty and dignity. Therefore, by her suffering, she is taking away a lot of pain for other people. Guza, you are carrying the burden of other people.

Therefore, I ask the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Virgin to give you joy. You do not need money or a rich house. What you need and what I want to leave here is to tell you that I love you, that you are doing the right thing, that you have helped so many other people and that your time on earth is not over yet. You will do much greater things. It is not important to talk to thousands of people, it is very important to talk to the right persons. Just ask the Holy Virgin Mary to send you the right people, to be open to those people who need divine advice. These are the people whom you can help. It is very sad to see the world today, but all this suffering will end. The world will be a new world and your future on earth or in Heaven will be a future of glory. This is what I want to tell you, dear Guza. So cheer up, I thank you for your life that you have dedicated to others. God bless you. This is what I want to leave to you. Thank you.”

Guza added that she thanks those people who go to her house with such comments. She said that in order to know the spirituality of these people: “I contact whoever I should contact. I cannot take advice because on earth I have no one to advise me... However, I have much from whom to take advice... I cannot stay in bed neither during the day nor at night... The fact that a person never sleeps truly comes from God. Perhaps you might say that I exaggerate, but God knows everything.

Tonight I was worried because the Lady of Life told me something about the darkness we have... about the failing that some people do not recognise God. There are many such people, you know, and this sorely grieves both Our Lady and the Lord God. Therefore, let us pray and be vigilant... because we do not know what will happen to our world.

My concern is about those things I am informed from Heaven and not what that person or the other sends me. Do not think that the world is behaving well towards God, you know, because there is who is keen on waging a war, attacking people, his own neighbour, performing things not willed by God. This is not an act of thanksgiving to God, you know, these things are committed with much hatred, many situations which oppose God... I do not mention certain things. I have about five or six other points jotted down, they are not pleasant at all. When I recall them my heart saddens and I pray to God to have mercy on the world. I say, Lord Jesus pray to God for the world so that these things will not happen, fearful things..."

Guza then showed the crowd a photograph of the face of Jesus taken from the shroud of Turin. She said that she saw some signs on this image. "When I took this face in my hands, it began to change, it was as if it became human: it turned white, I saw something in its eyes, great things occurred."

When she spoke about the Eucharist, she said: "We must be in contact with the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. It is not correct to receive Holy Communion and alas, how can I explain, it is as if nothing happened! I do not know why I feel the Lord Jesus in this way, so close to me, He speaks to me and performs many other things, such that I weep. Why don't you behave in this way? It is because we do not have faith. Where is our faith?"

I do not know what will happen up here. Have courage and faith and come up here, it is not right that women come while men do not. When I spoke to the Archbishop, do you know what he told me? He said: "I have never told anyone not to go up there."

Let us pluck courage and have strong faith in God almighty. The Lord God of Hosts is doing so many great things. The Lord Jesus of the Eucharist is performing so many marvellous things. Even the Holy Spirit is doing great things, He is adorning my nothingness, the nothingness of Guza... We should not fear anyone. We should always declare white what is in fact white and call black what is black. We should not worry that we will be slandered or despised...

Today I came up here in agony. Now I can speak and feel that I am in good, normal health. Therefore, the Lord is performing great things with me. I praise You Lord because there is none like You, I bless You Lord, creator of Heaven and earth. What You have performed in me and the faith You have sown in me render me fearless and vexed by none even though I am in my agony. May the Lord be blessed now and forever and ever. Amen...

We need to remove the ugly wounds we have in Malta, concerning hatred... The Lord wants exact souls, souls as clear as crystal concerning spiritual matters and not the hatred that is being sown among the Maltese and the Gozitan. This is not correct. That is why for the love of God almighty, of Jesus, the Holy Spirit and Our Lady, I have great courage and I fear no one. I only fear God, I want to do His will because what has been sown in me has been given to me by God. Nobody gave it to me except God..."

Towards the end of the meeting, Guza urged families to consecrate themselves and prayed to God, Heaven and Our Lady to bless and help those gathered and the whole world and to grant peace which should result "from love, unity and tranquillity among us..."

SEPTEMBER 1994

This prayer meeting was a penitential one and started by a pilgrimage from near the bridge at the end of the old road. During this pilgrimage, the meditated rosary was recited and other prayers were said.

After reciting three “Glory Be”, Guza began her speech by saying: “I am seeing something. I am seeing Jesus of the Eucharist. Jesus, how sweet You are! Blessed be God. Blessed be Jesus...”

How much did the Lord Jesus, Jesus of the Eucharist suffer for us! How much did He suffer for humanity! He suffered infinitely, immeasurably. He suffered willingly, patiently and He endured all that suffering to redeem us, to redeem every person who came forth into the world in order that the latter may take all that he deserves. Do you know why man deserves all this? Because Christ, the Lord Jesus, has performed marvellous things for us, with us, within us and in everything. He did not detest the passion as sometimes happens in our case...

The heart of the Lady of Life is suffering terribly. That woman together with the Holy Spirit brought forth into the world the Son of the Eternal Father, she brought forth the Lord Jesus. Our Lady truly suffered and when we say the Holy Way of the Cross it is right to recall that the feet of Mary were following Jesus ascending with His cross. Holy Mary, you are so kind. Blessed Virgin, you gave the world so many great things because you gave us the best thing, you brought forth the Son of the Eternal Father...

Our Lady suffered so much. By her suffering, she knows what being a mother means. Then we, both in Malta and Gozo and even the others with their respective language blaspheme and despise Jesus of the Eucharist. There are people who wish to lead Jesus once more along the roads of Calvary. They do not care how much Jesus suffered along the roads of Calvary. Jesus is suffering greatly in these times. Everyone is transforming the world and no one knows God any more. Why shouldn't we recognise the Lord Jesus in the changes the world is making? Nothing is considered as being sinful anymore, everything is frivolous. Many argue: “What do I care if I blaspheme against the name of God and of Our Lady? What do I care if I blaspheme against the Eucharist? Who knows the Eucharist?”... Alas, alas, man's mind is so empty. I tell you that man's mind is stupid because God loves us, God is very pleased with us. The Lord uses us, He uses us correctly, He has provided our livelihood, He has brought us into the world, He gave us sustenance and work...”

Guza then spoke against blasphemy. She said that the previous week, Our Lady had repeated the message she had given her in the valley of Girgenti to defend God's honour from blasphemy. She related how in the past she had written about five letters to the Prime Minister of the time, Mr. Paul Boffa and that it was Archbishop Gonzi, who during a Congress of the Society of the Holy Name of God announced that the law against blasphemy had come into force.

She continued: “Blaspheming against the Holy Spirit, blaspheming against the face of Our Lady? Why should we blaspheme against Our Lady? We should implore Our Lady to pray for us to God, to grant us all our needs, both spiritual and material, and to draw us closer to God...”

I tell you that summer is almost over. It is as if we are in Purgatory, it's a long time since we've had such a summer... Friends, I tell you that we do not know how winter will turn out. I know something but I will not disclose it. We must be careful, we must be vigilant and pray so that no trouble will befall us. Let us be very vigilant because I do not know where we shall put our feet in the mud. I know something but it is better if I don't say anything. Let us be vigilant and pray so that we will not be harmed.

To go back to the law against blasphemy, I say that it came into force and Archbishop Gonzi who was on the platform told us: “My children, my children, it is necessary to abolish from Malta this dark cloud, this ugly wave of blasphemy. Why don't we give our support to this meeting which is being organised with Government's permission?"...

After stating that a person told her that for every hundred rotolos (equivalent to eighty kilos) of blasphemy that existed in the past we now have a ton, she continued: "In the past the Lord was going to punish Malta because of blasphemy. We must be careful, the law about which I had written to Boffa is still there, however those who are in authority utter blasphemies themselves. Is this right? How can they enforce the law against blasphemy if they themselves blaspheme?"

Therefore, let us be vigilant and pray so that we will not fall into temptation, especially blasphemy from which we achieve nothing... I speak for the love of God and of the Blessed Virgin. If someone is laughing at me, he is laughing at himself. I do not care. I only care for the Lord God, for the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, for all in Heaven and for Our Lady.

We must join hands in love in order to work for Our Lady, otherwise it will be of no avail. Let us work for the Blessed Virgin as she herself desires, with love, heartily, prudently. Let us pray for our brothers and sisters, Maltese and Gozitans so that this cursed, ugly and dark vice of blasphemy will be abolished...

I end by thanking God almighty... I pray God almighty to bless us all, to bless our homes, our towns and villages, Malta and the whole world. Lord, bless us all and do not allow chastisements to happen. You can withhold Your will. We are praying in atonement dear Lord. Lord, do not send anything harmful upon anyone... Let us pray because the Lord is getting angry with us. He is very patient but we should keep on praying even for the needs of others so that almighty God will pardon us..."

Towards the end of the meeting, Guza urged prayers for the leaders of nations because most of them have not yet recognised God. She prayed hard for the souls in purgatory and for all those who are not in God's grace. She added that although today we have lost all sense of sin, yet we should remember that God has existed from the beginning and will remain forever and ever.

To recall Christ's agony, some bell tolls were sounded and Guza said: "O soul, what have I done to you? Why did you neglect Me and drew away from Me? I love you so much whoever and wherever you may be! Do not harden your mind in sin or you will remain in darkness..."

Let us ask God to forgive all our sins, to remove all our sins that we may go to our place prepared for us by Our Lord Jesus, in Heaven our homeland. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

"What have I done to you, O human soul? I suffered for you and did My utmost to save you. It was not enough that I suffered the passion along the roads of Calvary, because it pleased you to pierce My heart from which flowed blood and water." Shouldn't we thank the Lord for all this?... The Lord did this with a purpose. We too have a purpose, our aim is that all in Malta and the world will be converted. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

Let us promise each other prayers, patience and tolerance and accept all that the Lord wants us to go through. May God the Father Almighty be praised now and forever..."

OCTOBER 1994

"The Lord loves us to the utmost. He sent His Son Jesus who suffered the passion and death on the cross for me and for every person there is on earth... Let us thank the Lord for the great favours He is granting you and me. We cannot say that these things are not true. Great graces are descending upon us...

I tell you to use much faith and to pray to the Holy Spirit... because the Holy Spirit gives us gifts, He strengthens our faith and gives us courage..."

Later Guza related in detail the incident when her mother and herself went to Loyola House, at Naxxar, to visit her brother Carmelo. There, Rev. Fr. Emvin Busuttill told her that he was certain that she would die wearing a religious habit. She added that in a vision she had with the Blessed Virgin at three in the morning on Saturday, September 24, 1994, the Lady of Life told her: "You must die wearing a religious habit.' Oh, how great is God. Some time later I heard a voice and it said: 'Guza, the Lady of Life, Our Lady, has confirmed what I had told you. You must die wearing a religious habit.'

Our Lady wills that there should be the Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration. Now, you must pray hard for me. Our Lady told me that I have fulfilled my mission as a victim in my house... It has been fourteen years since I have been closed up at home, praying, people visiting me... My only permission to leave home was to come up here... And I am going to become, excuse me, I am embarrassed to say it... The Lady of Life told me: "You must be the Mother Superior of the Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration." I must be very humble... The Blessed Virgin gave me this permission. I must take a perpetual vow to love the Lord earnestly...

I will come wearing the dress that I wore five years ago (September 1989). Upon it the Lady of Life told me: "Inscribe the letters M. G. S. M. G." (In Maltese) These stand for Lord God, Jesus, Holy Spirit, Our Lady and Saint Joseph.

How great these sisters will be. I wish that I will arouse many vocations... They must have a sash similar to mine and upon it they will inscribe S. M. K., that is, Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration.

Our Lady told me something else and I told her: "Beloved Virgin Mary, I am worth less than nothingness." She replied: "They must call you Mother Superior." I told her: "I am worth less than nothingness, if possible let them call me 'nullity'..."

I want to praise and bless the Lord. During my life I have greatly praised and blessed the Lord.

We, the Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration must have a special love, a great love for the Lord God. We must also have a great love for Jesus of the Eucharist and a great love for the Holy Spirit to reawaken the faith in us Maltese and Gozitans and the whole world especially in the leaders of nations. We must have great devotion for the Lady of Life... If I should talk up to tomorrow morning I will not stop praising these persons."

She continued that these Sisters could, "Wear a black habit, a blue habit and with the permission of the Lady of Life a dark grey habit. Modest clothes, great love and devotion towards God almighty, Jesus of the Eucharist and the Holy Spirit to strengthen our faith. May Our Lady... use us for the benefit of everyone, among everyone and may we have love among us..."

NOVEMBER 1994

As announced during the month of October 1994, Guza had to take her perpetual vows during this prayer meeting. She said: "Our Lady told me: 'Keep consecrating your life, you must die wearing a religious habit.'... Now the priest will bless these veils..."

Guza then asked for a copybook and wrote: “Today November 6, in accordance with Our Lady’s instructions I take my last perpetual vows. Guza Mifsud.”

Before the Rev. Fr. Nazzaren Tonna blessed the veils, etc, the rules for the Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration were read out... These rules were printed on the holy pictures that were distributed on that day. Such rules can be found in another section of this book.

Then Rev. Fr. Nazzaren addressed the gathering and among other things he said that he had thanked Our Lady for being chosen to fulfil the Blessed Virgin’s will on Guza. He added: “This morning during mass, the most precious thing for me, I asked God to make me a fit and humble instrument so that the blessing of these veils and colours (of the habits), to be worn in the future by the sisters who will represent the Movement under the precious title of Our Lady of Consecration, with which Our Lady is so pleased, will be undertaken successfully. In this way, God will be glorified through the Virgin Mary, our sister Guza and those who will follow her.

Now, brothers and sisters, I am truly moved, not afraid because I am proud to spread the word of God. That is why the Lord called me and chose me to be a fit instrument to preach the gospel. However, I am moved because I cannot find enough words, first to thank God, then the Blessed Virgin, then our sister Guza that I have been chosen, I repeat, so that God’s blessing will descend on all that Guza desires.

I have no doubt that in accordance with what Guza said and what had been announced by Mons. Salv Grima, the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration will grow; it will spread or better still, the whole world will be consecrated to the Blessed Virgin and God will be praised by mankind.

It was the idea of the Blessed Virgin herself, whenever she appeared on earth, that humanity is consecrated to God. In our times, God through Mary used our sister Guza to show us the importance and our duty to consecrate ourselves to be saved and to give glory to God, to show great devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and for our own benefit.

As Saint Paul said, if humanity is to be saved through Christ, the focus of our salvation should be the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is so true that we must reach Christ through Mary.

Therefore, dear sister Guza, on behalf of the Church I greatly thank you. Keep progressing in humility, keep progressing in the love you have for God and for Jesus in the Eucharist who is the secret, the key of our Movement. Continue to urge us in our great devotion towards the Blessed Virgin Mary. Your words assure us that you are the true messenger sent by the Virgin Mary to be our light, not only for the laity but especially for priests that we may be true priests as willed by the Lord and by the heart of Mary, Our Lady of Consecration. Our Lady is delighted in seeing us priests fully consecrated to her, as Jesus wants us, in order to be strong enough to resist all that we encounter.

For as long as I have been coming up here, I was often impressed when either directly or indirectly you spoke about priests. I always thanked God and thanked the Blessed Virgin Mary for being called and chosen in the Movement, not because I deserve so but because God and Our Lady willed it this way. I have long been mad about the Blessed Mother. It is not just a spark that I have in my heart, but as my confessor perhaps knows, I have been consecrated to the Virgin Mary ever since my childhood. It was the Blessed Virgin herself who chose me for the priesthood when I was only eleven years old...

I thank God who called me and chose me to be a humble instrument in His hands in order to do good...

What we are about to do today, let us do it for the greatest glory of God. Let us thank God first, then thank the Blessed Virgin and Guza, the latter is an instrument in the hands of Our Lady that we may follow her so that this Movement will grow, such that God's will be fulfilled in the words that the Blessed Virgin tells Guza. Our Lady is always the handmaid of the Lord and therefore God's message is being delivered to us by Mary through Guza so that Christ's promise may come true: 'I love you and I have mercy on you because you are My true image.' God loves us so much that He came forth into the world to choose His mother and to give her to us so that we become members of her Movement and thus her children. We should truly love her in everything. She loves us so much, she is a mother...

Therefore, now let us bless these veils. In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. Let us perform this ceremony with the greatest devotion. This is another part of the promise made by the Blessed Virgin Mary to our sister Guza concerning our Movement... Lord, bless these veils which we on Your behalf for the glory of Your Mother Mary are blessing, so that our sister Guza and those who will follow her may give You glory by their words and much more by a holy life. We ask this through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen... Now I will donate these veils to our sister Guza that she may use them and wear them as she desires...

Guza, I wish that in all humility you would keep on living a holy life, that you may be an example to us in our course towards the Lord. May we find in you a very helpful person ready to fill us with courage through your dynamic and zealous words, and by your example full of love for God and for our neighbour. In short, may you truly be the light and our path until we reach the Lord."

Guza then added: "May God the Father almighty be praised, may the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, together with the Holy Spirit and our dear Mother Mary Most Holy be praised. Blessed Mother, grant us all our needs, both spiritual and temporal.

Beloved Virgin Mary, you who are so close to God almighty and to your Son Jesus, pray for us that we may all become holy, that we will all benefit from God's grace and make a good death. Hail Mary... (3) Glory Be..."

After some more prayers, Guza concluded the meeting by saying: "We are getting a very repulsive appearance because of this darkness, because of hatred. God does not want hatred and strife. The Lord wants love and that we draw towards each other and serve each other patiently and with love. May the Lord God in Heaven be praised. May the Son of God almighty be praised in Heaven and in all the tabernacles of the world, together with the Holy Spirit, Our Lady and all in Heaven and earth..."

Finally, I must point out that, as it often happened, although it was raining heavily all over Malta yet it stopped raining just before the meeting started. As always, Our Lady kept her appointment with all those who attended these meetings.

Guza commenced this meeting by saying that on the previous Friday she had had a contact with Jesus of the Eucharist and added that: "Jesus of the Eucharist is very pleased with the meetings we are holding up here. Besides Him, they even please God the Father together with the Holy Spirit and the Lady of Life..."

What I have done, I always did it to please God. If I am doing something, I do it to give glory to God. I do not pay heed to what others argue! I will say just as Christ had said: "I come from God." I tell you that what I have is coming from Heaven and I do not need to worry about injustices. Even you who come up here to pay these visits to God almighty, I tell you that we astonish the world! Since we came for our last meeting, something was to happen somewhere but we prayed heartily... If we pray, trouble is averted because there is the Provident Hand of Our Lady to whom I say: "Dear Mother, look upon Malta and the world. If there is something about to hit us do not let it happen... The Blessed Virgin respects us fully. I know what I am saying."

When she mentioned the title of Our Lady of Consecration, Guza said that during a conference about religious life, no one referred to religious persons as priests or nuns but as 'consecrated souls'. "We who are baptised and believe in God too have every right to say that we are consecrated persons. The Church Authority... knows why we come up here. We come to praise God, Jesus of the Eucharist together with the Holy Spirit, Our Lady and all in Heaven. What is the need for these arguments? Let them argue as much as they like. No one, no one can abolish the Lord's deeds. The Lord Jesus is with His Father, the Holy Spirit, the kind Holy Mother and all the angels and saints..."

Moreover, all of us are living with the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. Shouldn't Jesus of the Eucharist be praised?..."

About prayer Guza said: "That is for what I have been dedicated by the Lord, that is why the Lord brought me into the world... I do not say a single Hail Mary to Our Lady to forward it to the Lord just for my needs, but I offer all my prayers for your needs, for the needs of the whole world, for the needs of the representatives (heads) of states..."

When referring to that day's gospel which dealt with John the Baptist, Guza said: "He did not make his face up in order to look handsome, he did not think about what he had to say, nothing. He was half-clothed with animal skin and half-naked and he praised the Lord. He used to say: 'Let us level the hills, the valleys and the roads.' Friends, what have we to level? We should raze the hatred we have among us, raze abuses, and raze the things not willed by the Lord. I will only look at Heaven. It is not right that amongst us there are people who are not in speaking terms with others. The Lord does not want quarrels and trouble, the Lord does not want hatred. I tell you that we should come here filled with the love of God, the love of Heaven. If we harbour some hatred we should remove it so that when we come up here we are like angels and our prayers will ascend as desired by the Lord, for we do not come up here to pray just for ourselves. We are not selfish people, we are like brothers and sisters, we must pray for everyone... If amongst us there exist these things (conflict, hatred) we can draw upon us something from the powerful Hand of the Lord... Let us be vigilant and pray, not only not to fall into temptation but so that no trouble would befall us..."

I tell you to pray earnestly especially for the dying because that is what the kind Jesus of the Eucharist told me last Friday... I pray hard for sinners, for the dying and for all those who are distant from God... There are many wicked people, sinners, people who harbour hatred in their hearts... If we pity an animal about to be slain, how can we not pity a human being? These people have a dark conscience, a devilish conscience... these people who kill others, this theft... and this ruin among families... Is this correct? Did Christ come into the world to bring destruction? Christ came into the world to bring unity. Aren't we ashamed to mention divorce in Malta? Divorce would crown it all!

Guza then mentioned that she receives several letters from youths asking her to pray for them because some of them fell victim of drugs. She said that notwithstanding all her illness, she has all of the Lord's peace. "I accept everything from the Lord's hands. What is the use of getting angry? Why give vent to trouble? Why blasphemy? Why drive others away from you because you cannot bear their sight? This should not be! God wants to unite us in love, God came to grant us peace...

Now I am as in a cloister, abandoned by everyone, deprived of everyone and this in accordance with the Lord's will. God brought me into the world just for one thing, to pray for the world, to pray for everyone: for the Pope, the Bishops, priests and nuns of good will. There are many who are of bad will, you know. There are many priests of bad will. I know this from the Lord Jesus suffering along the roads of Calvary when He was involved with the doctors of the law, with the priests of His time. He was much grieved that they did so many things against Him and lied against His will. He had to endure the passion to redeem us, but notwithstanding we must thank Jesus of the Eucharist rather than carry on with these things!..."

Guza then related how a twenty five-year-old man visited her together with his parents. She told him: "The Eucharist is so lovely, the Eucharist makes you so happy, for me the Eucharist is everything.'... I told him: 'Aren't you ashamed? You have your mother, your father and two brothers and say that you have never heard about the Eucharist and that you are hearing about it from me! The Eucharist is everything, it gives you light, life, joy, happiness...' He replied: 'The Eucharist does not mean anything to me.' I could not believe my ears... He said: 'Do you know who Jesus is for me? A prophet.' I replied: 'But because your parents did not enlighten you as they should have done.' His father told me: 'It is true... If only we have a small fraction of your faith, such things would not exist in Malta. But no one has such a faith and that is why God permits these things.'"

Guza then condemned abortion, divorce and the break down of families. She said: "It is so hideous when the devil participates to destroy families. Alas, the Lord does not will this. The Lord suffers greatly by these things.

Lord Jesus, You who have suffered such a cruel agony on the cross, have mercy on sinners, have mercy on the dying. Kind Lord Jesus, grant that none of the dying go to the darkness of hell. That is why Our Lord Jesus Christ underwent the passion. It was the Lord Jesus's good will which made Him leave His Father's fertile land, find a creature and in her come into the world to grant us peace.

The determination of the Lord Jesus was truly great. We should have great respect for Christ's passion. So many became saints, but there were many other damned souls who went to the abyss of hell. Even in our country, we should be ashamed to have so many sects, you know. Many have more power than I do and yet no one speaks about these things. This is not right, you know! Let us pray earnestly and be vigilant so that God will help us in these things. Everyone is afraid of these sects, no one speaks to them, but I shall speak because that is what I have been instructed to do by Jesus of the Eucharist. Why shouldn't I speak about these hellish, wicked and frightful things?... Everyone knows what we have in Malta. There are beautiful things and there are ugly things... If there are sects, if there is darkness, if the devil is tainting some souls with mortal sin, yet, there are other souls who are atoning for them so that these mortal sins prick their conscience and draw these souls towards the Lord...

Up here, we are giving good examples. If there are some people, perhaps five... who have quarrelled with someone else, I tell them to avoid hatred and conflict. The Lord does not want this... I am asking you to pray so that we will all be like brothers and sisters. We all came to fulfil God's will, to calm the powerful Hand of God. If tonight some disaster is to occur somewhere, we tell you: 'Lord, look at our sufferings.'... Up here, we have become people consecrated to Our Lady. Praised be Our Lady!"

Towards the end of the meeting, Rev. Fr. Nazzaren Tonna blessed some children and some babies who were also consecrated.

Guza concluded this meeting by saying: “The last time I came, I fulfilled what the Lord wanted of me... Up here, I performed my last destiny of love towards God, in that I want to obey God, I want to love the Church, the Pope, our Bishops, priests and everyone. Now I have become one of them, one of the chosen souls desired by Our Lady.

Today, there are many young people before me... Our Lady wants many vocations, both among male youths and among female youths. I am not asking you to join the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration as Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration. May there be vocations with every religious society, your choice is not my concern. Our Lady still wants many vocations. She wants us to pray hard for vocations both as priests and other religious. Now I am one of the consecrated souls. I thank the Lord for the great grace He gave me through the dear Virgin Mary. May the name of the Lord be praised now and forever. Amen.”

JANUARY 1995

“In a contact which last Friday I had with Jesus of the Eucharist, He told me that He is sorely grieved for the darkness there is in the world including Malta. The Lord God gave us such a lovely divine baby, whose birth we have commemorated some time ago. Jesus is the prince of peace and we should respect Him well in the Eucharist. The Lord Jesus of the Eucharist is much grieved by the fact that we are not respecting Him as the prince of peace, the prince of love, the prince of mercy. I respect Jesus in many ways because with me and with everyone He is performing many lovely things.

Let us pray fervently to Jesus of the Eucharist so that He keeps us away from this darkness, this lack of faith there is in Malta. I know from Jesus that in Malta we have this darkness because we are not showing Him the respect we should in the Eucharist.

Both Jesus and Our Lady are grieved by this fact. The heart of the Lady of Life together with Her Son Jesus are very distressed by the disasters that are happening in the world. I heard her telling me: ‘My daughter, I am very sorry when I see these burnt corpses carried on wheelbarrows. Pray for these people and urge others to pray because my heart is broken when I see brothers killing each other. I am very sorry that Jesus is not being respected in the tabernacles of the world, even by the very people who have consecrated their life to God but then after some time they start following the trends of the world.’

Both Jesus and Our Lady are sorry for the lack of faith there is in the world, including Malta. We people of good will, let us kindle in ourselves a great love for Jesus of the Eucharist and atone for those who are of bad will, who heartily and willingly disrespect the divine heart of Jesus in all the tabernacles of the world.

Let us be vigilant and pray so that no trouble would befall us. Let us pray for Russia because if the trouble in Russia increases, there will be great trouble worldwide. I know from the Lord Jesus that wars rather than decreasing are in fact increasing. Even hatred, hatred is present everywhere. Hatred is increasing in a very scandalous way. No one reflects upon that truth that Christ came to bring peace to the world. On the contrary, many say that they do not know Christ. They have no respect for Him.

The Lord Jesus of the Eucharist is the prince of peace, the prince of God’s love, the marvel of heaven and earth for those who are of good will. Let us pray for our country, let us pray for all the countries of the world, for Russia and for all those places where wars are waging, where there is darkness and they do not want to strive for peace.

I heard the beloved Jesus telling me: 'Everyone speaks about peace but no one truly refers for peace because they never mention neither God almighty nor Me.' Let us praise the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity together with the Blessed Virgin so that they may direct their look upon the whole world because only they can give us true peace. Guza Mifsud."

FEBRUARY 1995

After praising the Lord God of Hosts, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, the Holy Spirit and the Lady of Life, Guza said: "We are suffering. However, let us offer our sufferings in coming up here in atonement of our sins, for the needs and the conversion of those Maltese and Gozitans that have left their faith. Our Lady is sorry that we do not have the same love, the same measure we had in the past. At that time the Lord meant everything, the Lord Jesus meant everything. We behaved in everything as brothers and sisters, not like these times..."

I tell you my usual word, that is, to be vigilant and to pray so that no trouble will befall us and we never fall in anything that the Lord does not want us to go through. Let us remember the tragedy that has just occurred in the dockyard, those are our brothers. We are all brothers and sisters in the Lord. I no longer say for the needs of the Maltese and the Gozitans, now I pray for everyone alike... I pray that God will grant us all our needs especially to rise in faith, to rouse our faith in the Lord God, in the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist...

Lord Jesus, I have made the wounds that You have in Your hands, in Your feet and therefore I want to suffer and to atone for them. I want to atone for my sins, I want to atone for the sins of everyone, for the sins of those who say that they do not want to acknowledge God, alas, they do not want to acknowledge the Eucharist, the sacrament of reconciliation and other sacraments. We have much upon what to meditate...

You people of good will are suffering with Guza in this cold or when we come up here in the sun... They know that we suffer when we come up here. If we had a church, we would be inside. However, this church will come true. They are waiting for Guza to die, well it does not matter, Guza will die and God willing, all will be accomplished. There will be the church, the convent and even the sisters. Lord, everything will be fulfilled...

I spend my time in prayer. I want to spend it in prayer, you know. I am not telling you not to spend time watching television but... I say that no benefit is reaped from those things. Remember that prayer lasts even though sometimes it is accompanied by indifference, when it does not issue from the heart because we are facing trouble and obstacles, but do not worry because the Lord is near us, the spirit of the Lord Jesus guides us. On the other hand, Our Lady is helping us incessantly. We should not feel discouraged because if we pray zealously the Lord will grant us our needs... We should not lose heart, we should pray although we say that we are praying for no avail. It is not true that our prayers are useless, right now the entire world is benefiting from the cold we are suffering up here. We must pray you know, we must remember that there are many representatives of states who are Godless, they do not believe in God because if they do they would not manoeuvre to kill the Pope. No, they do not have God with them... Lord have mercy on them because it is not right to say: 'I do not believe in God. As if God exists?' Aren't we ashamed to say these things? Look at that wall, it is full of grass and up there, there is that clover about to bloom. Who is able, if not God, to cultivate the flower of the clover plant or of the cape sorrel? Then these fools state that God does not exist, that Christ still has to come into the world to save them! Aren't these foolish things? That is why we come up here you know, we are suffering all this trouble but we are achieving great merit for the next world...

God is with us, you know, and once God is with us no one is against us... Let us not lose heart, let us pray for the needs of the Maltese who lack faith. Let us pray for the needs of the Maltese who do not have love. He who has no love has nothing. Let us remove the hatred we have in our country, let us remove the several sects we have. Probably they do not like me but I do not care. For us the Lord God and the Lord Jesus mean everything..."

Guza added: "The devil is troubling me, you know. I have a small room, which I love... but there is a small one, a dwarf, a devil, a cruel devil, you know, and when I am about to go upstairs or if the Committee is about to meet, he troubles me greatly. He comes from behind and knocks me down on the floor. I tell him: 'You fool, you cannot harm me. You are a fool, God punished you because of your pride and you cannot do me any harm.' At other times, when I am resting quietly, I feel someone pulling my hair, although I do not have much left. I tell him: 'You are so cruel, you are so foul.' Excuse me, then I show him what I have on my chest of drawers and he departs. I see the devil but I do not fear him... The devil is so cruel, he is so rude because these things are penetrating him. The devil envies us but for no avail. May the Lord be praised now and forever..."

Aren't we ashamed that in Catholic and Apostolic Malta... there is all this theft. You thieves come before the statue of Our Lady so that we make peace. Come you who hate others. Jesus, bring those who hate others, those who harbour hatred so that we will join hands and will not have any more hatred, conflict and division amongst us. Lord bring those thieves, those violent people whose heart is of iron. Aren't you ashamed? You truly have a cruel heart to go upon someone with a knife to kill him. This does not want these things (Guza showed the crucifix). He said: 'Lord God of Hosts, forgive them for beating Me, for ill treating Me, for piercing Me with a lance and with nails. Forgive them for they do not know what they are doing.'

That is how the Maltese, Gozitans and foreigners are behaving... In Malta, everything has turned upside down. Divorce, is this right? Both my mother and my father were eighty-one years old. Of course, sometimes they did quarrel. However, they always respected each other. Or else, many men take another man's wife. This is not right. It is not right that a woman takes another woman's husband because there could be trouble, ruin, hatred and many serious difficulties not only in that house but even in the country. Personally, I pray hard for everyone but I pray fervently for these people so that God would unite them in a marriage that will not be dissolved. There is blessing in an indissoluble marriage but in a marriage which can be dissolved, where the couple live separately, there is no blessing. I know this from the Lady of Life who told me to speak much about these things. Our Lady is sorely grieved for these families, they ruin themselves, they ruin their children and their country. May all the representatives of Malta come here and I will tell them: 'No, it is not right that we are about to destroy marriage. Marriage belongs to Christ. Christ made marriage, Christ made marriage indissoluble. Why all this slander and obstructions?'... By God's grace then there are people of good will who take care of the children for in such cases who would suffer? The children, poor souls. If my mother had left my father, I do not think I would have been here because I would have been spoiled. However, my father and my mother gave us a sound upbringing. We used to meet in that room and together recite the rosary. My mother used to cook something, which we used to eat and always praise God. We suffered but we always lived according to Christ's values and as willed by the Lord...

I see God's presence everywhere. They tell you: 'We do not know God.' Some often tell me: 'We have never seen Our Lady.' These people do not know how to pray; they do not know how to say a decade of the rosary. They lack God's grace. This is not right. Let us be born again, let us be born in love, and let us be born with Jesus. Now we are about to commemorate His sufferings... How did the Lord Jesus repay the world? How did the Lord Jesus repay those Jews who were tormenting Him? He repaid them by praying to the Lord God to forgive them for they did not know what they were doing. Much more we, how much more do we need to pray to God almighty to draw us closer to Himself and to the Eucharist...

Then there are others who say: 'What is the Eucharist?' Some time ago some people came to my house, they were arrogant and impudent people, very strong people, who thought that they could uphold heaven... We have so many foolish people in Malta. 'What is the Eucharist?' He said: 'It is like spittle.' Excuse me. He caused me much suffering you know. They caused me great pain. I told them: 'Aren't you ashamed? How dare you confront Jesus of the Eucharist? How can you want peace in your family if you do not have the slightest hope, faith and love towards Jesus of the Eucharist? How can you have peace?'

I am telling you these things to show you how degraded we have become in Malta. There are many such things, besides that cursed mass during which they abuse the Eucharist; they commit many sacrileges upon the Eucharist. The Lord Jesus is so grieved for these souls. Moreover, when they offer innocent souls of God to the devil, how far can we go ahead in Malta? Our Lady help us. Blessed Mother stand by us, Maltese, Gozitans and foreigners, and grant us the grace to have a good character, a Christian character as willed by God..."

Later, Guza condemned the division that is brought about by politics. She said: "Let us pray for the political parties so that God would help them. God will enlighten them; God will give them perseverance and all that they need. Do you know why? So that they rule properly, because God forbid, that any one of them inclines one way or the other.

Trust in God; trust in Our Lord Jesus. We find Our Lord Jesus in every church. He is alive, with His body, blood, soul and His presence as God and man. When we go to church we meet a divine Father, a Father who knows what love is. That is true love, when we love one another and know that we are suffering slightly for one another...

I pray the Lord so that He helps you and bless you. He will bless your families and strengthen you in faith. I heartily tell you to remove anything that is drawing you away from the Lord. We must get closer to Jesus of the Eucharist. We must be stronger in our deeds. And when you are aware of someone who is facing difficulties try and be helpful in a prudent, patient and quiet way so that peace may enter that house... I pray for the needs of those people who are being roasted alive, for the needs of those people who pray for the peace which seems unattainable... I pray to the Holy Spirit to fill you with His graces, to fill you with His gifts and so that you never feel rejected by God... Let us pray for the needs of the Pope, the leaders of the Church, for priests... May the Lord God, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, the Holy Spirit and Our Lady be praised forever and ever. Amen."

Guza did not attend this meeting but the following message was read out:

“My dear brothers and sisters in the Lord, I greet you. I did not attend our last meeting (the one held in the middle of the month) because I was very ill and I will neither attend today’s meeting because I am still very ill and greatly troubled. I have many things that break my heart but I heartily offer everything to the Lord for the needs of my brothers and sisters the sick, for the needs of sinners and of the dying. As I could understand from what the Lady of Life told me during the night between Thursday and Friday, we must pray fervently for the dying because many reckless deaths are taking place. These people are not at all prepared for death, on the other hand, they oppose the Lord God of Hosts, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist and many do not believe in Our Lady.

There is a great power of darkness throughout the whole world, everywhere, including our Catholic and Apostolic Malta. I say that no one is perfect on earth, everyone is human. We must pity and have compassion for one another. As much as possible, we must treat one another as brothers and sisters. We must be careful and fear God. God will pity us, will forgive us if we are of good will, and we truly trust in Him. In Malta all three Authorities are troubled because none of them is giving heed to Our Lady’s message. No one is giving heed to Guza and all those who help her. However, God is considerate towards us.

All darkness and filth are mentioned on the mass media however not even one word is said about the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration. I have already started praying to the Lord God and telling Him: ‘Lord God of Hosts, heaven is in Your hands, You know all about death, rain and the sun, however, only send us as much rain, as we need. You know that we passed a long period without rain, may we not spend another rainless month. I know that Malta does not deserve all that we pray for, because there is much hatred in Malta. Both my village of Siggiewi and the whole of Malta are obscuring the words of the Lady of Life because everyone thinks that one is holy. However, outside our shores this message is being highly praised.

Why don’t we thank the Lady of Life who brought us these things? I repeat that something terrible was to occur when we erected the statue of Our Lady at Girgenti but by our prayers, the Lord sent rain instead of an earthquake. I, Guza, tell you that the words of the Lady of Life are divine, holy, full of hope and love. We should not take spiritual matters frivolously, you know, because I was going to say something however I am going to hold it. There is something, which I do not even want it to happen on rocks, much less on Malta. Let us be vigilant and pray so that the Lord will forgive us. Let us pray with adoration and mercy. Let us pray hard to the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist to pray for us to God because from all the corners of the world including Malta there are signs of many terrible things.

We should take God’s things seriously. Let us pray to Him with respect and love and let us strengthen our faith. Let us have great faith in the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist so that the people of good will, among us Maltese and Gozitans, will not refrain from praying and God will have mercy on us Maltese and delivers us from the evil of the sects that are in our midst. There are many people of bad will. Now I know about the evil of the devil from the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist Himself, not only during Holy Communion but also throughout the day. These things grieve both Jesus and the Lady of Life. There is much to say about the darkness of the devil. I ask God almighty to give Malta much faith, hope and strong belief.

I tell you that for me, God comes first. I truly suffer from many illnesses but I offer everything for the needs of sinners and so that God will bless Malta and the world. Pray heartily. When you come up here say the Way of the Cross zealously and with full respect so that God would have mercy on us and we would not reach the stage where only up here will give us shelter while those who now are avoiding us will excuse themselves with us.

I, Guza, your sister in Christ tell you that in all my miseries I make every effort to pray for you so that God almighty would bless Malta rather than curse it. Those of bad will are cursing Malta by their evil deeds. Come up here, do not fear anyone and let us put God in the centre of our life. May the Holy Trinity, Our Lady and all in Heaven be praised.

Your sister in Christ, Guza Mifsud.”

At the beginning of this prayer meeting, Guza embraced the large Crucifix that had been taken up to Girgenti. She said: “Lord, Lord Jesus, You are near me again today!” Poor Jesus, how much He suffered for you and for me. Lord Jesus, we love You, Lord Jesus, we bless You, Lord Jesus, we adore You, Lord Jesus, we praise You. Lord Jesus, I praise You for all that You have done for me and for my brothers and sisters who are present here... Lord Jesus help us and awaken the faith in Malta. Jesus do not leave us alone because we are weakening in our faith. Jesus, we love You, we adore You and we give You thanks. O Jesus, we adore You and we praise You because by Your cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Beloved Jesus, grant that on Easter we rise with You. May we arise once and for all in love and faith. Jesus bless us, help us, sanctify us, use us and grant us our needs now, today and always.

I came up here because the Lord Jesus wanted me to come for He is doing marvellous things with you and with me... My dear brothers and sisters, the message we have is not very beautiful, I have retained three points from it... I tell you who come up here, that I wish that we prepare ourselves because it is true that the meetings we are holding are of a great sacrifice and penance for us.

Make sure that you bring many people with you... for the coming meeting of May because we must pray hard even for Malta. Our Lady is sad for Malta... She told me some things, which we should appreciate. We should have a will of bronze for ourselves and for others, and friends, we should pray much to God almighty... This place is truly a place of penance... I tell you that we who come up here with a good will are truly atoning to the Lord, so that if something is about to happen, our prayers will prevent it from happening because God will have mercy on that which we are praying for. This disaster may happen even in our country you know, because the Lady of Life mentioned everywhere. Personally, I pray for everyone... I am not going to mention where they are making some ugly things by which they increase wars. Wars will increase because the representatives (heads) of nations pretend to speak about peace but they are not asking God for peace. That is why the Lord is grieved and He is getting angry at the world... The Lady of Life told me that if possible I should spread this message throughout the world... God the Father wants us to atone for the whole world right now, because many sins are rising before God. The Blessed Virgin is earnestly praying for us...”

Then the following message was read: “When on Saturday, March 25, 1995, I began to pray to Our Lady, I immediately saw her divine face and told her: ‘My dear

Mother Mary, you look so sad!’ She said: ‘My daughter, the world and Malta are obscuring me, they do not believe in me, they do not believe in the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. I have done so much for Malta; I prayed so much for Malta when in the past it was afflicted by illness. I did so much in the past, including the fact that the Lord permitted that I should meet you in this poor house in which I found who understands me, I found comfort. This message has made great progress and much good has been achieved even in your country.

I met you both here and in the valley of Girgenti. Tell them that Girgenti is truly the place of penance. Whoever goes up there knows it is a place of penance because one suffers greatly. Keep urging them to go up there and tell them that this prayer meeting is holy, pure, without ugly attachments to the world. Keep this meeting pure and holy as it is. Now that you have become so old, I wish that you lessen your work and all that has nothing to do with the conversion of souls.’

We should be cautious. Our Lady is incessantly interceding for Malta before the Lord God. Many ugly, evil and fearful things are ascending before God. Our Lady added: “Christ’s heart is shattered by the bad reception of Holy Communion. Then, there are others who do not believe in God, in hell, in Heaven and in me. God chose me to be the Mother of His Son, just as you were chosen that I might grant you this message. God chose me as the Mother of His Son because I kept my soul pure. I never imagined that I would be the chosen one of the Lord.

Notwithstanding, my daughter, you should know that great evil is coming forth against me from today’s world. Even in your country, they say that I am not the true Mother of God. Besides, others say that my Son is nothing while others say that He is only a prophet.”

I tell you that these are the words of my dear Mother Mary. We are living in 1995 but I warn you that up to the year 2000 the world will see many ugly things. We people of good will, let us be vigilant and pray so that no terrible and frightful things will happen in Malta and in the world.

Our Lady continued: “The world is given to vanity and emptiness, to darkness of souls. In material things people attend numerously while churches are empty. There will be trouble in everything even in these things.’ Our Lady then showed me mountains of people who were watching something, it looked like a football and told me: “Out of all those people you will perhaps find two who follow God. The rest have forgotten all about God. They grumble against God.”

Man has gone to the moon, he imagines that he would meet God almighty. Much money was spent for this purpose while many people are dying in the streets by hunger, poverty and illness. Many innocent people are being killed by wars, they are burnt by the flames of war.

My daughter I tell you that the time that will follow the period in which we are living will not be pleasant. It will not be lovely at all because the world does not believe in God, God has been removed from the midst. Jesus is being greatly disrespected in the Eucharist. These people never give a lovely look towards Heaven and say as you say: ‘Praised be God, Jesus of the Eucharist together with the Holy Spirit. You even mention me.’ In the world, there is much darkness, fear and errors by the representatives (heads) of states. Although they say that they want peace and unity, this is not true because none of them prays to God to grant them peace.

Therefore, I ask you and those who are of good will and pray with you to pray fervently: ‘O God the Father Almighty, we want to make the greatest penance so that You will bless us, forgive us and have mercy on us.’ We make another expiation for our country of Malta and its surroundings so that God will grant us again and strengthen the faith brought to us by our father, the apostle Saint Paul. We make the third penance for the leaders of all the nations of the world so that they strengthen their faith, they remove the darkness they have upon them and turn towards God the Father, towards His Son Jesus in Heaven and in the Eucharist and towards the Holy Spirit.

My brothers and sisters, let us heartily look at Heaven because it is alarming and shameful for us Maltese that the Lady of Life is so grieved for Malta due to our lack of faith. Not only do we not respect one another as brothers and sisters, but some people are atheists, they do not believe in God, they do not believe in anything. This is a great misfortune for us. This darkness and these sects are not good for Malta.

I ended by telling the Blessed Virgin: "My dear Mother Mary, pray to God for us Maltese and for the foreigners of the whole world. Pray for us to Heaven, to the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity so that they forgive our deeds because no one knows what one is doing. Who performs these things of darkness does not know what he is doing."

My brothers and sisters, Maltese and foreigners, do not think that Guza is worth anything. Guza is very ill. She is handicapped. I am too weak to talk and I am nothing. Nothingness is worth more than I am but God makes use of nothingness, He makes use of the nullity of Guza. May the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity be praised. Our Lady of Consecration lead us to our salvation.

Your sister in Christ
GUZA MIFSUD"

When Monsignor Buontempo and Rev. Fr. Nazzaren Tonna, had addressed the gathering, Guza continued: "I have retained three points from this message. They are not pleasant, you know. Three unpleasant things aimed at the world but I will not mention them or they will stone me. These things might also be near at hand.

Christ had no fear. He did not fear the nails and the crown of thorns. I am seventy two years old and neither do I want to fear the nails and the crown of thorns... When I asked the Blessed Virgin: "Our Lady, what is the matter with you today? You look different from usual." She replied: "My daughter, you see me with a shattered heart similar to when I followed along the road of Calvary with my son Jesus, because the world has ruined itself. The world no longer believes in God almighty and in my son Jesus who suffered along the road of Calvary to save humanity. This is why I am suffering." I replied: "Our Lady, pray for us so that Malta would for ever be at peace, united in the peace and love of God and of our neighbour and we will not have conflicts amongst us."

We should be careful, you know. I have not said anything and I will not say anything now. However, something might crop up from the excitement we now have among the people of Malta, just as is happening elsewhere. Well, I am not saying anything. I do not want to say anything. It seems as if the heat of the argument is, well I do not know. The Lady of Life told me to pray for my country and for everyone... We must pray and pray incessantly. It does not mean that we should continually hold the rosary beads in our hands, you know. All through the day, we can make the best meditation. Personally, I often say: Lord, You are so great, Lord, have mercy on souls, Lord, have mercy on sinners, Lord, have mercy on all the dying... Yesterday I felt so tired and at about 11.30pm I said: 'Jesus, I am not going to pray. I feel too weak to pray. Right now, I have no mind to pray. Instead, I will offer You the short rest I am taking in the armchair. I am in such pain!' Do you know what I saw all this? I saw that prayer descending on souls like silver. May Jesus Christ be praised today and always.'..."

The Way of the Cross and the priestly blessing ended this meeting.

MAY 1995

This prayer meeting which took place on the ninth anniversary from the erection of the statue of Our Lady at Girgenti, started with a pilgrimage from near the bridge at the end of the old road. During this pilgrimage, the faithful followed the Crucifix and the banner of Our Lady of Consecration. The rosary was recited and the sorrowful mysteries were meditated.

After thanking God and all in Heaven, Guza said: "This meeting of May 7 is on a par with the meeting during which we brought the Lady of Life up here... Someone told me to ask Our Lady to make some signs. I saw the signs in the sun. The sun is extremely beautiful and I saw other things, which you claim that you cannot see. Near it there was a rainbow about a yard and a half long... We do need the rainbow, my dear brothers and sisters! In the world including Malta, we need the rainbow of peace. Do not think that we can put our mind to rest... There are many things in Malta which do not please the Lord God of Hosts: blasphemy, hatred, slander..."

Beloved Virgin Mary, you are very close to God almighty and the Lord Jesus... However, due to the world, not the stones you know but the people of the world, the Lady of Life is not happy in Heaven when she sees so many things being committed before her eyes. Our Lady is pleased with us, with this beautiful meeting we are making... The Lord blesses us, the Lord helps us, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist sanctifies us and grant us all our needs especially spiritual needs that we may sanctify ourselves from this world... I tell you that suffering is a special gift before God, it is a treasure...

In this crowd, which the Lord is blessing right now, I understand that there are some persons who lack faith, they do not have proper belief. However, I have great courage to continue to strengthen my faith so that I give God's love and faith to these people and amongst us there would not exist hatred and conflict but there would inflame love and faith... There are many wars. I do not know the day when during this week the Lady of Life told me: "My daughter, look what there is in the world." I told her: "Have mercy and pray for the souls that are appearing before God." Multitudes of people are appearing before God almighty... Many people are dying with an evil will, they die saying that they do not recognise God..."

Later, Guza said that when she used to go up to Girgenti by walk, "I used to recite five decades of the rosary. From the bridge up to here, I used to say the Holy Way of the Cross. I used to see Jesus walking with me in this valley while I said the Way of the Cross. How great is God! Right now I can recall everything..."

Guza then asked Rev. Fr. Nazzaren to say two masses for the needs of benefactors who are alive and asked Monsignor Buontempo to say another two masses for the needs of those who have died.

The following message was then read: "I praise You, Lord Jesus, because there is none like You, like the Eternal Father, the Holy Spirit and the Lady of Life. Personally, I am using You greatly.

Today it is Wednesday, May 3, 1995. I call Wednesday the day of the Lady of Life. A short while ago I received Holy Communion and I prayed to Jesus as thanksgiving. I told Him something about Sunday, May 7, and asked Him what would become of me. He replied: "What would happen to you is similar to what happened in the past. Whenever you went up there, you always made use of what the Holy Spirit enlightens you, in that you speak about God the Eternal Father, and about me, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. You always praise me. Whenever you went up there, since you had the statue of My Mother, the Blessed Virgin erected, you always said the beautiful things which were delivered to you by My Mother through almighty God. Praise is always on your lips. You praised the Lord God, You greatly praise Me together with the Holy Spirit by means of the gifts He gives you both at your poor house and even when you go up to Girgenti. You now lack health, you lack courage, and you are full of solitude and melancholy. I know that you are abandoned by everyone. You are abandoned by the world. You lived so much in God's grace because you did not meet people. You were not only a hermit but you were deprived of everything. You only want to live with what you have at your poor house, with the meagre providence which descends from Heaven but you were always happy, you were always cheerful, at peace and in Heaven's grace. That is why you should be filled with courage for next Sunday, May 7.

I tell you that I will greatly help you. Notwithstanding, how much you thought this week that you were going to die, that you will not go up on Sunday, yet I tell you that you will go to Girgenti on Sunday and you will use your tongue successfully: you will praise Heaven, you will praise Me and the Father we have in Heaven. He is My Father, your Father and the Father of every created being there is in the world especially those of good will, because those of bad will cannot look at Heaven and say: 'Up there we have the Father who created us. We also have Jesus in Heaven and in the Eucharist, the same Jesus who redeemed us by His passion and death.' These people cannot say these words. Heartily and without fear, say that those who are distant from God cannot receive certain things. They cannot receive certain gifts. They can receive pardon and repentance if they ask God and Me for forgiveness, but they cannot receive certain things unless they are in the complete grace of the Three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity. If they say: 'We do not understand God, we do not see God, we do not understand the Lord Jesus and for us the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist means nothing', they will not receive perpetual graces, spiritual graces. Perpetual in the sense that they benefit from them during their lifetime and after their death.'

We must be exact with the Lord God, with the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist and the Holy Spirit so that He uses us by His gifts and grants us graces. Our Lady draws us close to the Eternal Father, close to Her Son, close to the Holy Spirit and all in Heaven. She intercedes for us before God almighty and before her son Jesus.

Therefore, today I tell you that this week I had lost all hope because I was very ill. I told the Lord that if my leg had to be amputated, it would be better if I die because I am used to work hard. Then I would not be able to continue my work. I acted badly when I said this to the Lord because I want God's will to be performed in me. When you accept God's will, you will be at peace, you will be serene, honest, clean, chaste, without evil memories. Alas, there are many people who sin against holy purity, they do not keep themselves at peace, they are of scandal to others and they force others to sin. God does not want this. Pray to the Lord Jesus, Our Lady and the Holy Spirit to keep you away from the evil things of the spirit of darkness who forces you to drive others towards the sin of indecency, the sin against Holy Purity. When we observe holy purity as willed by God, we are saints from this world because we do not have evil attractions, we do not have the attractions of the devil who tempts us so much by them and compels us to sin against holy purity.

Our Lady greatly observed holy purity throughout her life. When the angel appeared to her, she was confused because she greatly loved holy purity. And we, alas, there are many men, women and young people who oppose this will of God, they act against holy purity, they sin against it. In the morning, during my offering, I tell the Lord Jesus that I want to keep myself as chaste as possible, I want to keep my tongue clean. When I suffer injustices I do not want to hate anyone but rather to love and to pray hard for those who cause me these injustices, for those who hate me and for those who scorn me. They have not done me anything. Only the Lord God has performed great things with me by the help He gave me through the Lady of Life and Jesus of the Eucharist. Presently Jesus of the Eucharist is not only helping me during Holy Communion but even before Communion, He is granting me many lovely visions, immensely beautiful. You have no idea how kind Jesus of the Eucharist is. Jesus of the Eucharist is holy, holy, holy. I shall call Him holy for three times just as we say to God in the Te Deum. Let us not forget that the Lord Jesus is the living Son of God. He can help us tremendously. He can help us so much during Holy Communion.

That is why we should keep that place holy. Girgenti is a holy place. As Our Lady told me, the Lord chose it. It is the place of penance, the place where we pray properly, pure prayers, holy prayers, where we pray for everyone, for our brethren at home, for our brethren in our town or village or in our Malta, for our brethren worldwide, for everyone.

When I pray I say: ‘Lord God of Hosts have mercy on all creation, that is, have mercy on humanity, have mercy on the representatives (heads) of states.’ We must pray hard for the leaders of states, for those who harbour dark thoughts of waging some terrible war. That is what I fear because I am having many things on this matter. Not a war, which will pass in a few years, but one, which would cause much harm in a short time and many people will appear before the Lord God. That is what I fear...”

After this message, Guza placed some golden objects given to her by a benefactor on a small statue of Our Lady of Consecration. She said that this person told her that that gold had been in his family’s possession for about two hundred years. It consisted of a necklace, a wide bracelet, five pairs of earrings and other articles. She said that this benefactor had received many graces from Our Lady and wanted to make her a present.

Towards the end of this meeting, Guza highly insisted in favour of the dress requested by Our Lady. “Friends, make that dress... I did not invent it but Our Lady gave it to me. That dress is holy because Our Lady requested it. An honest dress... Whoever has that dress should wear it so that we show everyone that we are members of the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration...”

When Monsignor Buontempo and Rev. Fr. Nazzaren addressed the gathering, they blessed several statues of Our Lady and even blessed those present. It must be noted that during this meeting many people claimed that they saw changes in the sun.

A MESSAGE READ DURING THE DECEMBER 18, 1994, MEETING

With tears in my eyes, I tell you that I wish I came with you to recite the rosary of penance in this Valley of Girgenti, but I will unite myself with you by means of my sufferings.

We must pray hard for the world, we must pray earnestly for sinners, for those who are about to appear before God today and in the coming night, that is, we should pray for all the dying.

With my eyes full of tears I tell you once more that we must pray fervently for the needs of Malta and for the needs of the representatives (heads) of states, so that this darkness which is appearing everywhere will be removed. These representatives (heads) of states are always starting new wars rather than stopping the wars that they are already waging.

Therefore, both you and I, during this rosary let us pray to the baby Jesus who came forth to bring peace into the world. This divine child truly wants to grant peace to the world but there are many people who, instead of paying heed to this child, are neglecting it.

The Lord does not want these absurd luxuries. Our Lady did not have luxury. We should not spend Christmas in extravagance, pique and hatred but we should keep our heart pure. That is what the Lady of Life wants and that is what Jesus of the Eucharist told me tonight. For the Lord Jesus to reign in our hearts, He must find love, peace, simplicity and purity of heart and of soul. However, the Lord Jesus is finding these qualities present only in a few souls.

Jesus told me: 'If someone were to come in this environment he would fear to stay in the poverty and simplicity you have at your home, but there is where I find peace of heart. It is necessary that in the coming days people will keep their tongue clean, their heart and their intellect pure. They should renounce extra vanity, luxury and these unrestrained preparations.'

What the Lord wants in these days of Christmas are love and peace of heart.

A MESSAGE READ DURING THE JANUARY 22, 1995, MEETING

“During this period of time through which the world is passing, it is necessary to remember God almighty much more than we have done in the past, because in the past there weren't these troubles of darkness, of the spirit of hell. Man has become so cruel that he no longer thinks about God.

It takes long for the Lord to get angry at the world, at humanity, but we can see this darkness, hatred even in our country. It is not that the Lord wants to punish us because He loves us; in fact, He sent us His son Jesus. Then when we see the chastisement everyone will start teasing the Lord, everyone says: 'The Lord is punishing us, He is punishing the world.'

Instead of saying these things, it would be better if we ask ourselves: 'Who knows whether we are forcing the Hand of God's anger by our behaviour, by our sins?' The world knows much more than Guza what is taking place. I do not know these things from the media; I know them from the powerful Hand of the Lord of the Eucharist, the prince of peace of the whole world.

Last Saturday night, from midnight onwards I had a contact with Jesus of the Eucharist. I heard Him telling me to pray. I started praying for Russia, for Japan. Then during the night between Saturday and Sunday, I came to know something. I am praying hard for the representatives of all the states, including those of our country. I know that I had to pray hard because something terrible was to occur.

In the past, the Lady of Life used to tell me things about Iraq, about Kuwait and some other places. She had shown me a very ugly vision about Japan. This took place some ten or eleven years ago, much before the wars, etc. I only say that the things that I saw disgusted me, things that go against holy purity. I am not going to explain myself further. I only say that the Lord gets angry at these things.

In the past, I had sent a letter to the Chancellor of Germany, Kohl. I told him: 'The Lady of Life told me to send you a letter and tell you to do away with missiles and other weapons because Our Lady is worried about these things by which you kill your own brethren.' He answered my letter and told me: 'Your letter pleased me but I cannot completely fulfil all that you told me because if we are attacked we have to defend ourselves. However, in Germany, we are going to decrease our armaments.'

However, I tell you, when we sin against the Lord we should fear His deeds because these diseases, wars and earthquakes are not good signs.

When we sin against holy purity, against God, the Lord gets angry with us and we should all be careful, even in Malta. These are not lovely signs. Those who are engrossed with missiles, canons, at swords with one another, these do not understand God. Even those who some time ago wanted to kill the Pope are Godless.

I have known that in Japan there are many Buddhist priests for eleven years. These are not true priests; they do not understand God at all. The Lord is very patient with us but we should watch and pray so that no trouble would befall us. We should pray earnestly for the whole world. I am praying for the whole world, for the representatives of states who never mention God. That is why we mention God, so that He would give us peace in our country and we would be an example to all.

As I have already said, I have known these things about Japan for about eleven years. These things are so sinful. It is useless that we boast about beautiful and strong buildings because the Lord God's power extends even upon the rock.

I am not physically fit, I am ill but if the Blessed Virgin tells me to send a letter, this is what I will tell the representatives of states: 'Open your eyes, open your heart, remove the bitterness and the hatred which is gnawing at your heart. Offer your heart to God and tell Him 'Almighty God look upon us because we are very distant from You. We are cursed, we point swords and armaments towards one another so that no one else could exist.'

The world needs God's blessing and true peace. All pretend that they want peace and at the same time, everyone secretly undermines others with hatred. Let us all strive for the peace referred to by the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist.

Let us pray and increase our visits up here (at Girgenti) because God forbid something might crop up. In all humility, I must tell you that all that I have ever done, I only did it for the love of God and for no one else. Let us pray hard for the Maltese and for the world because the whole world is in need of prayer. I am very ill but the world is also ill by wars, by hatred.

I have never asked you to pray for me but right now, I am asking you to do so. I thought that by January 27, I would be dead, but I tell you that last Saturday the Lord Jesus told me: 'You will not be told the day of your death because your mind, your soul and your heart are all united to Heaven.' I told Him: 'I wish to know the time,' but He did not tell me.

My dear brethren priests, my dear brethren of the Committee, my beloved brothers and sisters of the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration, I am praying earnestly for this holy and lovely Movement of Our Lady of Consecration. The Lord is performing great things with me because I should not have remained alive with all these illnesses. We still have to greatly praise God together from that sanctuary of Girgenti and we still have to perform many lovely things.”

N.B. In a short speech which Guza made during this meeting she said that she had received many letters written by sad parents who told her: “Contact the Ecclesiastical Authorities so that they would help us in the bad time through which presently Malta is passing... These people are sorry that they have children whom they send to school and then after some time, these children tell their mothers that they are pregnant. This is why I came up here. The Lord is grieved that these things are happening in Malta... I cannot contact any authority. My authority is God almighty, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist and Our Lady...”

She continued to say that one of these mothers asked her daughter what she was going to do with the baby, whether she was going to abort, and “I phoned them up and told them: ‘Mind you do not abort the baby. Baptise the baby and let it live because the Lord does not want abortion.’ I tell you that up here I brought thirteen such letters but in all I have sixty-seven letters containing such problems.

A MESSAGE READ DURING THE FEBRUARY 19, 1995, MEETING

“I greatly desired to attend this meeting during which the rosary is recited but the Lord Jesus has somewhat doubled my burden. I thank Him for this.

I wished that I would start speaking to you about Lent and tell you that whoever can should make a sacrifice and deprive himself from the coming foolishness of carnival. Let us recall how much the Lord Jesus did for us. Jesus loves us dearly. Jesus accepts us as we are, but from our end, we should greatly remember the sufferings He endured for us from Pilate’s palace up to Calvary where He died the cruellest death on the cross.

I tell you without stammering, without any fantasy, that I know from the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist that in Malta many ugly things are emerging and appearing. The ugly things that are looming sorely grieve both the beloved Jesus and the Lady of Life.

We people of good will should be very careful. We should pray hard for the needs of Malta and Gozo. We should be on our guard about certain things which politicians want to bring about, so that if they have some evil design they will not introduce it in Malta because the Lord is not pleased by these things.

The Lord is not happy with the darkness there is in the world. He is neither pleased with our country because in the past we were more united to God and to our faith. We had more love amongst ourselves and we lived in peace and in serenity. I, Guza, your sister in Christ, tell you that presently not only Malta and the world are not passing through serene times, but there are some amongst us, our own brethren, about whom the Lord Jesus told me: ‘If they could they would crucify me again on the cross.’

Friends, I greatly desire that we strengthen our faith, our hope and our love towards Jesus and the Blessed Virgin. We should pray and be careful not to fall victims of the trouble that our own brethren are preparing for us by means of these dark things.

The Lord be with you. I promise that I will pray for you.

GUZA MIFSUD”

A MESSAGE READ DURING THE MARCH 19, 1995, PRAYER MEETING

This evening we came up here to praise God, Jesus of the Eucharist, the Holy Spirit, the Lady of Life and all in Heaven.

Let us remember that we are in a very difficult, ugly and evil time. God is sending much illness so that we suffer with Christ for our sins. We have much for which to suffer. Jesus underwent the passion for our salvation, to save our souls.

I, Guza, your sister, tell you that on Tuesday of this week, the 14th of March, while I was reciting the rosary, I met the Lady of Life. I cannot explain how much the beloved and kind Mother we have in Heaven looked vexed. She is vexed by the state of our soul, because of the ugly things we have in Malta. They sorely grieve our Lady.

Let us keep watch and pray because the whole world including Malta cannot continue in this manner. God almighty is exceedingly sorry for the world. Are we not ashamed to say that in Malta we do not know God and that we do not believe in Heaven and hell! As I could understand, Our Lady told me that there are scores of hundreds of people in Malta who do not believe in God.

Let us be vigilant and pray because something is going to befall the world. The Lord is patient but then He gets angry when He sees all the people who do not believe in Him. We no longer live alone in Malta; there are many foreigners who influence us in a negative way, they do not believe in anything. They do not even believe in God. How can you not believe in God when you look at the sky and see the creation? Many ugly things are ascending from Malta and the Blessed Virgin is praying for us before the Lord to have mercy on us. In Malta, we have many diabolical people of whom we should be cautious.

We are in Lent, let us pray and do penance as much as we can so that God's Hand will bless us. If we do not turn to God, as we should, He will not forgive us, He will not grant true peace to the world. True peace must come from God and not as understood by representatives (heads) of states who want to bring peace by missiles and massacres. Therefore, let us strengthen our faith and pray for the conversion of sinners so that God will bless us.

May the Holy Trinity be praised now and forever. Our Lady of Consecration, lead us to our salvation!

Your sister in Christ

A MESSAGE READ DURING THE APRIL 23, 1995, MEETING

I started recording this cassette on Saturday October 15, at 11.00p.m. Now Sunday October 16, 1994 is dawning and I am continuing this recording.

First, I tell you that some time ago, last week, I had a contact with Our Lady who told me... 'My daughter, much time has passed.' I understood this to mean that I am getting old and those in Authority have given me no opportunity, but she told me: 'I will give you the opportunity. If no authority has given you a chance, you will take this chance from Heaven. Say that I told you that up there besides a church, there must be a convent and the sisters of Our Lady of Consecration. Do not fear, take heart because I told you that I have always been and I will always be with you.'...

In the Holy Eucharist, Jesus is granting me many spiritual things and many other things that are crushing me. When I heard the Lord's words during this night, my heart was about to break by distress and I suffered from a severe headache. I felt as if I ran a hundred and four degrees temperature when I heard Jesus telling me: 'Speak out and do not fear anyone. I will be with you. I will send God's spirit upon you so that He will remind you all that I told you.'

As I could understand, Jesus is being disrespected in the Eucharist. Everyone is scorning Him. He is scorned in our country, a little further away and He is scorned throughout the world. He said: 'The world is following the spirit of darkness. Many people are descending into hell because they receive Holy Communion badly and because of other spiritual matters, which they perform incorrectly.' These things sorely grieve the Lord.

He said: 'My Father sent Me from Heaven to redeem everyone by the passion... When I entered the garden of olives, close to Gethsemani, I felt the sufferings that were drawing near. I prayed My Eternal Father to remove this suffering but My Father sent Me a messenger from Heaven, an angel. In his hands, he held a chalice full of bitterness. I knew that I had to drink that bitterness.' Jesus told me these things because I had told Him: 'Jesus I am weak, I wish that I will fulfil all that You are telling me but I do not have the strength to do so.'

Jesus replied: 'You will now undergo your harshest sufferings, just as I did. Do not lose heart, God's hand is with you. Some time ago, you heard that the time is ripe, but this does not mean that the time of your death has arrived. It is not yet the time to be told the hour of your death. The time is ripe to deliver the message about vocations among youngsters... because young people, both male and female, are today spending much time before the mass media.' I do not know what mass media means. They are spending much time before these things, television...

The Lord Jesus is sorely grieved by the world. He told me that the world is using Him in evil ways. For example, some distance away from us there was a strike. I do not know whether it was in Rome, however, He told me that before the strike began there was someone who began showing the crucifix to those before him. Jesus said: 'Behind the crucifix on which I suffered, there was only darkness... On that box, on television, many sins against holy purity are being committed. Right now, many innocent people are being killed by those whose heart is of steel. Their heart does not understand others. Why are they killing these innocent people to take their place?

Unfortunately, even in Malta you have people whose heart is of steel. I cannot ask you to pray more because you strive both during the day and at night. However, urge others and say, not only in your country, but everywhere that Jesus is being scorned in the great sacrament of Holy Communion by wicked hands that first commit evil things and then on Sunday, they go to receive the holy, blessed and immaculate Host as you say. I consider this contempt...

I greatly desire that you mention this with intense enthusiasm, with great courage. Do not fear because I will help you, I will help you abundantly. Today vocations have decreased severely.'

I was greatly confused, I wept bitterly, and I could not stay calm. I wept hard when I heard that Jesus, who performed so many marvellous things with us, is being disdained. He is being scorned by the world. We are again crucifying the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist; we are reinserting the nails in His hands and His feet. We are crowning Him with thorns and nailing Him to the cross. My dear brothers and sisters, friends, let us realise these things. Jesus does not want these things.

We should receive Holy Communion with a pure heart and with joy. We should not go with mortal sin because the Lord is grieved. He told me: 'The chalice before the Eternal Father in Heaven is full with the evil things that are ascending from the world. Tell your brothers and sisters, both of your country and foreigners, that they are abusing God's mercy.' Tell them: 'Those who are showing me contempt in these times, in 1994, will one day see Him who was despised in the past, who was crucified, buried and who rose from the dead after three days, coming upon a cloud. Then, those who will not be in the Lord's grace, will be in a state of great agitation when they see the Son of God incarnate, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, coming upon the clouds to judge the living and the dead.'...

Jesus continued telling me: 'Tell them that God's things and what was performed for us by the Lord Jesus along the road of Calvary, in the Eucharist and in this message are not to be taken lightly.' I told Him that I was unworthy, but Jesus replied: 'The Lord is utilising you and He is doing so because you are ill, because you are discarded and because no one knows you.' He said: 'Much good is being accomplished and not only in your country.' I replied: 'Dear Lord, in my country no one is paying attention to me. No authority is giving me heed. I am very sorry and that is why I am feeling discouraged.' He answered: 'No, do not lose heart, have courage and say what I am telling you because the chalice that there is in Heaven before the throne of the Eternal Father, My Father and your Father the Lord God, is full and is overflowing. I tell you once more to pray and to urge others to pray so that the holy and powerful hand of My Father in Heaven will not perform the things that the sins that are ascending before His throne are forcing it to do. Watch and pray because I am renewing My passion even though I am in the glory of My Eternal Father. I have done many things on earth so that I will never allow man to embark upon the roads of darkness, the roads of the spirit of darkness who is sending so many people to hell. Tell them that I am sorely grieved that I endured such a passion and notwithstanding many people are descending in hell.'

O Jesus, kind Jesus, I feel that I am getting somewhat tired, as if I am not solving the problems you are telling me. However, Jesus is telling me that I am fulfilling everything, 'because you are now passing from all the roads of Calvary through which I passed before you. You still have to endure some bitterness from the chalice that was destined for you on earth. The representatives (heads) of states are interfering with many things that are fundamental to humanity. At one moment they say something, in the next they say something else. They want peace but then they eliminate many innocent people to take their place. They do not ask Heaven's help for they have set Heaven aside. They have discarded what is good, the One who guides them.'

I do not know, I am not going to mention anything, not because I fear anyone for I have always said that I only fear God almighty and the Lord Jesus for all that He is telling me. The Lord Jesus told me: 'Right now, in this hour, many people are being killed. Many people are descending in hell. Only a few are ascending in Heaven: innocent children, good people. They want to eliminate good and glorify what is evil.'

He said: 'However, soon, soon...' I am not going to say anything, not because I fear the Lord Jesus, but because Lord Jesus, excuse me, but they will say that I am getting mentally ill and other similar things. Jesus is telling me that they even told Him that He is mentally deranged. I am not going to repeat the word I heard that He is that and the other.

Jesus said: 'Some time after they had condemned Me, killed Me and did all they wanted because that had been predestined for Me to endure by My Eternal Father, a thought came to their mind.' The Lord Jesus revealed this thought to me but I am not going to disclose it.

Jesus said: 'The world is ageing because of sin. The world is not understanding God, My Father and yours and of everyone else, who is in Heaven and who did so much by sending Me in the world to bring peace. I brought much peace. Many became saints. Many followed My example just as you are doing for the glory of the Father and My glory. Therefore, do not fear and do not feel sad by the thought that people will obscure you. Let them obscure you. Do not feel troubled that people are showing contempt towards you because after some time they will realise that they are obscuring and scorning themselves.'

He said: 'These signs are not trivial. The signs that My Mother Mary Most Holy gave you in the past, are like a flower that came on earth from God's glory. There is much need for this message. You are working so hard on this message that it seems to you that because of your illnesses and your burden, you have reached your end. However, you had asked the Eternal Father for this suffering so that you will suffer for the conversion of sinners and for those who oppose the divine Majesty of God, who oppose My will and My blessing, present in all the tabernacles of the world. Let them not think that Heaven is not aware of these things, of this evil: evil against holy purity, evil against humanity, wars, abuse of innocent people, of priests who are truly priests. There are some priests who are not appreciating the great sacrifices I am making in the tabernacles of the world by praying to the Eternal Father to send His blessing upon the world and to grant peace. My daughter, presently the world is truly passing through great catastrophes of evil.'

I do not know how to speak. I will pray the Lord Jesus so that He will continue to help me, to feel compassion for me, to give me His help, to give me His patience, to encourage me, to strengthen my soul and to give me the spirit of His love especially in the Holy Eucharist as He is already doing..."

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD
ON JANUARY 11, 1994

"Almighty Father, have mercy on us Maltese, Gozitans and even on those who are distant from our country. Today it is Tuesday, January 11, 1994. I was very ill during the night through which I have just emerged and I greatly prayed Jesus of the Eucharist to help me during the ending times of my life. However, I do not pray only for myself but I pray for everyone. I cannot leave out anybody because if I leave someone out, my conscience starts hurting me. In my poor words, I tell you, that as from early times I was dedicated to suffer and to pray for everyone.

I thank the Lord for the great help He has given me during these times when I feel deprived of the world; I feel that I have nothing to do with the world. I am concerned with Heaven. For me, God always came first. Now the world does not interest me at all, what interest me are spiritual matters... In the past I wished that the Lord would give me a vocation by which I would have nothing to do with the world, but recently I have come to know why the Lord has given me the grace to remain in the world even though I have avoided it...

I am going to say something from that which was revealed to me by the Lady of Life during this night. She told me: 'My daughter, in the past you told me that you have no schooling, that you are not capable of anything, but if you were to compile those holy and lovely speeches... permitted to you by the Lord God of Hosts and which I used to deliver to you by means of those visions, of those inspirations, you will see how much good was accomplished in that plot of land of Girgenti, you will see how many souls who were in evil contact with the spirit of darkness, found life there (at Girgenti) and through you. How many people came to your house, you were unwell, but you used to speak to them and patiently and calmly you gave them all that you desired for the benefit of their souls, spiritual wealth to draw close to God. You knew nothing about all this but the Lord knew about it, and, that is why I used to come and deliver these things to you. Your heart was wide open for the love of God, with the great faith which God gave you, with what I told you about heavenly things, spiritual things which were continued for you by the Lord of the Eucharist.'...

I drew away from the world so that the Blessed Virgin would take her standing even more, both at Girgenti, in our country of Malta and Gozo and throughout the whole world. Some representatives of states are so clever that they say that they are all-powerful and that no one else exists; they are leaving the Lord out of their hearts. These are not comely signs, neither for themselves, nor for the world and much more in view of all that the Lord has performed for us. The Lord has created many beautiful things for us so that we think about Him. Let us start from the smallest thing: a flower, a fruit, the world, the sea, the sky... Don't all these things remind us of the powerful Hand of God? God has always existed and will remain forever and ever... eternal. However, there are many people who are setting the Lord aside...

God willing, Lent will now loom before us... Think about that which God has performed for us when He sent us Christ our Saviour. The Lord Jesus did not loathe all that suffering in order to leave us the Holy Eucharist... We should always be ready to exercise what Christ taught us in the gospel about the love we should have amongst us... We should avoid certain things so that we would have much more peace in Malta, we would have more serenity and we would agree amongst us. Sometimes people come to my house and I tell them that after I speak to them about the love that Jesus of the Eucharist loves us, they should go and speak to a clergyman so that he would draw them closer to God... but they start telling me certain things which displease me. I tell them: 'We have good priests who are holy... The Lord created us so that everyone prays for someone, and no one should darken anyone else.'...

The Blessed Virgin is our beloved and blessed mother. The Provident Hand of God made her thus. Aren't we Maltese ashamed to say that we do not know the Blessed Virgin? We do not know Our Lady, our holy mother Mary? I tell you, you know, that the more devoted we are towards her, the more we love her, the more we respect her, the more we acknowledge her as our mother... greater is her pleasure in presenting us to the three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity... The Blessed Virgin loves even those who say that they do not know her, even those who blaspheme against her, even those who disrespect her, much more how much she loves us as members of the Movement of Our Lady of Consecration. Let us enlarge her Movement without delay... The Lady of Life wants every person, every family that there is in the world, all the families and all the homes, not only of Malta and Gozo but of the whole world to be consecrated to the sacred heart of the Lord Jesus and the immaculate heart of the Blessed Virgin. Our Lady is immaculate; Our Lady is very precious before God's eyes. That is why we should have recourse to her...

I will say something else. We say that science is blessed but the greatest science is God. God created science and if these scientists are being granted something, isn't it God who is giving it to them? If He willed otherwise, He would not have permitted that they come into the world, He would not have permitted that they go into depth to get to know something, which they are claiming that they are doing by themselves. They are saying that with or without the Lord the world is the same, what a heresy! True words of heresy, words by which we are truly committing a great sin before God... The powerful Hand of God has created every created thing...

We are children of the Blessed Virgin. We are so lucky that our elder brother is Jesus Christ who is so close to the Lord God, and we even find Him at all times in all the tabernacles of the world, including Malta. We should thank the Lord God for this... I tell you, I do not know whether I will succeed in seeing, but you will see what God wills and what God has predestined to be accomplished at Girgenti. Everything will be accomplished and all will be for the Maltese, the Gozitans and foreigners..."

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD ON APRIL 1, 1994

Today it is Friday, Good Friday, the first day of the month of April 1994. This evening I am too weak to take hold of my cassette recorder, however... I am only going to record a short passage in order to say some of the things, which were permitted to me by the suffering Jesus. I saw Jesus suffering terribly, this evening my heart was on the point of being crushed. In the vision, I saw like a huge arch of rock and they were placing Jesus in it. I was greatly impressed, I suffered greatly, and I cannot express myself as to how much I suffered and cried...

Today, I wanted to suffer greatly in atonement for the sins of sinners. I told Him: "Consider what You shall give me today so that I would approach some sinners towards You."... I prayed for the conversion of sinners, in atonement of my sins, for the needs of those people who have withdrawn from the love of God and who are reproaching Him with many evil things...

We adore You, O Jesus, and we bless You because by Your cross and by Your death You redeemed us. Jesus I love You, I love You Jesus. Grant that the whole world shall love You through the sufferings You endured for the whole of humanity. Especially give us peace in our islands of Malta and Gozo and remove the numerous things we have in Malta and which are hurting Your heart... There is much confusion among nations: it did not result that following Holy Week, Good Friday, peace came upon the world. The world is undergoing a great calvary...

Jesus, I thank You for all that You did with me and with my brethren by means of the suffering and death You endured for us... By that cruel death, You greatly comforted the good. Give perseverance to everyone; grant that by Your cruel death on the cross everyone will come to Your embrace... Lord Jesus make the world appreciate the sufferings and afflictions You endured for us along the roads of Calvary up to that mount where You prayed to the Lord God to forgive me, to forgive those who crucified You and the whole world.

I know from the kind Lord Jesus that there are many Maltese who are denying Christ: extremely ugly things, things of darkness, sects, things which do not conform at all with the gospel which the Lord Jesus taught us while He was on earth... The gospel of the Lord Jesus relates to the love we should have amongst us, for strife to end and to have peace amongst everybody... Jesus did not end His passion you know, Jesus is still being crucified on the cross with nails in His hands and the crown of thorns in His head, with nails in His feet, His breast pierced by a lance. He is suffering all this because of the whole of humanity: some are attracted by money, some are attracted towards evil passions which transgress holy purity, hatred, wars, alas, bodies which are going before God almighty...

We should start adjusting the world and ourselves, so that we would not continue to show disrespect towards Jesus who is present in all the tabernacles of the world. Jesus of the Eucharist is suffering terribly; He is being greatly humiliated... He is receiving many grave offences in this cruel mass (black mass). I have long been speaking against it... Besides all this all that blasphemy against the Eucharist... My dear brothers and sisters in the Lord, let us associate ourselves better in our love towards one another, let us love Jesus of the Eucharist more... When you receive Holy Communion have a heart warm with faith, a heart which will draw you closer towards the Lord Jesus and not that lack of enthusiasm... by which when you receive Holy Communion it is as if nothing has happened...

My dear brothers and sisters, I wish that you could understand me. I wish that you could help me in the great love I feel for the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, for the Lord Jesus who is suffering... During Holy Communion I greatly feel the Lord Jesus, I feel Him speaking to me, I feel that I must be very attentive in order to give Him some comfort, even though now I don't have the same opportunity I had before because my health is leaving me...

We should be careful because God forbid, the Lord will not have mercy on us through His Son Jesus and through the prayers which the Blessed Virgin is praying for the world... especially for Malta, because I now know how much lack of faith we have in Malta. Today I have come to know from the Lord Jesus how many people there are who have let their faith go astray... Let us take heart and strengthen our faith because if God forbid, there comes something from the Lord or from the world everyone would suffer you know, everyone suffers. I will stop here...

In the past, I had a vision of Jesus suffering in that valley where I used to meet the Lady of Life... Jesus taught me a great deal about His sufferings, He greatly taught me that I should suffer heartily, that I should suffer conscientiously, that I should suffer as a human being... We should have great love towards the holy sufferings of Christ, our Saviour. He made me very firm in all that He used to refer to me about the faith and for this, I thank the Lord God... Today I really felt these things. I feel that I must increase the devotion towards the Lord Jesus in the Eucharist and towards the suffering Christ. Jesus told me: "That statue I told you to make up there (at Girgenti), have it done without delay so that you would spread devotion towards Me."...

I know that in Heaven I have large columns of holy souls praying for our needs because we come up here with the greatest veneration, with the greatest sacrifice... I am praying to the Blessed Virgin to give us the grace to make further progress because we are still far behind. There is lack of enthusiasm within us. There is lack of enthusiasm in some members. We should have more courage, we should attend with faith, we should strengthen our love towards the Blessed Virgin... I greatly urge to increase membership in the Movement and I appeal to female members to wear that holy and blessed dress which was given to us by Our Lady. The Blessed Virgin greatly wants that dress in order to demonstrate that we belong to her and that we are modest women...

Let us love the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist, we should not let these things be ridiculed. These are things of God's love, things that should perform miracles in the world. We should get rid of sin so that trouble would not follow because sin is followed by trouble, by distress. Let us do away with the darkness of wars, of hatred because that was why God almighty sent His Son Jesus to undergo the passion and all that suffering...

We should prepare ourselves for those lovely acts of love we make on that hill of Girgenti where we go to pray in order to fulfil the will of Our Lady of Life. How much did the Lady of Life suffer with her Son Jesus along the roads of Calvary! How much should we respect the Blessed Virgin, how much should we love the Virgin Mary!... The Blessed Virgin was not afraid to declare her faith... During Lent we should reflect on the sufferings of Christ Our Saviour and on the sufferings of our beloved sorrowful Blessed Mother. The Virgin Mary was martyred. Then, after these valleys of tears and of suffering there follow great things in Heaven...

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD TO BE READ DURING THE APRIL 1994, PRAYER MEETING

I am going to record a short passage about the ugly situation through which the world is presently passing. The world is undergoing great and frightful problems... We proclaim peace and we say that it is drawing near, but there is no peace and we are not really getting close to peace at all... We claim that we work for peace and at the same time terrible wars are blazing, massacres of innocent people. How can the Blessed Virgin not feel grieved for all this? She is deeply sorry.

I have never seen the Virgin Mary as we see her depicted in the statues we find in churches, that is, either with her hands raised or looking up at Heaven. I have always seen her eyes full of tears and with a sorrowful look. See that holy painting there is in that poor room at Girgenti, in it the Blessed Virgin is one with her son Jesus, she is looking with sorrow, sadly, upon the kind-hearted child she has in her arms... When nowadays I see the Blessed Virgin she is breaking my heart, her look pierces your heart, she impresses you....

I tell you that the world has always been in crisis, since... the time of Adam and Eve. In Noah's time, God drowned the world because He could not take any longer the sins that were rising before His Divine Majesty... Now, I shall start speaking about the present time. We ended the birth of Jesus on the 25th December 1993 in disorder, we started the year, and we are continuing it in tragedy. If only you know how grieved the Blessed Virgin is for all these vandal acts committed on innocent people, massacred in mosques, in the churches of foreign lands. In these countries, there are some people who love the Blessed Virgin you know, although there are others who do not venerate her and do not respect her as they should, that is, as the mother of the Son of God. However, the Blessed Virgin is not grieved for this, she is grieved by the massacres of guiltless people, innocent people...

If we will not have great faith in God and in the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, peace will never be reached in the world. Do you know what we will have in the world? Darkness, trouble and difficulties. Peace is in the hands of the Lord God, in the hands of the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist and the Holy Spirit... If we do not heartily pray to God, with a great faith, a truly supernatural faith, wars will not decrease, wars will continue. If we remain thus, we shall move from darkness to greater darkness and we will not have light because we are leaving behind the greatest treasure given to us by God: the great faith and the great trust we should have in the Lord God, in Jesus of the Eucharist, the great mercy which the Blessed Virgin, the Lady of Life is using towards us...

The Lord Jesus referred so much for peace, He underwent such a cruel passion for us and He did not scorn the death He died for us on the cross. During Lent, I am more dead than alive... The Lord Jesus fills me so much with those spiritual gifts of His suffering and my heart aches because I love Jesus. I greatly desire that everyone loves Him as I do but Malta is not loving Jesus as it should. We even have some who are showing contempt towards the love of Christ in the Eucharist and for this the Lord is grieved, you know...

Let us watch and pray, let us make penitence for these people we have amongst us who are without God's blessings, who no longer believe in the baptism given to them by their mother in the past. They are in the list of the devil and therefore Malta is darkening as well. There are some things that I would like to say but I am going to keep them back. Let us be careful and pray and be vigilant because who knows how our death, the death of those who are still in the world will be, whether a fate similar to that of those people beyond Malta will befall us. We are not better off than the people beyond our shores... We are not acknowledging God as we should, therefore woe to us and to those who will come after us.

When the Blessed Virgin presented the Lord Jesus to Saint Simeon, he told her: "A sword will pierce your heart because of this child." Now the Blessed Virgin does not have just seven sorrows. I tell you that the Virgin Mary is not weeping simple tears but she is weeping tears of blood for the world. How grieved is the Blessed Mother for these valleys of darkness through which the world is passing right now...

In the litany of the Blessed Virgin, there are the loveliest titles... but this title of Our Lady of Consecration is so great. Our Lady consecrated, wants to give peace to the world. I wish that peace starts from Malta but this will not happen... If almighty God does not patiently and calmly have mercy on Malta and on the world, who knows how many uglier valleys than those we have will come to pass because if, God forbid, something explodes, I will not say that three quarters of the world... I won't say, I will not mention anything...

My dear brothers and sisters, Maltese and Gozitan, let us greatly love the Lord God of Hosts, let us love with all our heart and have great trust and love towards the Lord Jesus... We have much for which we should thank the Lord because the Lord God is very patient with us and takes long to get angry, but we should remember

Noah, when the Lord God told him: "Noah, Noah, build your ark well because punishment is at hand." My brothers and sisters, I only tell you that evil brings destruction with it, many sins bring about destruction...

Let us prepare ourselves to do good and not to sin. You know that in the past in Lourdes, in Fatima there was something. I tell you that I know some of the things, but I have not disclosed them and I will not disclose them unless the Lady of Life gives me permission to do so. There are many things that hurt us...

Now I will prepare you for that important prayer meeting which is to be held in the month of May... It should be held with great devotion, it should take place with much prayer and penance. We must atone not only for our country but we should make this penance for the whole world so that the Lord God will accept our prayers and God willing, we will not have trouble anywhere. This is what the Blessed Virgin wants, that we pray fervently to God so that if there is something in the world which is troubling Him, we will make reparation for it... I desire that crowds of people would attend. I desire the representatives of the Church, of Government and of the Opposition to attend so that we will take one another's hand in love. We will give a great witness of the love of the Maltese and Gozitans and peace for the world will start from Malta...

Let us prepare ourselves to make penance and to pray for everyone, for the whole world, for our representatives of Malta and Gozo, for the representatives of the Church, and even for the representatives of all the nations so that they rest their heart in God, they will be faithful towards God and will not proudly persist in saying that with or without the Lord they are doing well. The Lord does not want this. Therefore, let us fear these things because this attitude is a grave sin when one considers how much the Lord has done for the world and for humanity... When we say that we manage without the Lord, we commit a very serious sin. We cannot even take a breath without God's help and then we utter such heresies...

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD ON JUNE 21, 1994

"Today it is Tuesday 21st June 1994. It was a lovely day for me but I know that much trouble occurred during last night. I know this from the Lord Jesus when this morning I confided in Him after Holy Communion. He told me that I need to strengthen myself further in prayer, that I must urge others to pray more and to make them more prudent in the love of God the Eternal Father who is in Heaven and who has done so much for us on earth when He sent us our Saviour...

Last Sunday we went up to Girgenti and recited the rosary in that place. Only few people were present but as I could understand it was a living rosary, a rosary of sacrifice. However, there are people who say: 'You can say the rosary at home, why do you bother to go to Girgenti?' It does not matter that they make us these injustices.

In this holy and blessed day, I feel that my heart cannot not be filled with all the happiness and joy brought to me by the Lord Jesus... Today the Lord Jesus permitted that I meet some holy souls who are in Heaven and they have encouraged me greatly. I met one of them at about a few minutes to three in the morning. The spirit of this holy soul told me: 'What you did with me, what you performed and what you are doing, do not fear anyone because when you used to come and confide in me, I used to tell you that the Lord is greatly pleased with you.' Then, I tell you, that the Lord Jesus told me many things. He said: 'Do not fear to say the truth about what you are suffering, the injustices they are causing you. Do not fear anyone, have courage, do not lose heart.'

My brothers and sisters in the Lord, I tell you that I have long been dead for the world but for the Lord God I am alive every second, and I am having great courage which is being permitted me by the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist...

Today was a great day, of suffering, but as from early times I had asked the Lord to use me in an unpleasant way and to have mercy on sinners. This was fulfilled and it is being fulfilled, but I am so happy. Today Jesus of the Eucharist told me once more: 'Do not fear to say that you saw the Eucharist up there because I permitted that you see the Eucharist and others saw signs in the sky. Some did see the signs in the sky and those who say that they never met the Blessed Virgin and who say that they never saw such things, do not let them worry you, with your heart wide open say that I am telling you these things. Do not fear; do not worry about those who are doing you injustices. Last Sunday you spoke well, because I was near you and I heard all that you said... The Lord allows these things to whom He wants and pleases and as you say, the Lord makes much more use of the unworthy and the unschooled rather than of the learned.' I am not going to speak further so that they will not say that I am pulling someone's legs...

I do not want to mention anything. I want to humble myself in my nothingness. I am worth less than nothingness but today I met the beloved Virgin Mary. How pretty was the Blessed Virgin today. With tears in my eyes, I tell you that she was very lovely. She told me: 'My daughter, have courage as I have always instilled in you in the past and in the present.' When I saw the Lady of Life, I wished that I open the door and call some neighbour to see whether he would see something, but the Blessed Virgin told me: 'There is no need because only you will see me.'

Now I shall continue to say something about that phenomenon which the Lord permitted, that once, twice I saw the Eucharist up there (at Girgenti) and I told those present: 'The Eucharist will be with us, the Lord Jesus is seeing us, the Lord Jesus will be with us.' And now the Lord Jesus told me: 'What you had just told them that, 'even up here there is Jesus of the Eucharist,' as it was the feast of Corpus Christi... had long been known to you because I had told you on Saturday that something was to take place up there. Let them tell you as much as they want that they have never seen anything and therefore make you suffer injustices. You spoke well when you told them that even to Jesus they said: 'You don't come from God.' Now you are suffering terribly from illness and you are suffering greatly by these injustices but do not let them trouble you. Speak at length about the message I gave you today Tuesday 21st June 1994 to those who are helping you.'

Today was a very important day, I want to keep a record of it for all the years, but when I asked Jesus whether I had reached my end, He said: 'I will not show you your end, keep working, keep strengthening the faith which God gave you, keep on being bold in your words... You are making such a lovely use of your illnesses because you are offering them for the needs of those who have withdrawn from My love in the Eucharist, from the love of Your and My Father and those who are causing you injustices are making you merit.'

Jesus went on telling me: 'They should not abuse these things. In the past, I made use of Sister Margaret Alacoque whom I also asked to speak about the Eucharist.' Believe me that I am bursting with the love I have towards Jesus of the Eucharist, I feel that my heart is a burning flame like His. I wish I will be consumed and die but this is the Lord's concern... I feel this great love which is bursting my heart every second of the day. I cannot explain, no one can explain the divine things of Heaven...

I have already told you that I met the Queen of Heaven. Today I saw her as I had seen her at Girgenti on that tree clothed with the sun; her face was beyond description... I saw her at 3.45... It was a very happy day. Not even if you win millions and millions of pounds can you be as happy as when you are given that little happiness which the Lord God who is in Heaven can give you. Only the Lord God can make you happy with all that issues from the Eucharist and from Heaven. The world cannot make anyone happy, everyone on earth is in despair, both those who have money and those who don't, those who are learned and those who are unschooled... As I could understand from the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, there are only a few happy souls in the world right now.

Only a few understand Heaven. It is of no use that we boast and say: 'We have never seen anything.' If you do not have proper faith in God... even the priest who consecrates the Host on the altar, how can he understand Christ if in his heart he does not give regard to these things? Well, I will not say anything... The Lady of Life will continue to give us all that we need both spiritual and temporal.

Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, merciful and benevolent Jesus of the Eucharist You are so kind, You are our elder brother who must present us before the Eternal Father... I praise You Lord for there is none like You; I praise You Lord Jesus for all that You are doing with me. Holy Spirit I call You every minute, every second of the day and of the night. Beloved Virgin Mary, you are so merciful and holy. Blessed Mother you are so great in the eyes of Almighty God.

Let him who wants to cause me many injustices do so, but for the love of God, of the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, together with the Holy Spirit and the Blessed Virgin increase your faith in God so that we will not have any more hatred and strife and we will not have any trouble from Heaven... There are things of which I am aware, but I will not tell anyone about them so that God's will be done, there are things of darkness which are emerging... You are aware of what is happening in the world, let us pray fervently so that the Lord will have mercy on us..."

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD ON JUNE 24, 1994 (PART ONE)

"Today it is Friday, the 24th day of June 1994. I tell you that this day is very important for me... this day is very dear to me... Today I had a vision of the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, it occurred at an early time; I had not yet received the Eucharist... I say that what almighty God is permitting me with regards to His Son Jesus of the Eucharist is now... being permitted even when I still have not yet received Jesus within me. Jesus of the Eucharist acts as He wills and as He pleases with those great things granted to Him by the Eternal Father...

Today I had a very, very great vision about Jesus of the Eucharist. It had nothing to do with material and earthly things because this vision was from Heaven. In this vision Heaven opened, I saw Jesus of the Eucharist and many lovely angels with incense in their hands adoring Him. See what a great love we should have towards the Eucharist.

I saw a multitude, thousands of angels who were prostrate adoring Jesus of the Eucharist. I cannot explain their clothing. Some wore white, some were clothed in a very lovely green colour, some wore a lovely light blue, some wore light pink, they were divine youths.

I tell you that the worn out stones I have in my house were transformed into extremely lovely things. During the vision, I do not see the stones worn out, they shine, I have light everywhere, and I have brightness everywhere. Tonight I saw many rays of light everywhere, lovely rays of silver descending from Heaven. Today the Eucharist was special, I saw the Eucharist nearly as when I see it at Girgenti, or rather I saw it more lovely than when I see it at Girgenti because today I saw many divine youths from God's holy city giving proper adoration to the Eucharist: they had incense in their hands, they stood on their knees and with their head lowered, with their divine body, adoring Jesus of the Eucharist...

I cannot tell you the things that I experienced today during this vision... With all the happiness I felt, with all that I saw and with all that I heard I felt fainting. Not a fainting fit that made it necessary to call the doctor but to call upon the Lord Jesus to keep on preparing me for all that I had to come upon me. I do not know what the Lord God would permit that I experience by means of His Son Jesus of the Eucharist. Today I want to prepare you as well, let us always be very prepared... If some day I will go up again to Girgenti, I do not know what the Lord God, the Lord Jesus will make me face.

Right now I do not feel well, I just had a fainting fit and I wouldn't be speaking if it weren't for the help given to me by the Lord God, the Lord Jesus, the Holy Spirit and the spirit of the Blessed Virgin and all the saints of Heaven. This month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus of the Eucharist was truly very great. I do not know how I am going to explain the greatness of almighty God, the greatness of the infinite mercy of the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist.

Dear Lord, increase my faith abundantly, increase the contacts I am having from Heaven so that I will be able to communicate them to my brothers and sisters, those who are of good-will and even those who are of bad-will, so that those who are of good-will will get to know Jesus of the Eucharist very closely. This week was really great because on Tuesday I had some contacts with certain holy souls who used to help me in the past. These holy souls increased my love towards Jesus of the Eucharist. They were the Rev. Fr. George Preca and Rev. Fr. George Mercieca who used to come and hear our confession at Siggiewi in order to draw towards Jesus of the Eucharist those who perhaps were withdrawn from the Lord. They used to speak to me greatly about Jesus of the Eucharist but good Heavens, they did not experience these great things that I am seeing.

Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, I am consuming myself in You, and I don't know how I am going to find peace of mind and speech and praise if You won't help me Lord, but You are helping me.

The next day, Wednesday, many people came to my house, some were foreigners but others were Maltese. Some were holy but even unspiritual people visited me. When I mentioned the Eucharist to these foreign men, they greatly feared Jesus of the Eucharist. They said: 'Do not mention Jesus of the Eucharist because we feel the creeps.' I told them: 'Aren't you ashamed, you Maltese feel the creeps if I speak to you about Jesus of the Eucharist.'... One of them told me that once when together with his family he was on his way to hear mass, he met another man, a Maltese too, and the latter asked him: 'Where are you going this morning?'... He replied: 'This morning, my wife is forcing me to go to confession. I have not gone to confession for a long time. She wants me to go to confession and to receive Holy Communion.' The other replied: 'Mind you, do not go to receive Holy Communion because if you do,' I do not want to say it, I do not want to continue because he used a very ugly word. Jesus is suffering so much!

This week I heard so many things from people who speak against the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist: heresies, beastly things, dark things you know! The Lord Jesus is permitting me these things so that... I become holier because I am wanting since I always tell you that I am worth less than nothing. I will not tell you the ugly things that I am hearing about Jesus of the Eucharist from these foreigners. They are Maltese you know, they live abroad but they are Maltese, our brothers and sisters. I tell you that they have become like beasts. Some of them became like beasts. That is why we people of good will must pray fervently to atone for the sufferings Jesus of the Eucharist is enduring by the many ugly titles they are giving Him.

How great is God who is keeping the world standing. How blessed and great is God in tolerating these poisonous tongues, the darkness being cast by the macabre devil, these malignant tongues.

I repeat that I really could not bear the vision that I had this morning, it was so beautiful, those angels incensing the Eucharist, and then from these savage people on earth He is receiving these things. I tell you that during the night and during the day I ask the Lord God of Hosts and the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist forgiveness for the whole world and for Malta. I ask Jesus to pray for us to His and our Eternal Father in order to have mercy on the world because many grave sins, from the whole world and even from Malta, are ascending to Heaven.

We people of good will, let us prepare ourselves. I earnestly prepare the members of the Committee... I tell them not to lose heart. God is with us, once God is with us we have everything. I also tell the members of the Movement to increase the membership. Let us abundantly ask upon us the help of God almighty and of the Lord Jesus. The Lord has performed and is performing many things with us up there (at Girgenti)... Let us remember the greatness of the Lord God of Hosts and of His holy and blessed Son Jesus when He was on earth and before taking the passion, He bequeathed us the Eucharist: He bequeathed us Himself, the blessed Host, the divine Host, the immaculate Host. In the Host, there is God's divinity because Jesus of the Eucharist is the second divine person of the Holy Trinity. Consider what immense greatness there is in the divine Host!"

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD ON JUNE 24, 1994 (PART TWO)

"I feel my heart full of joy notwithstanding that I am burdened with the cross given to me by the Lord. May the illnesses I have be blessed. Let me say something about those souls who say that they are with God, of God. They must be reliable, bold, willing to work for the Lord and they should not yield to what someone else might tell them. They should sanctify themselves with what was granted to them by the Lord and not be attracted by any worldly current, in order that they would have more of the Lord Jesus's help and He will make them ministers of God, of the Church, true shepherds of souls.

I will stop here because it is better if I suffer the injustices, however, I tell those who are saying that Guza is insane and that she must take some treatment to be careful lest what they are saying should be taken by Guza is taken by themselves. I tell you that Guza's insanity is her love for Jesus of the Eucharist.

I will again mention that man who came to my house on Friday 24th June 1994. He told me: 'Let me tell you how I start swearing.' I replied: 'Aren't you ashamed, savage, fool...' He said: 'Yes, call me all names, I will accept everything because you are right. I did not deserve to come here today with these people and enter this house because you have great things in this house. In here you have divine things because I don't know how I am feeling, I am not feeling well.' He said: 'In here I am frightened because there is something.' I looked at his eyes and his eyes did not please me, his eyes were in darkness and when he told me: 'I am afraid of this house because there is something within it, there is something divine, there is something alive' I replied, 'In here there is all that is willed by the Lord God. In here I have the past contacts and visions of Our Lady of Consecration and now all is being continued by the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. I just tell you that the Lord Jesus has been giving me things since when I received my first Holy Communion. These were then continued by holy souls.'

I have already mentioned Rev. Fr. George Preca to you. I also had Fr. George Mercieca whom I used to assist and serve in all his needs. When he came to Siggiewi to hear confession I used to cook for him. At that time he used to tell me: 'I need some flannel undervests because I wear them even in Summer. Have them sewn with a sleeve-band and they must reach the palm of my hand.' I sewed them with the sleeve-band so that he would wear them under the cassock. He used to come to Siggiewi to hear confession in the months of June, July and August wearing those cassocks of the past. Sometimes he even went up to my family's farm. I remember that once he went to the farm in order to speak to my mother. He told her: 'Leave Guza in her liberty because Guza wants to serve the Lord.' She replied: 'I have always left Guza free about the things relating to God's service. I am slightly angry with her on Sundays because she goes to other people's homes to make the act of Consecration and takes long to return. That is what we argue about.' That is what she had told Fr. Gorg Mercieca.

He performed so much good at Dingli and Siggiewi that the Archbishop Gonzi wanted to make him parish priest of Dingli, but I told him: 'You have so much things to do, do not consider becoming a parish priest. You are doing twice the work of a parish priest.' Now I know that he used to assist many people in the sacrament of confession but only a few of those who are still alive think about him.

Now I shall continue to speak about what was said to me by that man whom I mentioned before. From his eyes, I understood that he was not a righteous person and I told him: 'For certain this house does not please you. This is where the Lord looked and the place the Lady of Life used to visit.'

He replied: 'If it weren't for this reason I would have spoken to you further about the spirit of darkness.' I said: 'No, my brother, leave quietly. I promise you that I will pray for you so that during the time you have left before you leave Malta, both you and even those who came with you will approach a priest and be converted, you will leave the past and start a new life so that the Lord Jesus will embrace you in love because Jesus does not want the death of the sinner but that he lives a long, calm and peaceful life and be converted. My dear brother in the Lord, that is what you should do. Be converted, do not remain in darkness because it appears that you are not in God's grace.'

He said: 'From the start I told you that I am not in God's grace. I do not know how to pray, I am not spiritual, and I do not know anything about Heaven. I was baptised in Malta by my mother, then I almost escaped from Malta and I don't know how I have set up a family because my family too was set up by evil means.'

When these Godless people come to my house, they feel God's presence. Another one told me: 'As soon as I stepped on your door step I felt that this is God's house.' I asked: 'What?' He said: 'I do not know how to pray, I do not know anything. If you give me the opportunity I will come to your house so that you will give me some teaching because I would like to be converted.'

I think that he is close to conversion because I received some letters of his and he told me: 'Guza, I thank you for the lovely and holy words you told me when once, twice I came to your house. I think that I am going to receive absolution and leave this darkness, of the spirit of darkness as you told me, with which I am associated, and truly unite with the Catholic Church because I had abandoned the Catholic Church.'

I will not tell you what the world is going through. God is keeping the world alive but we should not be astonished if, because of the sufferings His Son Jesus is enduring in the Eucharist, the Lord God of Hosts sends some big earthquake and destroys the world. We should mind these harsh words. By this hideous blasphemy against the Eucharist, they are sinning against the Holy Spirit, against the three persons of the Holy Trinity."

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD ON JULY 2, 1994

"Friends, I am fully certain that the Lord Jesus died on the cross for me to redeem my soul and grant me my place in Heaven. For this, I thank my kind Jesus... I thank You Lord Jesus for all that You are affording me in this holy and great morning, for these enormous graces You are giving me, because I know that my health is going from bad to worse, but I feel happy. I feel that I am at the edge of death but I feel happy. Jesus, I feel that I should greatly thank you for all this.

I am saying these things on Saturday 2nd July; it is still very early. Yesterday, Friday 1st July, I was intensely united to almighty God, with God's will, with Jesus of the Eucharist, with the Holy Spirit together with the Blessed Virgin. Yesterday I had much for which to cry and I wept bitterly because it was a remarkable day with regards to my health.

I have long been ill, not trivial illness, illness which affect my bones... everywhere hurts me: my hands, my legs, my back, everywhere. My illnesses kept on increasing and I also increased my work relating to the message desired by the Blessed Virgin. Woe to those who do not take these things seriously, because I have received these things from the Lord's Hands, from the hands of the Blessed Mother... and I have acted as willed by the Holy Mother.

We should live a perfect life, a good life, a sinless life, we should have scruples if we are not in speaking terms with someone, and we should keep our eyes wide open not to offend anyone. Woe to us that things like theft and ill treatment of others occur in these times, in 1994. With what authority does he go and steal the money for which that other person has worked so hard. Does he think that God is not seeing him? God is seeing him, God is observing him in all that he does, and if that money is not returned from where it came, he will start suffering from this world.

Today everyone knows us in Malta. People visit us from everywhere. It does not matter, may they do good. If they do not do good let us as true Christians, as people who love God and the Eucharist, give them a good example and not a bad example.

I now want to thank and praise the three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit together with the Blessed Virgin and the angels and all the saints of Heaven and earth for all the marvellous graces they are granting me.

Tonight I spent a very splendid night, it was truly great. I spent it thinking about the Lord in Heaven, about His pains and sufferings to prepare a place for me in Paradise... Now, in this exact moment I am also suffering from anaemia. I told the doctor: 'Do not touch my feet because in that foot and in this hand I have the wounds. I have the wounds of Christ everywhere.'

He replied: 'You have much and much pain and you have the wounds of Christ. Do you know what you have left? Your only protection is this thin skin. You are in great pain, you are suffering from inflammation, your veins are entwined.'

However, notwithstanding all this I feel very happy. I tell you that I am happy because I feel the love of Jesus of the Eucharist. Friends, we should be very exact in our illnesses, we should be patient with all that God sends us. The more patient we are in our illnesses, the more will God assist us and give us much help... Tonight, I spent a marvellous night. I have never spent such a splendid night because the Lord God showed me many things, He showed me many spiritual faces: my guardian angel who helps me so much. The Lord gave me the grace to see this youth, this servant of the Lord.

Be careful, be careful, so that we would take care of and give a good example to these youths we have with us, these guardian angels. If only you know how many things did this messenger of God show to me. I saw this guardian angel extremely beautiful and happy. He told me so many lovely things that befell me. I am telling you this for the greatest glory of God.

I told him: 'I am not aware that I did anything good, on the contrary I think that I performed many things that perhaps did not please the Lord.' He replied: 'For those things which you prayed to the Lord to give a lovely life to others and to give an obscure life to you, the Lord has granted you great graces...'

I desire to encourage the members of the Committee, of the Movement, our Movement of Our Lady of Consecration. Do not think that this Movement will come to an end you know, presently no one is helping us but as soon as I will pass away, many will help you.

I promised you from the beginning that I would pray for everyone, for my enemies, for my friends, for those whom I want to unite with God. Tonight I was told that I had many smiling people near me, they were wiping tears and when I asked this messenger why I was seeing these things, he replied: 'You performed much good in their life, with your sufferings and with your good example you united them to God. That is why they are smiling at you and their eyes are full of tears.'

I greeted them as I could because I spent this night in great solitude, abandoned from the world, as if I am in my house deprived of everything, as if I am enjoying the pain I am suffering and the thought that I want to sanctify others, in that I don't want the pain that I am suffering to be useless. By that pain, by those instruments of pain which I have I want to take hold of souls, of sinners, souls who are distant from God and embrace them with God.

He told me to take courage and filled me with hope. He said: 'Notwithstanding that you are in this position, yet, now that is what your intention should be.' My task should now consist in prayer and contemplating Heaven. Therefore, as from now I tell you that since I pray for everyone those telephone calls are no longer necessary. It comes from God that I must pray for everyone and remember everyone. I think much about the Maltese, the Gozitans, and all my foreign brethren especially those who persist in mortal sin, so that they would rise again in their lives and in their thoughts and they would take great courage to unite themselves in peace with God: these people have such a bad conduct, they lived so distant from God, in mortal sin, poor souls. That is what I am now praying for...

Lord, Lord, let no one perish and go to Hell. I am praying fervently for those who gave me no opportunity, for those who because of their lack of faith are so indifferent, whoever they might be, they might be priests. If there isn't a strong faith, if there isn't true love, a holy spiritual life in that they think about God, the Lord Jesus, then they live in indifference..."

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD IN SEPTEMBER 1994

"God the Father, I thank You for the great help You are giving me... Right now, I have a very strong faith because I tell you that before me I have the gaze of the Lord Jesus, His divine face. I am not afraid to tell you what great power, what great courage, what great hope that is being instilled in me by the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist Himself I have in my heart... I feel great peace when I receive Holy Communion and I greatly hear the Lord Jesus addressing me with many holy and spiritual words.

In the past when I erected the statue of the Blessed Virgin at Girgenti, I immediately started praying for peace in Malta both among the representatives (authorities) of the Church... and even those in politics. I used to tell them that Our Lady does not want us in Malta, to have trouble and hatred amongst us. Our Lady wants us all, of both sides, to strive for peace. I always spoke in this sense.

I have prayed so much for everyone; I have addressed the Lord God of Hosts, the Lord Jesus in everyone. I had told you that the Lord does not mind that or the other because we are all brothers and sisters. We should all strive to increase the glory of God, of the beloved Blessed Mother.

I am doing God's will, I am patiently carrying the burden that was placed upon me, I am bearing everything quietly, and I am bearing everything with prudence. I am fervently praying for Malta and for the world as willed by God the Father, as willed by the Lord Jesus.

I contacted many people through letters. I do not know how to write but the Lord God used to send me people at my house that knew how to write. In the past I prayed for Cherenenko, for Andropov... I spent a night on my knees for his needs. There are some people who know all about this and in the morning when they asked me: 'Guza, do you know who died?' I replied: 'Andropov, the Blessed Virgin often told me to pray for him.' No, I am not afraid to speak out. I am praying fervently for Malta, for Gozo, although their representatives are not in my favour, but it does not matter. I am not doing this for the Bishops, I am not doing all this for anyone, I am doing it for the greatest glory of God, to give glory to God. I have every right to praise God, I have every right to direct the message which the Lord God willed that it should reach me, as what brought to me by Our Lady and as is being continued for me by the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist.

I state all this with a bold face, without fear, without stammering, without muttering. Those who speak against me should be slightly careful because I think that they are doing more harm to themselves rather than harming me because Guza used to praise the Lord and she will continue to praise the Lord. I will keep on doing all that is being addressed to me by Our Lady together with the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. During the time God leaves me in the world I will not fear anyone. Heaven is aware of all that I am going through...

I have now been ordered to speak about what almighty God has performed with me, the great help He gave me through the Lady of Life. I must also speak about all that the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist is presently doing with me.

Whenever I am up here, I do not study... what I am to say or write. I say all that the Blessed Virgin gives me. I feel the words coming from the Holy Mother upon me and I feel the Holy Spirit with His gifts, with the faith with which He is helping me, His help in order to speak with greater courage about God almighty, about God the Father, the Lord God of Hosts.

The devil troubles me a great deal, I see him, I saw him in the past, I still see him and he tells me many things, such as: 'But you are ill.' I reply: 'I am ill and I am happy that I am ill. Do not ever think, you spirit of darkness, that I am distressed because of my illnesses. Leave me alone. I am ill and by my illnesses I am doing many things which in my conscience I feel that I should do, because I offer my illnesses in atonement for my sins and for the needs of sinners, both Maltese and foreigners.'

I am very satisfied, I am very happy, notwithstanding that the Maltese and Gozitans are saying: 'Guza has now retired in her house, Guza has abandoned us, Guza left us, she does not open her door to anyone.' It is true because I tell the Lord Jesus: 'Keep on giving me just a little energy to fulfil my duties.' If it weren't for the Lord Jesus, I would have long found myself set aside in some place because my house is empty, I do not have anyone, I have no one who helps me, not even spiritually...

I do not have anything. I am abandoned even by priests, but it does not matter you know, because the Lord Jesus visits me whenever He wants. No one can do Jesus anything, no one can tell Him: 'Don't go near Guza.' I am seeing Jesus at many times during the night, I do not fear telling you these things. Whoever says that I am lying would be lying himself because I am very sincere, I am very exact in all that the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist is doing with me, in the help He gives me. He is helping me immensely, you know. I suffer from the meditations I make about the passion of Christ not only during Lent but for me Lent is everyday because I meditate almost daily on Christ...

Let us meditate, let us think about the passion of Christ, we cannot go to Heaven our homeland without meditating how much Christ suffered for man to give him his place in Heaven, how much the Lord Jesus did for us in order to redeem us.

We have so many for whom to suffer in Malta; we have so much trouble and confusion. We have so much strife among families. We people of good will should pray for them so that they come to terms. Let us pray for those from our island of Malta who have denied their faith, let us pray the Lord Jesus for them. Whoever receives Holy Communion should pray to Jesus of the Eucharist to grant him faith, to grant him light, to give him strength of heart to pray for his Maltese brethren who have set faith aside. Some people visited me at my house after they had gone near the statue of Our Lady. Previously I had not opened the door for them as I was ill. They told me that they felt that before they leave Malta they must approach Jesus of the Eucharist through the sacraments.

This is very encouraging to me, that is what I want, I am not troubled by those in authority. Do you know who is my greatest authority? The Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. I do not heed anyone in the world, I only heed God, I heed Heaven...

I tell you that we greatly need to pray for our Maltese brethren, even those who live in Malta, those who are leading a bad life, against faith and against holy purity, they do whatever they want. This is not right. We should even pray for those who live abroad, we should pray for everyone, for all sinners, for those who are suffering in by wars, for those who suffer lack of love, lack of peace. I desire that all the Authorities, of the Church, of Government and of the Opposition would not continue to set this message aside because they are acting badly...

I will continue to praise God, I will continue to praise the Lord Jesus, the Holy Spirit together with the Blessed Virgin and the angels and saints of Heaven and earth because I have many saints in Heaven who are praying for me, for the Committee, for the Movement, for the Maltese and the Gozitans and for the whole world...

What I am doing is solely for God almighty and for the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. I will keep striving, I am weak but for as long as I can, I will continue to work hard. That is what today I promised Jesus when I met Him in Holy Communion, that I would keep on working hard. Jesus told me: 'Take things more quietly, patiently and more calmly because I will soon take hold of this message which has been suffering for a long time. When I take it in My hands, it will not suffer any more. You suffered as much as I did when I was on earth because that is why I came into the world and that is why the Lord brought you in the world, to suffer. You suffered many illnesses, you endured everything patiently and calmly, you suffered many injustices, but you performed everything with joy, you performed everything with peace in your heart. That is why the message was victorious.' Truly, the message was victorious.

I know from the Lord Jesus that the message is triumphant. I also know it from the Lady of Life and from the very people who went up there (at Girgenti) and received graces, both spiritual and temporal. Therefore, let us not be afraid, let us speak with joy to everyone, even to those who make us injustices. I tell you that you may speak about me as you like, it does not matter, I have offered everything to God, to the Lord Jesus for the needs of sinners. I offered everything quietly and patiently but I tell you that I have greatly received many graces from the Lord Jesus. I know this because my heart is in great peace. Notwithstanding all my troubles, of illnesses and injustices, yet I tell you that God is keeping me at peace.

The Lord Jesus is giving me so much joy in my illnesses. He is giving me consolation and strength so that I am able to pray for the needs of sinners, for the needs of those who are despising me, for the needs of those who are trampling on my feelings. I tell the Lord God and the Lord Jesus, 'Look upon those people who have despised me so far, who are still despising me, who speak against me, who do not understand me, just as they treated You when You were on earth, when You suffered along the roads of Calvary'.

I greatly thank the Lord, I greatly thank Jesus, the Holy Spirit, the Lady of Life, because right now I have the Lady of Life's smile upon me. Presently I have great glory in speaking on this cassette, however, I want to tell those who are helping me not to lose heart, not to fear injustices. We should work for the greatest glory of God. What we are doing is not being performed for any Authority but for the greatest glory of God, of the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist together with the Holy Spirit and Our Lady.

I tell those in Government, I tell those in Opposition that we should help each other... You know that much good is being accomplished up there, and that this will keep on taking place. Speaking for myself, I say that I will keep on praying for as long as God almighty leaves me on earth. I do not have much strength left but this morning the Lord Jesus told me that: 'You have done your utmost to dedicate your strength to Heaven, but know that whenever possible, you should continue to speak and to use your tongue for the greatest glory of God and Myself. Pray for all those who oppose Me so that they will have a greater peace and merciful heart especially when they think about the Eucharist. They will acknowledge how great God's mercy is.' The mercy of Jesus of the Eucharist has done much for Malta, for the world, it is doing much with the Church. Presently there is great trouble. We are aware that not even the Pope could go to celebrate the mass of peace at Sarajevo. He said it somewhere else and much good was accomplished. That is what we should do. We should continue to assist those who are striving for peace, who want peace in the world.

I will pray to God the Father, the Lord Jesus, the Holy Spirit, Our Lady, and all in Heaven to send us peace among all Authorities, of the Church, of Government and of the Opposition, among all the Maltese and the Gozitan and throughout the world.

I wish that peace starts from Malta. My beloved Lord of the Eucharist, tell me what I should do notwithstanding that I feel unwell, notwithstanding that my health has failed me, but I am feeling the power of the three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity together with the Blessed Virgin and all in Heaven. I will keep striving for the things that please God, the Lord Jesus and Heaven.

Friends, let us work for Heaven, because when we die we will not be able to work any further. We should work and watch not to fall into temptation so that peace starts from Malta and the Lord God will look upon us and no ugly things, neither from Heaven nor from the world, will ever befall us. Let us pray to Saint Paul the Apostle, our father, to assist us with the faith he brought us, the faith of God the Father when Jesus called him in the streets of Damascus where he was using God in a bad way.

Saint Paul did so much for Malta. He did so much to bring us the faith and alas, now many Maltese, even those who live outside Malta, are lacking in the faith brought to us by our father, the Apostle Saint Paul, in the sense that they use their tongue to blaspheme, with lack of faith and some of them, both Maltese and foreigners, have become like animals because they have denied the faith. An animal lacks faith and that is how a human being becomes when he becomes faithless, he is similar to an animal...

I conclude by saying that this week, on Tuesday 13th September, while I was saying and praying the rosary, I started seeing and hearing someone. He told me: 'Guza,' I told him: 'No, I haven't forgotten anyone, I pray for everyone.'

I tell you that in the past, I had two priests who helped me, they were from Birkirkara. I had Fr. Guzepp Vella who used to come almost every day to my house, we used to work hand in hand... and I had Fr. Guzepp Attard. He also worked hard. He used to come along every Sunday together with his brother and his sister... We used to say the rosary and praise the Lord. He used to tell me: 'We come here to praise the Lord and the Blessed Virgin for this lovely charisma which the Holy Mother gave you, and so that here we will say the rosary together.'...

This week these two appeared before me... and told me: 'The message that was delivered to you by Our Lady is making progress and Guza, it will continue to do so. Do not lose heart because of the obstacles you have, the Lord and the Blessed Virgin are helping you with these obstacles.'

I tell you, do not ever think that the message is unsuccessful. The message is not a failure, the message has made progress in the past and is always gaining more ground..."

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD IN JANUARY 1995

"Friends, we are not alone. With us and on earth, on all the altars worldwide, we have the greatest treasure. Jesus of the Eucharist is doing great things with me. No, my friend, you are not carrying your cross alone. Nearby there is the Lord who is helping you. My brothers and sisters in the Lord do not worry because you are burdened by illness.

I am very grieved when I am not present for the prayer meetings we organise at Girgenti, but the Lord Jesus together with the spirit of the Blessed Virgin and the Holy Spirit are being present because people are attending. It is necessary that more attend because God Almighty is permitting these things, notwithstanding that those in Authority are not giving heed to this message.

Today I am still suffering from the burdens of anaemia, of the stomach and pain in my bones. However, I am still doing my part just as Christ did, because by all that suffering, by that cruel and wicked death on the cross Christ brought great victory.

I have long been referring for peace. The Blessed Virgin wants peace and the Lord is the Prince of peace. The Lord Jesus is the Prince of peace, the Prince of our love, the Prince of our lives. We should not fear anyone, we should leave darkness alone and we should put the light of the Prince of peace who is Our Lord Jesus Christ in the forefront. I greatly desire that we refer to love amongst us... Let us pray for the Church so that it will always be at peace: the Pope, our Bishops and even those who presently represent Malta, both those in Government and those in Opposition. These should refer to one another with love, without quarrelling, without hatred and without getting aloof.

Let us pray for the representatives of states. I had long been telling you when I used to go up with you to Girgenti: let us be vigilant and pray so that no trouble would befall us, because look at Russia, how many thousands of people died in this last war they had... Friends, there are people, and I know this from the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, who still do not know that the Lord Jesus undertook the passion for their sakes to redeem them and they are dying a desperate death and woe to their souls.

The Lord Jesus frequently tells me to pray for the needs of sinners, for the needs of the sorrowful, for the needs of those who lose their relatives in wars and through revenge, let me say it in this way. I am referring to many things that I am hearing Jesus telling me that we should avoid as much as possible. These are things relating to wars and to hatred. We Maltese should strengthen our faith and impart it to foreigners, so that these representatives of states will acquire their faith and even give it to their brethren, their people in these towns, let us start from those of Russia, Asia, there and there.

Alas, we should all follow one way. We are all brothers and sisters. About four or five months ago, someone visited me at my house, some men came to my house and I told them: 'Pray with me for that person because we need to pray much for him.' One of them replied: 'Let him pray for himself because I am not going to pray for him, he caused so much trouble.' I told him: 'No, my brother, you are not acting correctly. By means of our good behaviour and our good example, we must place him in the path of Christ who suffered the passion for him. We should not let him despair and damn himself.'

Alas, there are many selfish people, they only think about themselves. I do not even say a Hail Mary for myself; I say everything for the needs of my neighbour because that is how I have been instructed. Then it is for the Lord to decide.

We should not be selfish, we should not be double-faced, the Lord Jesus does not want this. The Lord Jesus wants us to be serious, honest, not to lie, to refer for peace for everyone, not to be selfish, that is, we shouldn't just pray for ourselves and our relatives and leave others out. Instead, we should pray hard. I am praying earnestly for the Presidents of Russia, of Japan, of that place and that other.

We should pray for the needs of the Chinese, for the needs of everyone because trouble exists everywhere. Let us pray for the French, there are many things of which I am aware. Last Saturday I spoke with my sister in Christ, and as soon as I spoke to her, I had a lovely vision of Our Lady. You have no idea how I saw her. At first, I saw a cloud; it seemed blue, grey, light blue. I saw many things. Then upon the cloud which I saw in this vision, I met the Lady of Life who told me, 'Speak out and preach incessantly... about love and peace and pray for others. Tell others that you are unwell so that they too will preach these things.' Man should not think about himself alone because there are many for whom those of good-will must intercede; for those who are of bad will, so that God willing, we will bring them in the right path. Woe to those who make a reckless death. They are not aware that they are going to appear before God almighty, before the Lord Jesus, to give Him an account of their life, all that they did in the world. Those who are of bad will say: 'What do we care about the Lord's will.'

We should understand that everything must come from God. Although everyone wants peace and we preach peace yet no one says: 'Almighty God help us so that we would have peace, help us so that we truly strive for peace.' We are aware of the many things that are cropping up between those of Palestine and of Israel, much strife, trouble and bloodshed. This is not right. When from Heaven I am told of these things, my heart aches and I will not be able to contain myself further. How grieved I am by these things, how grieved I am when the Blessed Virgin or Jesus of the Eucharist tells me about these cruel hearted people who kill that person or the other.

They say that a massacre was perpetrated on many innocent people or children. These children go to Heaven, you know, although they come from improper families, but it is not right that death strikes them in cold blood. Let us pray so that these things, these reckless massacres on innocent people, will cease from the world.

If a war flares up in Russia, everyone will suffer, you know! I tell you that the whole world will suffer because it would inflame somewhere else. Therefore, let us strive for that which the Prince of peace, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist wills. Let us act in conformity with the words of our father the Pope who is working so hard for peace, to spread the living word of the Lord Jesus, the gospel, the word of God. When I go up there (at Girgenti) I tell you: 'Today it is Sunday, the day of the Lord', and I explain what the gospel is about. That is what Jesus wants from us, that we spread the gospel among everyone and that we fear no one. Those who have declined in their faith and no longer act according to the morals of the Church should re-enter the Catholic Church. We should not only draw the people of Malta towards the morals of the Catholic Church, but by our example we should draw the whole world, so that we will have peace, the true peace, the true peace desired by God almighty, by the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, the Lady of Life, Our Lady of Consecration, by having many consecrated persons...

In the passage I am recording, the Lord Jesus frequently told me: 'Do not worry because the local Church Authority is not helping you, you have great help for I am helping you Myself. Speak frequently about the love you feel towards Me in the Eucharist. Do not be afraid to say that I gave you many lovely signs in the Eucharist, not only in the past in that area of Girgenti and in this poor house, but up to this blessed day.'...

Why shouldn't we be Eucharistic souls? We should understand the Eucharist well. When we receive Holy Communion, we should say our thanksgiving heartily and with love. When we receive the Eucharist we should show some respect, some attraction and love towards the love which the Prince of peace, Jesus of the Eucharist, feels for us. Let us pray to Him and tell Him: 'Jesus use me, give me some gifts so that I will be able to work for the needs of sinners, for the needs of the dying so that when they see death upon them they say: 'Lord, Jesus, Holy Spirit, St. Joseph and Blessed Mary, I give you my soul and my heart with all that it contains. Help me in this cruel time of my agony.' We should not let everything pass by meaningless.

I am going to thank the Lord greatly, and, if by God's will I am still alive on the 27th January 1995 when I will be seventy two years old, I don't know how I am going to thank God the Father, the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, the Holy Spirit for all that they did with me throughout the years...

I thank you Lord God of Hosts, may You be praised and blessed. Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, may You be praised, may You be loved even by those people who are distant from You because of mortal sin, who withdrew from You because of evil habits. I also want to tell you, my dear brothers and sisters, let us be very, very careful... We should highly respect ourselves with regards to holy purity... We should greatly treasure our good deeds before the presence of God, the presence of Our Lord Jesus. Sometimes, even in church there are certain things that do not please the Lord Jesus. We should greatly respect ourselves, we should be very careful about holy purity... Some time ago the Lady of Life told me: 'My daughter, pray earnestly so that these corrupt people who practice abortion, who kill many innocent children before they are born, will cease from doing these things.'

These things exist even in Malta, you know, but as I could understand from what the Lady of Life told me, abroad abortion takes place not by hundreds, not by thousands... Moreover, alas, all these creatures are killed so recklessly because of a vile pleasure that transgresses holy purity. The Lord suffered the passion, He came forth into the world as a divine, lovely and holy child. We should pray hard to the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist so that we would highly respect ourselves, and everyone, not just our countrymen, will refrain from offending holy purity so much loved by the Blessed Virgin. The Blessed Virgin was so pure, she was so lovely, the Lord chose her because of her purity, because of her unblemished soul which in itself was a great example with regards to these things.

We should show great respect towards the three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity because these things were best taught to us by the Lord Jesus along the roads of Calvary. The Lord was sorely grieved when they took off His clothes. The Lord endured this suffering for our sakes so that we respect holy purity rather than dishonour it...

I tell you once more that we should never say that we are alone. Everyone knows that I am cut off from the world, I have no one except Heaven. I think that the last time I went up there (at Girgenti) was in November. I started December very ill, but in the great feasts of the Lord Jesus, that is the holy birth of Jesus of the Eucharist, He performed great things with me. That is why I tell you: 'Friends, we are not alone.' I have no one at home, perhaps during the week some neighbour of mine comes to bring me something, but otherwise, as everyone knows, my door is always closed. For this, I thank Jesus. Yet, we still are not alone.

I tell Jesus: 'My Jesus, stay with me, never leave me alone. You know that I take no benefits from the world and that I have no contacts with that person or the other. I am alone, alone.' Now I shall say something about when on a Tuesday in the month of December, while I was in bed at about three o'clock in the morning I felt unwell. When I got out of bed, I was in great pain, I was unwell, I took a pill, but as soon as I swallowed it, I fell on the floor. When I was on the floor I told the Lord Jesus, 'Lord Jesus, You are with me, You are near me, You know everything. Jesus of the Eucharist, Lord God of Hosts, beloved Virgin Mary, it is you who must help me today because I have no one with me. I cannot go near the telephone to phone someone because I am on the floor. Lord God of Hosts, do something today because I am alone. Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, this morning I desire one of Your visits, Blessed Mother, do something because otherwise I will remain on the floor. Some time later, I felt as if someone caught me from my shoulders and placed me on a chair. I will tell you all that I can because there are things that I want to speak about but I cannot disclose them. I do have permission from Heaven to disclose them but because of those in Authority I will not, otherwise many ugly circumstances and many problems and many injustices will follow.

The Lord Jesus of the Eucharist tells me: 'Do not fear injustices, because I suffered injustices before you. When I was going along the road to Calvary, those who were ill-treating me were offending me, and beating me with rods, I acted as you are doing. I prayed to My Father in Heaven. However, it was willed that I endure this flagellation and this suffering and likewise with you. You had to suffer all this because it had been predestined for you since you were conceived.'

I told Him: 'I know Lord Jesus because I do not pray to be cured. In the past, as from when I had reached the sense of discretion I prayed the Lord to give me an ugly look and to throw a pleasant and merciful look upon sinners, to draw sinners towards Him.' Jesus told me: 'However, today I tell you... that when they saw Me suffering they asked someone to help me and Simon came. I Myself came to help you this morning in this poor room of yours. Don't be afraid to say that in here You have had many contacts with Me in the Eucharist...' I tell you that during this night, Tuesday night, I saw Jesus suffering terribly, but I called Him and Jesus came and put me on my feet.

...On Saturday, I phoned the doctor and he told me: 'Guza, at that time your blood pressure was very low. If you did not have a sound heart, you would have died. You are truly in great pain; you are passing as you say through all the roads from which Jesus passed, from the roads of Christ's passion. You have an acute anaemia. That is why you are unable to stay on your feet.' This took place on Saturday, Christmas Eve. You can realise what a lovely Christmas I spent, but I was happy, I spent it in peace, I spent it in contact with Jesus of the Eucharist. I am not ashamed and I need not fear to say that I have many marvellous things from Jesus of the Eucharist.

For me Jesus of the Eucharist is life, every breath that I take, every step that I make, every movement that I make. I don't say that Jesus of the Eucharist is the Prince of peace of the world only, but He is also my Prince, the Prince of love, the Prince of peace who helps me to be at peace and serene within me. I ask Him to help me to refrain from saying certain things such as that I am ill. My illnesses pass by from one day to the other, from one week to the other, years have I been saying that I am handicapped... but with regards to the Lord's things everything is progressing...

Now I will speak about Friday January 6, it was the feast of the Epiphany. I experienced many marvellous things during this day. I told Jesus: 'Beloved Jesus, once the world has long lost its importance to me, if I have nothing else to do, I will start praying the Lord God and Yourself and the Holy Spirit together with the Lady of Life so that if possible I will draw nearer to my death.'

However, He told me: 'I will not answer you about the time of your death because you always think about it. You think about death everyday and you are so intent about it that I don't need to tell you the day.' However, I told Him: 'I will either suffer or die. If I do not have anything else to fulfil in the world, I prefer that God's will be done because I am now suffering greatly.'...

Some time after the doctor had left, I again felt a grey cloud in my eye and when in the morning I phoned my sister, or she phoned me, I told her: 'I won't start mentioning my sufferings because now even my eyes are affected by my troubles. I don't see anything from my right eye, I have a greyish cloud in it and I lost my sight.' I told her: 'This is what the Lord willed in order that I suffer all that He endured, because He suffered many things in His eye by crown of thorns. Likewise, I have to suffer slightly.'

I phoned the doctor and he told me: 'Guza, your eyesight is so because you have a drop of blood in your eye...' Then I even phoned the former President of Malta, (Dr. Vincent Tabone) who told me: 'If necessary phone me back and I will come and visit your eyes at your home.' Up to this holy and blessed day, my eye is still hurting me but I phoned no one. I have placed my full trust in God and He is performing great things with me. I tell you that it is not true that we are alone in our illnesses...

God almighty knows about all my sufferings, but the Lord Jesus told me: 'Although those in Authority are troubling you, yet devotion towards Our Lady of Consecration has become truly great... You have now become a consecrated soul because the Blessed Mother granted such permission to you.... You are now one of the souls who are consecrated, both priests and nuns. I tell you earnestly to keep on urging youths, both male and female, to feel attracted by the cross I dragged along the roads of Calvary, so that they embrace some vocation in order to be consecrated to God and to Jesus, rather than follow the evil trends of the world.' They should be truly consecrated you know, because Jesus told me that there are many consecrated souls, both men and women who find the occasion to leave their priesthood, they no longer embrace their faith as priests or as nuns...

He said: 'Even the Pope, the Vicar of the Church in Rome, has now declared that priests and nuns are consecrated souls... You have long been one of them, far before the message was disclosed, before I had that contact with you when you were ill and that priest came to celebrate mass and you saw Me crowned with thorns in the Host. I suffered terribly by those thorns and now you are suffering as well.' I am disregarding my eye. In my right eye, I feel as if I have a butterfly that is always on the move. It is the same eye that in the past had been injured by some evil letters I had received, letters that had been in contact with the devil and had pierced the white part of my eyeball. Nevertheless, may it be blessed because now I have another burden, in my eye I have Christ's thorn and therefore I have good reason to thank the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, the Prince of peace of the whole world.

I have something about the Eucharist that so far I am holding back because I told Him: 'I would be scorned.' He said: 'Priests condemned Me in Jerusalem, priests showed Me such contempt. Do not be afraid to speak about this message, that the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist is sorely grieved by the evil horrors of the spirit of darkness that exist in the world.'

In Malta, there are some people who lack faith, they darken Christ's things, and they darken Jesus in the Eucharist. They do not give the Eucharist the adoration they should. They say: 'Jesus of the Eucharist, so what!' Some time ago I heard that the Pope went on a pilgrimage somewhere and it was said that there the people hide their faith, they cannot say that they are Christians, Catholics, they cannot declare the faith that was perhaps given to them by their mother or their father as was my case.

The Lord Jesus has good reason to be grieved by our behaviour for these things are not hidden for us. We should with all respect adore and love Jesus of the Eucharist in front of everyone. No one inflicts us any harm, on the contrary, it is an honour for us when we respect and adore Jesus in the Eucharist.

I do not know how I am going to repay Jesus of the Eucharist because I have already told you that I will not reach my seventy-second year on the 27th January. But Jesus of the Eucharist told me: 'I tell you that on the 27th January you will be seventy two years old and you will experience things related both to suffering and joy.' If this will come true I do not know how I am going to comport myself for all that the Lord God is doing for me. I tell you that when I fell on the floor, on Tuesday preceding Christmas, I saw someone who took hold of my shoulders and placed me sitting on a chair. I remained from 9 until about 4 thanking the Lord Jesus. I told Him: 'How am I going to repay You for all that You are doing for me? No one knows about these things.'

No, you are not using Jesus of the Eucharist properly, not even priests, you know. Priests say the prayers so that from Heaven, they bring down Jesus in the Eucharist, but they do not reflect what they have in their hands at that time. That is what Jesus told me. They say the prayer of consecration, they elevate the Host for those present but no one imagines what that live, holy, blessed and immaculate Host contains. However, I know what there is in that holy, blessed and immaculate host. There is life within it. I have often seen life in the consecrated host.

Even you priests, that is what you should call to mind when you pray those words to bring down Jesus in those hosts. Think about what you have in your hands. Monsignor Grima, who was a priest who had great devotion towards the Eucharist, told me more than once: 'When the Lord Jesus is in my hands, when I bring Him down from Heaven, I speak to Him earnestly...''

A MESSAGE RECORDED BY GUZA MIFSUD IN APRIL 1995

"In this holy and blessed night during which I am making this recording in honour of the infinite mercy of God, in honour of the sufferings which the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist endured, in honour of the passion which the Lord Jesus undertook for me, I tell you... that my eyes are full of tears and my heart is greatly troubled. My heart is beating just as Christ's heart was beating on the cross.

Friends, we should not take these things lightly you know, because the powerful Hand of God is near us, it is very close, lest we won't start something because of all this lack of faith we now have in Malta... Some say that God does not exist. They say: 'God means nothing to me.' Others say that Heaven and hell do not exist. My dear brothers and sisters, the fact that such things exist in Malta makes you shudder... and they are plentiful you know!

Besides, when some priests are on the media and they are asked something, instead of saying the truth that God exists, that Jesus in the Eucharist exists, they are afraid to speak out, they begin to stammer and they do not say what they should. Priests are afraid of the truth of God almighty...

Today, I received some letters wherein I was told that there was a person who has great knowledge and who is very clever in spiritual matters who stated: 'I do not believe in God. I do not believe these things. I do not know anything about hell or Heaven.'

Friends, let me tell you, I am only going to make a short recording because I do not feel well. With good reason that I do not feel well. Our Lady knows the situation in Malta and it would be disastrous if God does not have mercy on us because the good would suffer with the bad. I tell you that we must be vigilant and pray because we have many fierce wolves that follow the spirit of darkness. The spirit of darkness, the cruel devil is snatching many people. I tell this person: 'When we need rain shall we ask you to bring down the rain rather than go to the Lord God? Or when we are in darkness are you able to make the sun rise, because you do not believe in God, you do not believe in hell or in Heaven?'

These poisonous tongues are dragging so many people to the wide road of hell. They scandalise both the old and the young; they are of scandal even to mature beings. We should be ashamed before God almighty, our Creator...

I tell you that in the media, for every glass of sweetness there is a cask of bitterness. There is too much poison in broadcasting. There are many evil and dishonest things. This is not right...

My dear brothers and sisters in the Lord, that is why Our Lady is suffering so very, very much. Today, I told someone that when I met the Lady of Life I did not see her at all as usual. Our Lady had tears in her eyes because she is aware of what is happening in Malta, in our small island. If the apostle, our father, Saint Paul was to come again, he would tell us so many things: 'For your sakes I suffered shipwreck, I suffered imprisonment. I did all this for my master Jesus who appeared to me along the road of Damascus where I was converted. Then in Malta they say that God almighty does not exist!'...

I do not know whether a hundred years or more have elapsed since the church of Ta' Pinu in Gozo was built. That was erected because faith was not lacking. We happen to have much lack of faith in our island of Malta and we are facing many obstacles. We are facing obstacles from everywhere... But the Lady of Life has told me that those who follow her and who come up to say the rosary with zeal in front of her statue at Girgenti: 'Those are lucky, tell them to strengthen their faith and to pray as Christ prayed on the cross. O God, Father Almighty, O Lord Jesus of the Eucharist, forgive the Maltese, the Gozitans and all the foreigners because no one knows what one is doing.' Poor Malta, alas, Malta has lost its faith in God. As I am telling you, we should be careful because the Provident Hand of God is following us, it is in our homes; it is within us... We believed in God our Father who makes the sun rise in the morning and makes it set in the evening...

Let us ask Him forgiveness for these people who are Godless, without faith, continuously committing mortal sins. We should not be afraid to defend God. My brothers and sisters, we should defend God almighty. What can we do without God?...

Alas! You people who lack faith are such great fools... If possible, we should avoid these things because the Lord Jesus is suffering terribly in the Eucharist. These people are not aware of the Eucharist. Do you know whom they know? They know the spirit of darkness when he goes to disturb their conscience and confuses them. That is what the kind Jesus who is crowned with thorns, with the nails in His hands, with the nails in His feet, with the blood which we emptied from His body because of our sins, is telling me. These satanic prophets think that they are sinless. These Godless prophets think that they are without sin. They should be careful, you know, because they are scandalising both young children and even older persons... In these times, we should manifest our faith. My brethren, priests, those in authority, in government, in opposition, married, bachelors, youths or otherwise, we should wrestle with our spiritual life because the Lord Jesus is suffering terribly. It is not for nothing that Our Lady is grieved by the things that are happening in Malta, in Gozo and in the world... Today, the Lady of Life told me: 'These are the worst times for the whole world. In your country faith is being acquired by the devil.' These are not ridiculous things you know, they are very serious.

We must greatly fear the Lord God so that we will not be involved in some never ending war. We must be very alert. Let us pray to God the Father and to the Lord Jesus. We are in Lent but we are so stubborn. The devil is reigning over those souls who in the past had faith but who have now left the Church, they have rejected God, God no longer exists for them. When they open their eyes in the morning, what do they find? Isn't it God's creation that they see when they look at the holy city of God, Heaven, and see the beautiful sky, so long as it is still beautiful? I am not saying these things out of my own free will, you know, I am saying them with much melancholy and sadness...

Alas, let us not permit that the Lord punish us... For us God must come first. However, for these people God means nothing to them, for them He is nothing, how terrible! They do not believe in the Four Last Things, in Heaven and hell... As far as I could understand from the kind Lord Jesus, there are many such people. He told me that there are many Godless people in Malta. Jesus told me to urge people of good will to pray for a general conversion in Malta. Isn't it strange that Saint Paul did his utmost to bring us the faith without delay and now as our own witnesses we have these people who preach and shamelessly proclaim before everyone their lack of faith...

Why don't priests rebut these people? Why have they become priests? Just to go up on the altar and consecrate the Host? Why don't you defend the Lord God of Hosts and defend these precious spiritual things? By this behaviour, we are making fools of ourselves! We ought to feel very ashamed before the Lord Jesus of the Eucharist. We should greatly respect Jesus in the Eucharist and tell Him: 'Jesus of the Eucharist, we love You, we respect You, we adore You and give You glory.' Even when we see Jesus crucified on the cross we should meditate that He was crucified for me and for you. We should tell Him: 'Beloved and kind Jesus crucified, we love You, we adore You, we worship You, praise You and give You glory on behalf of those who are not understanding You. You have fulfilled all that was willed by Heaven for the salvation of our souls.'

However, these people truly do not want to save their souls, they truly do not want to be converted towards God because otherwise they would not do these things. That is what I heard this evening. Alas, what has Malta come to!

Many things are coming because there is much illness, many wars, and much strife. They talk about peace but peace never comes because they are not asking God as they should for peace... We should be very careful, you know. I refrain from saying anything else; perhaps I might record another extract some other time.

Lord grant that those who love You and adore You will atone for these Maltese people who have committed these mortal sins by saying that they do not believe in God and that Heaven and hell do not exist. I tell them that it is shameful that they know nothing about God almighty and why God has created hell. God created hell when there was that war in Heaven and He said: 'I create Hell for you and for all those who will follow your will.'

I tell you, friends, you who claim that Heaven and hell do not exist and that you do not believe in God, that if you actually die in mortal sin and claim that you are Godless, God 's justice will be unpleasant to you. Our Lady of Life is telling me the same message she expressed in the past in Fatima. We people of good will should not fear those who are of bad will, even if death comes upon us as it did in the past upon the saints. We truly have much for which we should thank the Lord Jesus who was raised on a cross to redeem us..."

THE RULES SET UP BY GUZA MIFSUD FOR THE SISTERS 'OUR LADY OF CONSECRATION'

My dear brothers and sisters,

In a vision I had with the Lady of Life during the night of Saturday, September 24, 1994 at 3.00a.m. she told me: 'You must die wearing a religious habit... You performed your apostolate at home. For fourteen years you have been a victim enduring poverty, abandonment of the world and people's troubles...'

Our Lady wills that I continue my vocation in this poor and simple house, where I can acknowledge my nothingness compared with the holiness and greatness of God almighty and of the Lord Jesus who is protecting me.

She also told me that I must be the first Mother Superior of the Sisters 'Our Lady of Consecration' and that I must wear the black dress which I wore when I went up to Girgenti in September 1989. On this dress, I have a sash with the letters M.G.S.M.G., the initials that in Maltese stand for God, Jesus, Holy Spirit, Our Lady and Saint Joseph.

I want to arouse many vocations because the Lady of Life wants the Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration. They may wear a black, blue or dark grey dress. On the dress they must have a sash similar to mine and on it the letters S.M.K. meaning Sisters of Our Lady of Consecration.

I do not know whether I shall live to see the Sisters or the convent that Our Lady wants at Girgenti. I shall therefore leave the following rules to be abided with in the future.

As Sisters we must have great love towards the Lord God, a great love for Jesus of the Eucharist, a great love towards the Holy Spirit to arouse our faith, the faith of the Maltese and the Gozitans and of the whole world especially that of the representatives of states. We must have great veneration towards Our Lady and allow her to use us for all and among all.

We must be very brave and work for Jesus in the Eucharist. Without fear and without shame we must love, adore, worship and contemplate His love as He awaits us in all the tabernacles of the world.

Whenever possible we must struggle against violence and sects.

We must cherish the rosary and whenever possible we should not content ourselves with just reciting five decades.

The Church that is to be built at Girgenti must be continually kept open for Maltese, Gozitans and foreigners alike.

We must work and toil for everybody; nobody should be our enemy. We must work hand in hand at peace with everyone and with great love amongst us.

Although it was God's will that I took my vows at the age of seventy-two, the sisterhood may be joined by those who are eighteen years old and over.

I conclude by saying that Jesus of the Eucharist told me: 'I earnestly desire that on that day (06.11.1994) you will not be worried, but be intent on what the Lord will do with you from Heaven. Together with My Mother, I shall grant you many graces, and those who will be with you on the day will also receive great favours.'

TESTIMONY GIVEN BY KARMNI MICALLEF

About twenty years ago, I had great pain in my right hand. It was so painful that it was imperative for me to undergo surgery. Dr. Albert Fenech from Siggiewi had already made the necessary preparations for this operation. At the time, Louis Endrich, a great friend of Francesco Saverio Mercieca (a Gozitan pious man more commonly known as Frenc ta' l-Gharb) used to visit us at our house. Louis Endrich had prayed upon my hand and all the pain disappeared.

Louis Endrich continually told us that a great mystery was hidden in Siggiewi, close to the Cross on the Hill... Louis had told me that together with someone else (I do not know whether it was Frenc), they used to see the Three Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity somewhere close to the Cross. That is why he repeatedly mentioned the great mystery that will one day appear in Siggiewi.

OBEDIENCE AND HUMBLeness

In a vision which Guza had of Our Lady of Life on Friday June 9, at 1.30a.m., the Blessed Virgin reminded Guza the event she had asked her to fulfil on Thursday April 26, 1990, before the members of the Committee. In short, that day, the Blessed Virgin had asked Guza to wear white clothes in commemoration of two visions Guza had seen on Maundy Thursday. These visions were of Our Lady and of Pope John Paul II, who both wore white clothes. When Guza told the Blessed Virgin that she did not possess a white dress, the Lady of Life told her to open her wardrobe and there she would find both the white dress and the white veil she had prepared as her shroud. This incident is reported in detail on page twenty-seven of Book IV. On Our Lady's instructions, some photos of Guza dressed in white were taken but these photos were never disclosed.

On June 9, 1995, at night, Our Lady insisted with Guza that one of these photos must be published. As a sign of obedience and humility, Guza obeyed.

In another contact that Guza had with the Lady of Life on Saturday June 10, 1995, at about 3.45p.m., the Blessed Virgin told Guza that even what follows must be published. In fact when Guza phoned me up at about 4.15p.m., she told me:

"Sylvana, I think that my end is drawing near because Our Lady is mentioning many things. She wants us to publish the fact that I have shut myself in this house even since Monsignor Grima disclosed her message to the public in November 1983. She also recalled that ever since 1989, my name became Mother Maria Guza and that in November 1994, Rev. Fr. Nazzaren Tonna had blessed the veils and I took my final vows. The Blessed Virgin told me once more that she wants a church and a convent at Girgenti. I, Guza, tell you that I know of about ten persons who are ready to start the community of the Sisters Our Lady of Consecration.

With the greatest respect, with my complete unworthiness and humility I say that I have been ill for more than thirty years. I have been handicapped in my right hand for about eight years. I have a hidden wound and my finger is bent downwards. I have several other afflictions throughout my body, may the Lord be praised. Today Our Lady told me: 'You have strove hard during these years to deliver this message and to spread devotion towards my Son Jesus, towards me and all in Heaven.' But my dear brothers and sisters I tell you that notwithstanding all the suffering I am enduring, yet with the help of the Blessed Virgin I want to keep on working and obeying all that she demands."

GRACES RECEIVED

(Taken from The Voice of Girgenti)

THE BELL'S CLAPPER

A man who was given to blasphemy and was converted, thought of atoning for his blasphemy in an unusual way. He went to Guza Mifsud's house and gave her some money to have a bell made. It was to be rung at Girgenti so that by its tongue (striker) it praises God and thus by its lovely sound it atones for the blasphemies his tongue used to utter.

FORTY YEARS LATER

During a prayer meeting held at Girgenti, a woman related to the Editor of the Voice of Girgenti, how her husband had been converted after forty years not practising his religion.

This woman said that her husband was ill. She had long been praying for him. When the Girgenti meeting was near, she told her husband that she was going to attend this meeting. Although he was ill and was going to stay at home alone, yet he allowed her to go. Three days later he was well enough to go out. When he returned he told his wife: "Do you know where I've been?... I went to confession!" He told her where he went to confess and that his confessor was Monsignor Buontempo!

Since then, this man hears mass daily and practices his religion as any other great devotee.

GRACES OF IMMEDIATE HELP

Guza Mifsud often related how in difficult cases she received direct help from the Blessed Virgin. Once when Guza went upstairs, in her room to rest and was about to sit down, the armchair was not beneath her and she fell backwards near the bed. It is not difficult to understand how this old and ailing woman did not have the strength to get up again. While in her heart she prayed the Blessed Virgin to help her, she heard a voice which with an ironic laugh told her: ‘As if she would come to put you on your feet!...’ But the Blessed Virgin was present indeed because Guza immediately felt someone helping her to get up and found herself on her feet.

A similar case happened to Yvonne Cristiano the Matron of Stella Maris College. In January 1990, Yvonne was on a ladder, cleaning the wall about one storey above the ground. She had been engaged in such work for about an hour when all of a sudden, the ladder gave way and she fell down in a lump on the ground. During the fall, she hit her chin and her throat with the table’s edge. She felt blood coming out of her chin and her throat was hurting her to such an extent that she could not speak. When she was on the ground, she thought that she had broken her leg and could not move. Greatly shocked she prayed the Blessed Virgin to help her get up! Immediately she felt someone lifting her from under her arms and putting her on her feet. Yvonne looked around her to see who had helped her, because no one was present at home... but she saw no one. Then the telephone rang; it was the Director of the College who required some information. Since Yvonne could not talk, the Director thought that he had dialled a wrong number. In the meantime, Yvonne prayed Our Lady to be able to say some words. The telephone rang again. Immediately Yvonne made an effort and said: “I am Yvonne, I am hurt!” The Director realised what had happened and went to help her. Some time later her daughter arrived and took her mother to hospital. Her feet and her chin were thoroughly examined and had three stitches made to her chin. The doctor told her: “Thank God that nothing is broken and that you did not perforate your throat, for you would have died on the spot!”

A DECLARATION BY MR. MARTIN SCICLUNA FROM MOSTA

“In the Summer of 1984 I was suffering from an infection in the urinary system. Our family’s doctor was giving me medical attention. When I ended my treatment, I was still in pain and my temperature kept on rising.

On August 7, I went to hospital where it was determined that the pills I was taking contained a certain substance (Chloromphenicol) which in very rare instances (one in a million) destroys the functionality of the marrow in creating new blood cells. This leads the sick person to death. This illness is called Agranulocytosis. From a blood test, it resulted that my blood was very weak and that the marrow was not functioning.

After two weeks of blood transfusions and a heavy doze of antibiotics, my health did not improve. I was therefore taken to the I.T.U. Unit for intensive care.

In the meantime, my mother and my fiancée went to Guza Mifsud to ask her to pray for me. Guza took my mother to another room and after praying to the Blessed Virgin, she turned to my mother and told her that Our Lady was going to cure me. In fact about a week after my mother’s first visit to Guza, on the day following the feast of the Assumption, the blood test confirmed that new cells were being created. Although my blood was still very weak, yet the doctors were no longer troubled and confirmed that I was no longer in danger of death.

Only when my marrow’s functionality had started to improve did the doctors disclose the gravity of the situation in which I was. I left hospital on September 8, 1984.

By the intercession of the Blessed Virgin and the prayers of Guza Mifsud, my family and friends, today I am healthy again and enjoy a normal life.”

This report was accompanied by a doctor’s certificate.

MR. CHARLES ATTARD

During the November 1993 prayer meeting, Charles related how some weeks before, on a Sunday, he went fishing with his boat, together with his thirty years old son and a friend of his, a Professor of Psychology at the University of Malta. They left early at about seven in the morning. Before they left, Charles checked the engine and ascertained himself that everything was working well.

They sailed far out, to such an extent that Gozo was no longer visible. At one time, the son asked his father to have a look at the engine. Charles replied that he had checked it before they left. About half an hour later, the son again warned his father to check the engine. Nevertheless, Charles continued fishing because he found no reason to do so. For the third time, his son asked him to have a look at the engine but to no avail.

At about 1.00p.m. the mobile telephone rang. His son answered it since it was close to him. He heard a woman's voice but when the boy asked who it was, there was no answer. He began saying: "Hello!... Hello!" but no one answered.

Charles asked his son who had telephoned him up. His son replied that it was a woman's voice but that it did not belong to any member of the family. Charles suspected that it was Guza. All of a sudden he remembered the engine and went to check it. To his surprise he found the engine half covered with water!... He took a pail and started emptying the water; but could not cope with the water. The others went to help him. In a short time, the water would have reached the terminals of the battery. All this happened at a distance of about 45 miles away from the shore.

They arrived Malta on Monday afternoon. Charles went to Gozo and took up the boat on the slipway to determine the damage. This took place at about seven. The mobile telephone rang again. It was Guza who telephoned. Charles asked her whether she needed anything and she replied: "Nothing." He asked her: "Yesterday, at about 1.00p.m. was it you who phoned?" She replied: "Yes." Charles asked her: "Did you require anything." "Nothing," she replied and gave him no explanation. However, it is easy to understand that the Blessed Virgin utilised Guza to save Charles and his companions from fatal danger.

Charles concluded this account by saying: "This was the greatest favour I received from Our Lady."

MRS. MARIA TABONE

During the same meeting, Mrs. Tabone went near Guza and related what had happened about three weeks before.

Maria's eldest daughter had a head tumour and had to go to England to undergo a very delicate surgical intervention.

Maria went to Guza's house to inform her when the operation was to take place and to recommend her daughter to Guza's prayers. Guza promised that she would fervently pray for her.

Surgery was so successful that Mrs. Tabone's daughter did not require the treatment that is usually given after such an intervention.

Mrs. Tabone went again to Guza's house so that together they thanked the Blessed Virgin for the favour received. Guza said that she would say the Te Deum as thanksgiving to God and the Virgin Mary.

CARMEN B... FROM GHAXAQ

Carmen said that some time before the prayer meeting held in April 1994, she felt pain in her lungs and could not breathe well. She feared that it was something serious. She sought medical advice and was told that probably she had a sore nerve. Before she went to the Polyclinic to have a lung x-ray taken, she fervently prayed to Our Lady and promised that if she is not suffering from anything serious, she would attend the following prayer meeting at Girgenti. Carmen had never before visited Girgenti. It must also be noted that she sought medical advice and had her x-ray taken on the same day. Carmen stated that the x-ray showed what looked like a burst blister. In the meantime she suffered no more pain and could breathe easily. On April 8, Carmen kept her promise and went up to Girgenti to thank Our Lady and attend the prayer meeting.

BJORN TABONE OF FOUR YEARS

During the April 1993 meeting, Veronica Tabone read the following report that concerned the cure of her son Bjorn. The report stated: "Bjorn Tabone was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital in the ENT Ward on February 20, 1993, suffering from Croup Fan (he could not breathe). His condition kept getting worse. At about midday he was taken to the ITU where he remained for ten days. Every time the doctors tried to remove Bjorn from the respiratory machine, Bjorn had difficulty to breathe. The doctors then decided to have a look at the windpipe and found that he had a soft spongy growth. They, therefore, made an opening in his throat to enable him to breathe.

On March 2, he was taken back to the ENT Ward since his condition had improved. On March 6, the Specialist decided to send Bjorn home. His mother was to take care of him by using some special machine. Bjorn was dismissed from hospital with a silver tube in his throat which, he was to retain for an undetermined period. The Specialist had to examine him by a special instrument to see when the tube could be removed for Bjorn to breathe normally.

For some reason, the silver tube dislodged itself and Bjorn was breathing from his mouth. They tried to re-insert the tube but the opening had already closed and Bjorn could breathe in a normal way. On March 9, Bjorn was sent home."

As elucidation to this report, Veronica gave the following information in the presence of her neighbour Doris Camilleri. The boy was four years old when he was admitted to hospital and he was so critical that it was feared that he would die. When the silver tube was inserted, the doctors thought that Bjorn would have to keep it for a long time, if not forever. This tube was similar to a valve about three or four centimetres long, and part of it was inserted in the throat. At home, Veronica used to clean this tube and re-insert it.

In the meantime, Doris Camilleri, without saying anything to Veronica, went to Girgenti and asked the Blessed Virgin to cure Bjorn. Not much time had elapsed when Veronica realised that Bjorn was breathing from his mouth. She took the boy to hospital so that the Specialist would check what had happened. Together with his colleagues, they tried to re-insert the tube but found that the opening in his throat had healed by itself and the boy was breathing in a normal way. When the Specialist informed Veronica what had happened, full of surprise she asked him: "Is this a miracle?" However, the Specialist remained silent because he could not understand what had happened. When Veronica told Doris what had happened, the latter informed her how she had gone to Girgenti where she saw Guza Mifsud and asked her to pray for the boy. Doris too had prayed earnestly to the Blessed Virgin for the healing of Bjorn.

THE EXTRAORDINARY BIRTH OF A BABY

On February 7, 1994, MO a married woman had been pregnant for twenty weeks. Therefore, Mary took her daughter MO to hospital, in Essex, where they were living, to have the baby scanned. The doctors realised that not all was well with the baby and sent MO to a hospital in London for more detailed examinations.

During this scrutiny, the consultant detected a defect in the baby's heart, however, he did not say anything and asked the opinion of another consultant as confirmation. The examination continued for a long time in perfect silence. When it was over, the doctors told MO and her mother that the baby had a serious heart defect and that the possibility that the baby would live was slight; besides, the baby had to undergo surgery as soon as it was born. They suggested that she end her pregnancy, but if she would not they were ready to help her.

This news broke the heart of both mothers who started crying. MO, who is still young, has a strong faith. After days spent in crying and prayer, Mo and her husband decided to proceed with the pregnancy and were resigned to God's will.

Without losing any time, Mary telephoned her mother AN in Malta to give her the bad news. AN was familiar with Girgenti, and she immediately prayed Our Lady to help MO and her baby.

In April 1994, Mary, her husband and their children came to Malta to visit AN, her mother. She took them to Girgenti and prayed together. In a long letter that Mary wrote, she stated that the peace of heart and the serenity she felt were beyond words. When they were at Girgenti they wrote a message to Guza, and they left this message with a person who appeared to be in charge of the place. Little did they think that Guza would find time to ring them up. However, the next day Guza spoke to Mary over the telephone and they said a Hail Mary together. She told her not to worry "because everything will turn out well!" Two days later, Guza telephoned again and promised that she would continue to pray to Our Lady to heal the baby.

In May, AN sent Mary some sweets that were distributed at Girgenti during the feast in honour of the Blessed Mother. Mary kept two of the sweets for when MO had to give birth to her child.

In the meantime, nothing was done between the months of February and June to remove the heart's defect. In a scan that was taken on March 25, the defect was still visible. When the pregnancy reached its final phase, on May 25, Mary, her daughter and the latter's husband, went to London, to have the final scan taken. They entered the same room as before. In the room, there was an extra chair. Mary stated that with a strong faith she prayed Our Lady "to sit on that chair and to remain with her!"

While the scan was being taken, there was the same silence as on the previous occasion... Then the consultant turned to MO and told her that the situation was not as critical as they had predicted and that they could not understand how the change had come about. This time both mothers cried with joy and felt that the Blessed Virgin was truly with them.

The baby was born on June 18, 1994, in London, and stayed in hospital only five days during which all tests taken proved successful. On July 26, the final check-up was made and the baby was completely discharged!...

We have two certificates; one dated February 7, 1994, in which there is explained the heart defect and the discharge certificate where everything is certified to be normal with the baby!

MRS. GUZA CASSAR, PIETA

In January 1992, Guza suffered from bronchitis. A doctor from Valletta prescribed some injections that proved harmful to her eyes. In fact, after she had taken seven of the fourteen injections he had prescribed, she began seeing everything in duplicate. She became frightened and went to another doctor who told her that such injections could be harmful to the eyes and to all the nerves.

She attended the prayer meeting at Girgenti and Guza Mifsud gave her some biscuits. She even took some scapulars of Our Lady which, she used to place on her eyes.

In hospital, she had many tests taken for it was feared that she was suffering from cancer. She was given the impression that she was incurable. Then, she went to Dr. Vella (from Gozo) at his clinic in Malta to have her eyes visited. He told her that after three or six months, she would have to undergo surgery. However, she did nothing of all this. In March 1992 her sight improved; sometimes she used to see in duplicate and at other times her sight was good. However, since March 29, her vision was normal. The treatment that Guza Cassar used was prayer and great trust in Our Lady.

MRS. GLADYS CAMPBELL

In October 1994, Gladys wrote an account of a favour she had received through the intervention of the Blessed Virgin. In her report she thanked all those who prayed for her, especially Guza Mifsud who, before the surgical intervention which Gladys had to endure, had assured her that she will “soon be back at Girgenti to work for Our Lady.”

The case was as follows: some months before, Gladys suddenly fell ill. After she was examined and had an x-ray taken, the doctors in hospital told her that they had to operate her kidneys. They told her that she had reason for which to thank Our Lady because the harm in the kidney was still in its initial stages. What surprised the doctors was that, usually, the illness is more serious than as seen on the x-ray, but with regard to Gladys, surgery showed that her condition was much better than they expected.

The surgical intervention was such a complete success that the doctors told her that no other medical treatment was necessary.

MR E. GALEA FROM AUSTRALIA

Mr. E. Galea had come to Malta to spend some time on the island. He returned to Australia in September 1994. The trip wore him out to such an extent that when he arrived in Australia he had to go to hospital. Nobody knew what he was suffering from; he thought that he was about to die.

When he was in Malta, he had passed near the meeting place at Girgenti and was impressed by the devotion towards the Blessed Virgin which he saw in the people who were present. Consequently, when he found himself in hospital, he recalled Our Lady of Girgenti and prayed fervently to be cured. At last, the doctors told him that he was suffering from a severe feverish cold! He was soon restored to health and went back home safe and sound.

A PERSON FROM ZABBAR

A person from Zabbar said that, two months before, she felt pain in her entrails and feared that she was suffering from a tumour or a cancer. Before going for a medical examination, she earnestly prayed Our Lady of Consecration and promised that if nothing serious is diagnosed, she would publish the grace received so that people would place more trust in Our Lady. Nothing serious resulted from the medical examination.

MR. HILI FROM GOZO

Mr. Carmel Hili from Xewkija, Gozo, has a son named Marjohn. When Marjohn was about a year old, he developed an obstruction in the blood circulation of the lung. The doctors who examined the boy said that by time, the lung will get back to normal and the veins will widen. Years passed by. Every year the boy used to undergo a medical examination but there was no improvement in the lung. When Marjohn was twelve years old, it was decided that a surgical intervention was necessary in order to remedy the defect in the lung. All preparations were ready for the boy to be taken to England.

As many people warned the boy's father that his son would not return to Malta alive, he grew frightened and was nearly discouraged. He made an appointment with Guza Mifsud at her home where they prayed for a long time together. After an hour and a half, Guza urged him to go to London together with his son and assured him that the operation would be successful and the boy would return safe and sound.

Marjohn and his father went to London and stayed there for about three weeks. This happened in April 1994. In an interview Carmel said: "It is very painful to see your son in such a misery." However, the pain was not useless because the boy returned cured... and Guza's words were completely fulfilled.

PAWLA CINI FROM KALKARA

This woman had a daughter Carrie, married Calleja, who for three years suffered from her Thyroid glands but the doctors who examined her could not detect the cause of her illness. Her neck swelled up to her ears. She could not swallow food, everything got stuck and she nearly used to suffocate.

Her mother encouraged her to visit a doctor and she complied. The first doctor she visited told her that she had a strained nerve. When she realised that all was futile, she visited another doctor who confirmed the first diagnosis. Pawla then took her daughter to Mr. Zammit, who placed her under observation in his department at hospital. In the meantime, Pawla had given her a holy picture of Our Lady of Girgenti and she used to make use of the water she took from Girgenti. She had great faith in Our Lady.

When the surgeon operated Gracie, he made a slit from one side to the other beneath the tonsils. Incredibly, he only found a lump of fat, which was easily removed, and therefore, he had no reason to remove the Thyroid glands. From that day onwards, Gracie recovered. She eats regularly and her hair is again as thick as it was before she became ill.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS MEDITATED BY GUZA MIFSUD

Guza recorded this Way of the Cross on February 18, 1994

In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Lord God of Hosts, You loved man so much that You sent Your Son Jesus into the world so that by means of His sufferings, man is saved from eternal perdition and taken up to Heaven. I will now meditate on the sufferings that Jesus endured for us.

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. In our thoughts, let us meditate on how much Jesus suffered for us. Let us meditate on the first station when Jesus was condemned to death without deserving such a sentence. Jesus accepted with joy this news given to Him by His brethren. They gave it to Him notwithstanding all the marvellous things He performed with them. He cured their sick, He raised many people from death, He cast the devil out of some people and did many other things. However, Jesus was still condemned to death. For this, we should thank Jesus. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Right now, in my thoughts I am walking together with Jesus along the roads of Calvary. Let us meditate on the second station when Jesus was presented with the cross on which His life was to end. Jesus accepted the wooden cross with joy and we should likewise accept with joy, with humility and patience all the crosses that the Lord gives us on earth; be they illnesses or something else that displeases our heart. We should accept just as Christ who was thinking about all that He had to endure, did. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the third station. Jesus, You suffered so much in order to redeem our souls. Thank You, Jesus. Let us think about when You began to walk along the roads of Calvary and You fell for the first time under the wooden cross You were carrying upon You. Jesus help us so that while we are on earth we will not commit any sin, both venial and still more mortal. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the fourth station. Jesus was ascending the road of Calvary, dragging the wooden cross on His shoulders, and there He met the Lady of Life, Our Lady, His Mother and ours. When their eyes met, their heart broke and they could not speak. Nevertheless, both the Lord Jesus and the beloved Virgin Mary communicated with their thoughts. The Blessed Virgin was suffering in her heart all the anguish of Jesus. It was very sorrowful for our beloved Mother Mary when the cruel Jews separated her from her Son. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the fifth station when Jesus was walking along the road of Calvary and the soldiers called Simon to carry the cross in order to relieve Jesus. The soldiers did not do this because they pitied Jesus but because they feared that Jesus would not make it because of all His sufferings. Perhaps Simon was not pleased that he had to carry the cross of redemption, but he did carry it and Jesus repaid him through his two sons. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the sixth station when Jesus met that holy woman, Veronica. She pitied Him to such an extent that she approached Him to wipe His holy face. Jesus repaid her by leaving the image of His face imprinted on the holy veil. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the seventh station. While Jesus was on His way, He was thinking about the sufferings that the Lord God presented to Him in order to save humanity. Jesus undertook this suffering with patience, quietly and wholeheartedly. Let us thank Jesus. Let us think about when Jesus fell for the second time on His face beneath the cross. Let us ask Jesus to help us so that we would never commit any sin and to keep our heart always in God's grace. We should thank Jesus for this. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the eighth station. Jesus is drawing towards the end of His life in order to redeem every person who came on earth. While Jesus was passing from the streets, some women who showed Him their grief approached him. They wept and said: 'We are so sorry about what happened to Our Lord who did so much for us Jews. We think frequently about His words and we have never thought that He would endure these things.' However, Jesus said to them: 'Cry for yourselves and for your children.' Friends, I will likewise tell you that we should cry for ourselves, for our country, Malta and Gozo, and for the whole world. We should say thank you for all that Jesus did for us along the road of Calvary. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the ninth station. However, we should not only meditate on the third fall of Jesus beneath the cross.

Jesus suffered terribly beneath the burden of the cross, but we should also think about the holy and blessed supper that took place before He started His passion, during which He instituted the great sacrament of the Eucharist. During Lent, we should also think about the important day of Easter and about the Eucharist. Jesus bequeathed Himself in the Eucharist and for this, we should greatly thank Him. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Jesus is ascending the road to Calvary bearing all His suffering, carrying the wooden cross and thinking about all that He had to go through. We should think how the cruel soldiers got at Him and started to take off the holy and precious dress that was stuck to Him because of the divine wounds. Jesus felt grieved when they stripped Him but He suffered all this for us, to atone for the evil acts we effect upon ourselves; indecent clothing not just by women but even by men. That is why Jesus performed this act of humility, when they stripped Him of that holy and blessed dress from His divine body. We should be very careful not to offend Jesus by dishonesty, by evil things that transgress holy purity. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Jesus offered His life to God the Father in forgiveness of everyone's sins. We should thank the Lord for this. The soldiers told Him to lie down on the wooden cross, they asked Him for His right hand, then for His left one, for His right and left foot, and started hammering on His holy and divine hands. We should greatly thank the Lord for this enormous pain. Terrible was the suffering that Jesus suffered for me because of my sins, because of my faults. We should greatly think about the holy goodness of Jesus who suffered so much for us. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the twelfth station when Jesus was raised on the cross, in mid-air. On the cross Jesus was in agony for me, for you and for everyone, for those who died so far and those who still have to die. My dear brothers and sisters in the Lord, my beloved representatives of states, let us think about the great sufferings which our dear Jesus suffered for us along the road of Calvary and on the cross. Thank You Jesus. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the thirteenth station. Jesus suffered terribly but the Blessed Virgin suffered greatly as well. Let us think about how those cruel soldiers took His hands and His feet off the cross and threw Him in the arms of that sorrowful heart likewise nailed to the cross, of the beloved Virgin Mary. Holy Mother, you suffered in step with the sufferings endured by Christ along the roads of Calvary. Blessed Mother, you acted with so much love and kindness towards Him when He was growing up and now you received Him dead in your embrace. We have so much for which to thank you. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, because by Your holy cross and by Your death You have redeemed the world. Let us meditate on the fourteenth station when the holy and divine body of Jesus who had suffered so much along the road of Calvary was placed in a tomb. They took Him from His Mother's arms to bury Him in a new tomb. We should thank the Lord for this and we should show great respect towards the Blessed Virgin for all that she has performed with us. She brought Jesus forth into the world, He suffered along the road of Calvary, and they took Him from her arms and buried Him in a tomb. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...

Five Our Fathers, five Hail Marys and five Glory be in honour of the five wounds of Jesus.

Let us pray for the Pope's intention and to acquire the holy indulgences that are attached to this blessed and holy Way of the Cross that we have meditated. Let us heartily offer it in atonement of our sins, for the needs of the Head of the Church, the Pope, for the needs of the missions, priests, religious, for the needs of all our brethren and for the souls in Purgatory. Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory be...
